About us

hamoso is a small-sized company of Oeschger Handelsvermittlung (legally a sole proprietorship) which was founded in 2020. The headquarter is in Büren SO which is located in the beautiful canton Solothurn in Switzerland.

hamoso is a commercial agency which supports startups, small and medium-sized enterprises coming from Central-Eastern and Southeastern Europe in placing products or services on the German-speaking market.

We have working experiences in the fields of trade, sales, e-commerce, social media, and marketing. We know the German-speaking market and we also have a clear understanding of the social, political and economic circumstances of Central-Eastern and Southeastern Europe. Thus, we have a quite broad understanding in that what we do.

You can rely on us!

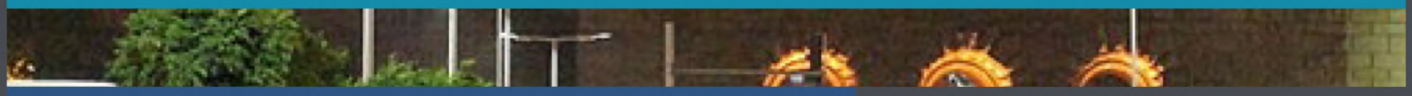
Our Mission

By looking specifically on the German-speaking market, it is apparent that some products or services from Central-Eastern and Southeastern Europe (CESE) are often not represented. But hamoso is convinced that there is a lot of business potential for various products and/ or services from CESE.

Consequently, hamoso passionately supports companies from Central-Eastern and/ or Southeastern in order to make market access in the German-speaking world possible.

In order to make things possible, hamoso collects all important information about ideas and goals of a company. After having all necessary information and after setting a timeframe, we will begin to use our know-how in order to find the best way to enter new markets.



Your success is our motivation!

Our Values

We love to place products on markets because this is exciting. But it is not only this that drives us but also the conviction of supporting a European economic integration.

We are a perfect partner for startups and small & middle-sized enterprises because we are flexible professional, supportive and uncomplicated and we offer best value for money.

Thinking sustainable is important in respect for next generations. So, also for us, it is important to make decisions based on such a principle because in a short and long run, we all will benefit from it.

hamoso sees itself as a social enterprise believing in a European integration which can improve social balance. Therefore, part of our general income is being invested in a NGO.

You can count on our values!
