CELEBRATE WITH US DOWN UNDER!

The Australian Acupuncture and Chinese Medicine Association (AACMA) warmly invites our overseas colleagues to join us.

For more than 50 years, AACMA has been dedicated to representing, promoting, and advocating for our members and the Chinese medicine profession.

The highlight of our calendar is our national conference - the largest Chinese medicine gathering in the Southern Hemisphere. Featuring international and national speakers, a trade exhibition showcasing the latest books, equipment, and professional tools, and ample networking opportunities with researchers, academics, fellow practitioners, and industry stakeholders. A trip to our sunny shores in Australia promises a rewarding and professionally enriching event!

CONFERENCE PROGRAM & SPEAKER LINE-UP

Join us for an exceptional line-up of speakers at AACMAC 2024, featuring 6 international and 15 Australian experts including:

Professor Huang Huang is a leading authority on Shang Han Lun formulas. His expertise extends not only to herbalists and dispensers but also to acupuncturists who prescribe herbal patents. His lectures (in both Chinese & English) will enhance your knowledge and improve patient outcomes.

Dr. Poney Chiang is a leader in integrating modern science with neurophysiology, classical texts, & acupuncture points. Combining ancient wisdom with contemporary understanding, Poney will impart his expertise in neuro-meridian acupuncture for treating neuro-muscular pain & neurological conditions.

Matthew Bauer is president and founder of the Acupuncture Now Foundation, has been advocating acupuncture in treating peripheral neuropathy since the 1980s. Affecting millions worldwide & being a frequent concern in our clinics, Matthew will share his 40 years of expertise in treating this condition.

Learn from these dynamic speakers and many more at AACMAC 2024!
