BUILDING

At number 30th of Gran Vía Street, a sumptuous building stands since 1924, a work made by Teodoro Anasagasti and his father-in-law, José López Sallaberry, also creators of the well-known Paris-Madrid building , that still today harmoniously combines classic and contemporary style.

The building belongs to the second section of Gran Vía then called Bulevar of Piy Maragall. It consist of a set of three joined buildings, as a symbol of the culture and power on the time. The building stands out for its dark blue glass and its triple arched entrance on the Street level.

SPACE

At sky level, above the main arterial road of Madrid, it is ASTER: an open-plan space of events of multidisciplinary nature open to anyone who wants to enjoy an exclusive and differentiated environment.

From the fourteenth floor, the large window that surrounds a 225 square meters duplex with a terrace, it offers a panoramic view with no architectural barriers of the capital.

US

We organize all type of events and corporate shares, adapting the space to our customers' needs and desires and their proposals

We offer too a premium advice, including a complete support throughtout the development and execution of the events.

ARCHITECTURE

BULEVAR30 presents one floor of 150 square meters.

It bases its contemporary aesthetics on the High-tech architectural style that flourished in the 70's.

Its panoramic Windows and views are a perfect example of the movement that revolutionized the buildings by revitalizing the space through industrial materials.

Its thirteen floors give to te viewer a 360° view on the main artery of Madrid: Gran Vía.
