CHAIRPERSON'S MESSAGE

I would like to welcome you to the Mercury Theatre and thank you for supporting Colchester Operatic Society Second Edition (CO2) for this production of School of Rock.

This is my first show in the role of Chairperson for CO2 and what a pleasure it has been. I would personally like to thank Ann Taylor, the previous chairperson who retired after Fame. I learnt so much from her in the many years that I was her vice chair and I hope that I will be able to continue what the previous chairs have created as CO2 head towards their 40th year.

We had over 100 young people audition for School of Rock, which was incredible, and I am delighted to be able to present to you the cast we have on stage today. We welcome Laura Hicks and Leah Scott as co-directors, Laura was in CO2 several years ago and has been assistant director for both COS and CO2 on many shows, and Ashton Moore as musical director, who has also performed with COS. All their hard work and creative input has been invaluable.

Our cast of young people can only do what they do thanks to the numerous volunteers who have given up their time as committee members, chaperones, backstage crew, instrumental mentors, and wardrobe. I am proud of the talent that Colchester and its surrounding areas have to offer. It is an honour to watch young people develop their skills, many of whom will go on to build a successful career within the performing arts industry, as many previous members of CO2 have already done.

We are always keen to welcome new people whether young enough to join the cast or slightly older (16 years plus) to help in some way behind the scenes. Please contact co2theatre@colchesteroperaticsociety.co.uk if you would like more information.

Charlotte Butcher
Chairperson of CO2

CREATIVE TEAM

LAURA HICKS - Co-Director

Laura graduated from Colchester Institute with a BA (hons) Degree in Musical Theatre. She has performed in many shows, including CO2's Guys and Dolls as Miss Adelaide, Secrets Every Smart Traveller Should Know, Sideshow and The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee, which was taken to the Edinburgh Fringe Festival where it was critically acclaimed and given many 5* reviews. Laura then decided she wanted to take her career into the teaching profession so studied for a PGCE and has since gone on to teach across many age ranges. She has been a teacher of Drama and Dance at Philip Morant School for 10 years, as various points leading the department and directing many of their annual shows. Having assisted directors for COS/CO2 productions, this is Laura's first main directors role, working with Leah Scott. She was last seen assisting with COS's recent production of Shrek the Musical. She is very pleased to be working with Leah and Ashton for this production and would like to thank the cast for their hard work and commitment in the run up to this rockin' show

LEAH SCOTT - Co-Director

Leah has always been interested in performing and the many pathways and opportunities that musical theatre has to offer. She took a performance based path throughout her education and graduated from Essex university with a BA (hons) in Musical Theatre where she undertook leading roles in Seussical, The Wild Party, Sweney Todd and A...my name is Alice. In 2009 she completed a PGCE in the lifelong learning sector and since then has worked numerous jobs within the education sector including course leader of Performing Arts at Epping Forest College and Head of Dance at Colchester Institute. She was fortunate enough to leave her day job in the education sector after having 2 children to focus on family life and the rollercoaster also known as parenthood. She was able to continue teaching dance and musical theatre at local performing arts school, Theatricool, which was founded by her good friend Sally Fisher and where she has worked since it was established in 2009. Leah is currently the assistant principal for Theatricool Performing Arts School and runs the school alongside Sally. She directs multiple shows with them throughout the year which consist of showcases and full scale musical productions, some of which have included The Little Mermaid, We Will Rock You and most recently, Seussical, all of which have been performed at The Mercury Theatre. Leah is very excited to be co-directing her first musical with CO2 this year and would like to thank everyone involved for welcoming her on board to be part of this epic show.

Rock on!!
