Digital Marketing Course Batch____ Write Content for Your Website:-

1. You are advised to write down the contents for your website:-
2. For this purpose you need to decide on what products and services you want to build your website.
3. Do research on your subject or topic on Google and prepare the contents.
4. You may use copy paste option in the initial phase. But after learning how to prepare content, you have to write down your own contents or rephrase whatever you are copying from the websites.
5. That should be the routine to add contents to your webpages and blog posts.
6. Plan for the number of pages you want to create in your website.
7. Initially you need to plan at least 10 pages to your website.
8. You are advised to have a blog in your website too.
9. And for this blog you need to prepare 10 posts in the beginning. Keeping in mind all the above mentioned suggestions you have to prepare contents for your website and blog.
10. Once you completed your tasks share it in the Whatsapp Group of your batch.

Wishing you All the Best!
