Welcome to Volume 4 of the European Journal of Counselling Theory, Research and Practice (EJC-TRAP). This publication is an international peer reviewed journal. We encourage academic contributions from researchers and counselling practitioners. We publish theory, research and practice articles on all aspects of counselling and psychotherapy.

We invite contributions to the journal on the following: original research; research protocols; review articles; brief reports; techniques, interventions and strategies; case studies; book reviews; keynote papers; conference, congress and symposium reports.

The editors can provide initial guidance as to whether or not a particular topic is suitable for the journal. Email us the title and abstract and we will endeavour to respond within seven working days.

We are also interested in hearing from experts in the field who are considering editing a special issue on a stress related topic.

Databases
