Billund er efter danske måleforhold en relativt lille by, men på trods af den beskedne størrelse, på lidt mere end 7000 indbyggere, besøger tæt på 3 mio mennesker hvert år byen, enten som turist eller som gennemrejsende. Det skyldes primært Billund lufthavn, som er Danmarks 2. største internationale lufthavn og, naturligvis, LEGOLAND & LEGO HOUSE.

Billund is, by Danish standards, a relatively small town with a modest population of little more than 7,000. However, despite its size, close to 3 million people visit the town each year, either as tourists or in transit. This is primarily due to Billund Airport, Denmark's second-largest international airport, and, of course, LEGOLAND & LEGO HOUSE.
