The Marketplace Movement... 7 Mountains... = The NAR-prophet Jonathan Cahn

(Marketplace Movement... 7 Mountains...)

Dear friends in Christ Jesus,

I began this newsletter already in March 2018... originally as an "attachment", but "other" got in the way and then I got sick... and had to take a "break" ;-D)

BUT then I've felt "inspired" for quite a while to start writing again and collected some material - especially in November 2023 when I saw this tragic news about IHOPKC Mike Bickle's sexual "misconduct":

No, it WILL NOT be about him – hear me out!!!

(This newsletter is originally written in Swedish and has now been translated into English...)

See the article in its entirety at the end of this newsletter on page 65 (in case it is removed from internet)

July 8, 2024 I noticed that the "Charisma-links" indeed have been removed...

At the time of the article, you could see a lot of advertisements for Jonathan Cahn's books!

More about this a little further down... = that was the "point" of linking here....

BUT when we still have the link in front of us... let me take the opportunity to comment on the article itself briefly!

Shame and tragedy to hear about Mike Bickle...

Hm... but what can you expect when the NARian's "role model", whom they called "seers", Bob Jones, himself had "sexual vices"....?

<https://churchwatchcentral.com/2016/12/11/why-bob-jones-is-a-false-prophet-and-must-be-rejected/>

Why Bob Jones is a false prophet and must be rejected...

Charisma Magazine's article "Prophet Bob Jones Passes Away" provides a link to tributes to Jones from Bickle as well as from Bill Johnson (senior pastor of Bethel Church in Redding, California) and Rick Joyner (founder of MorningStar Ministries in Fort Mill, South Carolina).

What the Charisma article does not mention is that, in 1991, Jones was removed from ministering in a Vineyard church after confessing to sexual misconduct with two women. This misconduct included encouraging the women to undress in his office "so they could stand 'naked before the Lord' in order to receive a 'word.'"

= VERY UNPLEASANT AND UNBIBLICAL!!!!

Below picture copied at the end of this link in "NEWS Flash" about 22:15 minutes... shows that Micke Bickle looked up to Bob Jones...

These Aren't the Apostles You're Looking For

★ FAVORITE - 5 min

Mike Bickle was always a wolf. And this was clear even before his abuse victims found their voice. It was clear because he wasn't interested in expounding the Scriptures. He preferred to exegete his own dreams and visions and new revelations over and above the Word of God. Students of IHOP had to listen to HOURS AND HOURS of Mike endlessly going on about Bob Jones and his flaky false prophecies.

He led young people to think that they could prepare the earth for Bob's Billio... Visa mer

SO... WHY ARE THESE TWO – MIKE BICKLE & JONATHAN CAHN – IN CHARISMA MAGAZINE/NEWS???

Well, because they both belong to the Faith Movement and its NAR-movement (New Apostolic Reformation) – and they are two of their self-proclaimed NAR-apostles & prophets – among many, many more "NARians"!!

Check the list @ NAR Connections: <https://narconnections.com/>

<https://narconnections.com/search-by-name-m/> Mike Bickle

<https://narconnections.com/search-by-name-j/> Jonathan Cahn

This should be reason enough to realize that both gentlemen are imparting false doctrines!

But... to show how serious it really is...

...I hereby attach information provided by a "Parousia friend" regarding

Jonathan Cahn's Kabbalah and Sermon of the Anti-Christian False Global Revival and

The history of the occultism of Kabbalah and its infiltration of the churches

who has a burden to clarify how we Christians should - according to the Bible - warn against the Kabbalah infiltration within the churches and the Antichrist plan hiding behind the worldly false Zionism - and at the same time support God's plan for Israel as chosen by God.

See attachment/PDF #1 - Jonathan Cahn's Kabbalah & The History about Kabbalah

OBS!

I share this burden!

Here you get real insight into Cahn's Kabbalah and New Age-inspired teachings... interesting information about the "Shekinah Glory"... and much more... READ this - don't miss this!!!!

Because of the enormously long delay with this newsletter, I received this PDF and can now include it as an attachment = God works all things together for good – God IS Good

There is a naivety within Christianity to believe that just because you call yourself a Christian and "stand for Israel" – and teach about Israel – that you would be a trustworthy Bible teacher... but that is often not the case, unfortunately! It is important to realize that too MANY are those who really stand up for Israel, but at the same time convey heresies...

So watch out!!!

The same applies to the reporting on the war with Israel that has been going on since October 7, 2023...

It is often "biased" and without facts... at least in Sweden if watching mass media...

Here is reliable up-dates from Pinto @ TBNIsrael: <https://www.youtube.com/@TBNIsrael>

and directly from IDF: <https://www.youtube.com/@IsraelDefenseForces>

These links have IMPORTANT updates on Israel... things you don't get to hear in the mass media...

Yes, all heresies and lies probably contributes to "the Love growing cold"... The love of the Truth...

And then you'd rather listen to propaganda about the war between Gaza and Israel than to facts!

Just one example: in Swedish Television News (SVT) – called Rapport – from May 11-24 they say:

Since no foreign journalists are allowed into Gaza, we have asked a local TV crew to visit the hospital for SVT.

A team we have collaborated with before. = So it is Hamas themselves who are filming and reporting!!!

Thanks to my sister & brother in Christ – Elvor & Janne @ www.elvorochjanne.se – who follow the events and inform directly from the IDF - Israel Defence Force – I get reports from their angle too with Swedish translation! Unfortunately, I do NOT trust SVT or Hamas!

I stand FOR Israel in this tragic war!

It is about Israel's existence and we KNOW from the Bible that God has a plan for them!

And remember:

In Jesus' time, the Jews of Judea and Galilee (which is present-day Israel-Palestine) lived under Roman control.

There was NO such thing as "Palestine" back then...

Yes, Jonathan Cahn is part of the Faith Movement and their NAR-movement!!!

He is many times featured in Charisma Magazine, which promotes and sells his books...

<https://mycharisma.com/> = kind of funny... here he was = on front page!

The Talmud is the central text of Rabbinic Judaism and the primary source of Jewish religious law (halakha) and Jewish theology.

Until the advent of modernity, in nearly all Jewish communities, the Talmud was the centerpiece of Jewish cultural life and was foundational to "all Jewish thought and aspirations", serving also as "the guide for the daily life" of Jews.

A GLOSSARY OF NAR TERMINOLOGY

Yes, I have written many newsletters about this... <https://www.truereformation.net/karin-j-news/>

And here <https://elvorochjanne.se/karin-jansson-nyhetsbrev/> some with English translation

I now have some questions for you, who are Christians, and who take part or have taken part of Jonathan Cahn's teaching...

Does it not concern you that his name is on the list of NAR Connections?

NAR = New Apostolic Reformation = self-proclaimed apostles and prophets

Doesn't it bother you that Jonathan Cahn's teachings can be linked to Kabbalah?

Cahn refers many times to teachings of the "Zohar" and other Jewish mysticism...

Does this not trouble you in your spirit?

Doesn't this make you wonder WHY a Bible believer needs extra-biblical teachings to prove their teaching/doctrine?

Read more about this in the attachment/PDF!

According to Cahn himself, in his book "The Harbinger":

Kabbalah is a doctrine of esoteric knowledge concerning God and the universe...

It is the traditional mystical understanding of the Torah.

Most forms of Kabbalah teach that every letter, word, number, and accent of scripture contains a hidden sense; and it teaches the methods of interpretation for ascertaining these occult meanings

This can be read in attached copies at the end of this newsletter – see page 48... the book's page: 195.

I have attached copies of "The Harbinger - Fact or Fiction" - I've pasted the pages in the end of this letter!

(my underlines and notes... = free of charge!)

Take your time and read through them – IF you want... just scroll down...

On pages 194-199 of the book (below on pages 48-50) you can clearly see that

Jonathan is involved in and teaches Jewish Mysticism... = such as Kabbalah, Talmud, Zohar...

IF you read his book "The Harbinger" ...did you not react to this?

Here's a YouTube debunking/revealing Jonathan Cahn's "paradigm"...

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ieyZVNi3\_sE - KABBALAH CAHN

She reads from this link - so you can read if you prefer: <https://christianobserver.net/jonathan-cahns-blue-paradigm/>

According to the writings of occult leaders, Kabbalah Initiation must occur worldwide before their "Moshiach"/messiah can return.

That is Jonathan Cahn's "assignment": to initiate Christians into Kabbalah...

TAKE WARNING!

And this video reveals some interesting things...

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=b3Ro\_gKFxw

Another KABBALAH GURU? And follow up to "Jesus is not your boyfriend"

30:00 minutes in this video he mentions about Jonathan Cahn

Another KABBALAH GURU? And follow up to "Jesus is not your boyfriend"

31:04 ...his hands... "three and three" – joined together in the same body sons of God – daughters of men.
... he is giving this occult blessing

(= look at his fingers...)

He teaches from the Jewish writing of the Zohar:

"I found it in the mystical writings, Jewish writings of the Zohar...."

The Zohar speaks, the rabbis are writing of the redemption of the worlds with Messiah's coming. They speak of life from the dead, they speak of the resurrection – the redemption of the worlds..."

*From the message:
"The Zohar Speaks"*

MORE about Jonathan Cahn's "hand signs" in the attack

<https://sidroth.org/jonathan-cahns-urgent-warning-to-america-theyve-returned-jonathan-cahn/>

Yes, that's terrible... he does mention about abortion... but misses ALL the abortions happening TODAY = that is sacrifice!!!!

demons here and demons there... God here and God there... NOT Jesus so often... they have "come back"...

He says nothing about repentance from false teachings/doctrines... from the Roman Catholic Church...

Han refers to the Maccabees = and says himself that it's NOT in The Bible!

*... next I'll give you another example; The Maccabees, you know this is not in the Bible, but it's in between the Bible and it's... God used it.
The Maccabees, they were told by the Greeks, now the gods come back. They keep coming back, they come back and they say; "you have to bow down to us"...*

Sid Roth mentions Kathryn Kuhlman in connection with "the presence of God"...
= and no opposition from Jonathan Cahn!

... everywhere before I read the New Testament, I was a guest on a woman's television show that many of you have heard of, Kathryn Kuhlman. And the Glory of God jumped on me on that show. I hadn't even read the New Testament, I was witnessing all over the world about the reality. You know, you know, you don't even have to read the New Testament. All you have to, I mean you should, but all you have to do is know Jesus is real and tell the world. Don't you wait till you get all these degrees! Open your mouth now!

In my Biblical world, it is extremely important to read the New Testament if you are going to tell the world that Jesus Christ is real...!!!! So you can distinguish the Biblical Jesus from the New Age "jesus"...

In 2013 I mentioned about Kathryn Kuhlman in a newsletter:

On pages 17-18 and 20 – more to read about Kathryn...

Here are the attachments to the above newsletter... https://www.elvorochianne.se/laror-debatter/sverige/Karin\_20\_11\_13\_eng.html

Read about Todd Bentley's "BAM" if you haven't already!!!

Some of the links don't work today, but what I wrote about Kathryn Kuhlman can be read!

Jonathan Cahn's URGENT WARNING to America: They've Returned! (Jonathan Cahn)

41:02-41:31: There will be fire coming from many of you. There will be a pillar of fire over your head. Many of you, wherever you walk; the presence of God will fall on people beyond anything we've ever seen! You'll go into school where they say "no schools prayer"; and the whole school through, including the principal and the teachers will be on their faces repenting and you don't have to say a word!

You don't have to say a word...

Jonathan Cahn issues an urgent prophetic warning to America: They have returned...

Is this Biblical???? NO!!!!!!

Only the Gospel of Christ is the power of God unto salvation – and that MUST be proclaimed in words – told about – according to the Bible!!!

SO, IT IS THE "GODS" THAT HAVE COME BACK ACCORDING TO JONATHAN CAHN...

But if we read the Bible; it is the "fallen angels" who fell at the same time when Satan rebelled in heaven... they remain where they ended up = here on earth... they have not "come back"! It is possible that some religions and pagan practitioners have started worshiping these "idols" again...and thus can be perceived as having "come back"... When Christians fall away from the faith, these "gods = evil forces" become more visible...in our society...

WE WHO ARE BIBLE READERS KNOW THAT THERE IS ONLY ONE GOD – A LIVING GOD!

Jonathan Cahn ought to know about that too... and explain & preach... one might think!!!

The fact that he can be a guest of the New Ager Sid Roth is also a question mark!!!!?????

Jonathan Cahn: Standing for Truth in a Fallen Culture | Praise on TBN

Jonathan Cahn sits down on TBN's Praise to share a message from his book, The Return of the Gods, about how our culture has forsaken its Christian heritage in favor of worshipping the enemy, and how we must stand for truth in our everyday lives!

Hm... stand for Truth...

WHAT IS TRUTH? Pilate asked (John 18:38)... = Jesus IS the Truth – He was standing right in front of him!!!

So... I want to believe that it is the Truth of Jesus that Jonathan Cahn means by this...

But with everything we have seen above – and in the attachment/PDF – and shown below... he mixes in too much unbiblical (occultism and mysticism) with Biblical Truths – so it becomes a "homemade mishmash" of a smorgasbord where you can swallow and choose and take what you want...

Another "hand sign"????

Approximate 31:55.... the TBN reporter points out that there is only one God... AMEN!

It's just about selling this book... deep sigh!! Nothing new under the sun – this is nothing "new" ...

As I once heard: Evil thrives when Godly people do nothing...

It is us Christians who have compromised and who have "caved" to fear – we dare not speak out...!

SO THIS IS THE REASON WHY "THEY CAME BACK" ... (IF THEY HAVE NOW HAVE DONE SO!?)

HERE you can see that Jonathan Cahn is at the same conference as self-proclaimed NAR-apostles:

<https://perrystone.org/2023-prophetic-summit/>

Perry hosted Jonathan Cahn, Jimmy Evans, Bill Cloud, Lance Wallnau, and Mark Biltz for a message-packed four-day event with a maximum capacity crowd at the Omega Center International.

By the way; Lance Wallnau is the "leader" of the Seven Mountains Mandate/Strategy... (see previous newsletters!)

I've had my "eyes" on Jonathan Cahn since the book "The Harbinger"...

I did not read the book itself, but a book, written by David James, who exposed the "heresies" in it!

The Harbinger: Fact or Fiction?: Does Isaiah 9:10 Really Contain an Ancient Mystery That Holds the Secret to America's Future?

It is from this book that I have copied pages and added to the end of this newsletter!

(These copies start on page 35... and on the pages before; I have quotes from those pages...)

Short book review of the above book: <https://tottministries.org/the-harbinger-fact-or-fiction/>

Book Reviews, Nonfiction

The Harbinger: Fact or Fiction

Jonathan Cahn's, The Harbinger, is a warning to America that God's judgment is imminent unless the country repents and turns to the Lord, and that very soon. The need for repentance and true dedication to Christ in our society is not doubted by most Christians. America, as a whole, has rejected the Lord, ignored His ways, and rebelled against His sovereign rule. That we ultimately reap what we sow is a biblical concept that is not going to be repealed for the United States and Cahn's basic theme is well worth considering. If the book is read merely as a novel warning our country to wake up spiritually it has value, but the author makes immediately clear that "what is contained within the story is real" (p. 7). In other words Cahn believes that God pronounced exacting judgment on America and that judgment is found in Scripture, specifically Isaiah 9:10-11. Cahn determines that this text in Isaiah contains a mysterious prophecy directed not to ancient Israel but to modern America. At this point the author massages Scripture, American history and current events in an attempt to prove that God's judgment on the United States has been hiding in these verses from the day they were given by Isaiah, but have now been unlocked by the careful investigation of Cahn. Nothing could be further from the truth and, even more importantly, once someone decides they can cherry-pick verses at will, change the meaning of these texts to fit his theories and use random hermeneutical methods, anything can be "proven." However, very few people will recognize what Cahn has done, and fewer still will do the hard work of investigating his interpretations.

Here is where David James has greatly benefited the body of Christ. He has carefully, graciously and thoroughly analyzed the claims found in The Harbinger and found many of them lacking biblical support and historical accuracy. James has written this book not merely to expose error but to keep God's people from being led astray by false teachings and improper hermeneutical approaches to Scripture. I believe he has accomplished these goals in Fact or Fiction.

There were many Biblical errors... ☹️

And there are MANY MORE warnings about Jonathan Cahn online...

Yes, and on the above link there is a "tab" = Joyce Meyer Lip Surgery

Joyce Meyer Plastic Surgery: A Huge Flop - Plastic Surgery Mistakes

WHAT do I want to convey with this?

Well... it is quite obvious WHAT part of her collection of money, donations and sales of books goes to... Plastic surgery doesn't come cheap – and she's clearly had quite a few!

Under the pictures it says, among other things:

Lip Augmentation Plastic Surgery - Nose job and Lip implants - Facelift Chin improvement, Lip augmentation - Plastic surgery feed - Plastic Surgery Mistakes

Deep sighs!

Hm... can you trust such a preacher, who is not satisfied with HOW GOD created her???

She is to teach to follow the Lord and find PEACE with Him – to accept God's Love... that He approves of us as we are IN Christ The Lord – but THEN SHE SEARCHES FOR HERSELF "youthfulness" and wants to be "forever young"???!!!!

Poor woman – poor soul... really tragic...

May the Lord have mercy on her and deliver her from this "self-destructive gospel"!

And here is a link that demonstrates the "greediness", unfortunately:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yNiCLz9IH-g>

Joyce Meyer Says "Give Us More More Money Or The Devil Will Get You"

Yes, off course she too should have a private jet – worth almost 7 million dollars...!!!!

Above air plane photo is an older photo... as we have seen in the photos above, this is how she looks today....

Note that she doesn't have a single wrinkle on her face!

Joyce is born 1943 and was 81 years old on June 4 this year...

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Joyce\_Meyer

This is not natural...

= only possible with major "expensive" plastic surgeries... 😞

But it doesn't end here, unfortunately... check this link:

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=D\_aJhC5t82E

So she got tattooed at an older age – around 80 years old...?

*Two weeks ago I got tattooed on my shoulder.
I have a nice little cross back there and it says "I belong to Jesus".*

And just for good measure I put "love" on my foot to remind me to walk in love...

Do you hear how the audience applauds and shouts with "delight" when she talks about this...!!!????
Scary!

Then she is going to "teach" about tattooing and reads from the Bible and means that this is proof enough that tattoos are OK:

... behold I have indelibly imprinted or tattooed a picture of you

She obviously uses a "different" and, in my eyes, WRONG Bible...
You notice that when she reads "imprinted or tattooed"...

How should it be written correctly!? Well, at least NOT "tattooed"!

I have included some Bible quotes from different Bibles:

Isaiah 49:16

King James Version

Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me.

New King James Version

See, I have inscribed you on the palms of My hands; Your walls are continually before Me.

I found the Bible Joyce Meyer is reading from!

AMPC = Amplified Bible, Classic Edition

Behold, I have indelibly imprinted (tattooed a picture of) you on the palm of each of My hands; [O Zion] your walls are continually before Me.

THIS IS ONE OF TWO BIBLES - also Living Bible (TLB) - WHICH HAVE "TATTOOED" - OF ALL ENGLISH BIBLES FOUND AT THE LINK BELOW - SEE FOR YOURSELF!!!

<https://www.biblegateway.com/verse/en/Isaiah%2049%3A16>

A very good commentary on the Amplified Bible:

<https://biblicalone.com/what-is-wrong-with-the-amplified-bible/>

Critics argue it strays from traditional translations like the King James Version, sometimes leading to misunderstandings. You'll find added words and phrases not in the original Greek text, potentially skewing the original message. The mix of translation and commentary can be confusing, making it hard to tell what's original text and what's interpretation. While it's not all bad, it's suggested you use the Amplified Bible along with other translations for a more comprehensive understanding.

I am NOT going to get into tattoos... BUT...

I believe that Joyce Meyer is dead wrong... here too!!!

And I warn the strongest to tattoo the body!

This is NOT Biblical and does not honour God! He doesn't want that either:

Leviticus 19:28

King James Version

Ye shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you: I am the Lord.

Leviticus 19:28

New King James Version

You shall not make any cuttings in your flesh for the dead, nor tattoo any marks on you: I am the Lord. (here comes tattoo correctly!)

"God Said It; I Believe It, and That Settles It!"

I link to Wikipedia which has interesting info - AND ALSO WARNINGS - about tattooing:

<https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tattoo#:~:text=A%20tattoo%20is%20a%20form%20of%20body%20modification%20made%20by>

A tattoo is a form of body modification made by inserting tattoo ink, dyes, and/or pigments, either indelible or temporary, into the dermis layer of the skin to form a design. --- The history of tattooing goes back to Neolithic times, practiced across the globe by many cultures, and the symbolism and impact of tattoos varies in different places and cultures.

Preserved tattoos on ancient mummified human remains reveal that tattooing has been practiced throughout the world for thousands of years.<sup>[38]</sup> In 2015, scientific re-assessment of the age of the two oldest known tattooed mummies identified Ötzi as the oldest example then known. This body, with 61 tattoos, was found embedded in glacial ice in the Alps, and was dated to 3250 BCE.<sup>[38][39]</sup>

It is commonly held that the modern popularity of tattooing stems from Captain James Cook's three voyages to the South Pacific in the late 18th century. --- On subsequent voyages other crew members, from officers, such as American John Ledyard, to ordinary seamen, were tattooed.<sup>[61]</sup>

Practice regulation and health risk certification

Tattooing is regulated in many countries because of the associated health risks to client and practitioner, specifically local infections and virus transmission.

Health risks

The pain of tattooing can range from uncomfortable to excruciating depending on the location of the tattooing the body. With the use of modern numbing creams, pain may be eliminated or reduced. Fainting can occur during tattoo procedures, but is not considered very likely.

Because it requires breaking the immunologic barrier formed by the skin, tattooing carries health risks including infection and allergic reactions. Modern tattooists reduce health risks by following universal precautions working with single-use items and sterilizing their equipment after each use. Many jurisdictions require that tattooists have blood-borne pathogen training such as that provided through the Red Cross and OSHA. As of 2009 (in the United States) there have been no reported cases of HIV contracted from tattoos.<sup>[131]</sup>

In amateur tattooing, such as the practice in prisons, there is an elevated risk of infection. Infections that can theoretically be transmitted by the use of unsterilized tattoo equipment or contaminated ink include surface infections of the skin, fungal infections, some forms of hepatitis, herpes simplex virus, HIV, staph, tetanus, and tuberculosis.<sup>[132]</sup>

Certain colours – red or similar colours such as purple, pink, and orange – tend to cause more problems and damage compared to other colours.<sup>[135]</sup> Red ink has even caused skin and flesh damages so severe that the amputation of a leg or an arm has been necessary. If part of a tattoo (especially if red) begins to cause even minor troubles, like becoming itchy or worse, lumpy, then Danish experts strongly suggest to remove the red parts.<sup>[136]</sup>

In 2017, researchers from the European Synchrotron Radiation Facility in France found that some of the chemicals in tattoo ink accumulate in the lymph nodes, obstructing their ability to fight infections.<sup>[137]</sup> However, the authors noted that most tattooed individuals including the donors analyzed do not suffer from chronic inflammation.<sup>[138]</sup>

And, we have NEVER HEARD Jonathan Cahn "prophecy" about this either, have we???

= That Joyce Meyer needs to repent of her "vanity"... plastic surgery, tattoos...

At least I haven't heard of it!

But... I haven't heard all his sermons...

So IF ANYONE has a link where you can hear him go against the Faith Movement and its money-greedy apostles and prophets and the "youthful pursuit of plastic surgery" (because it's not just Joyce Meyer, trust me!) = send it to me!!!!

Dear brothers and sisters in the Lord, our TRUE Joy and Peace do NOT come from external circumstances or materialism... Of course it can "help" sometimes, but we find that which is genuine and preserving Joy and Peace "in faith"...!

Romans 15:13

King James Version

Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.

Surely a Bible preacher SHOULD KNOW ABOUT this and be able to preach...? One could think!

God's exhortation still applies today!

This is what it says in the Old Testament:

Deuteronomy 13:1-4

King James Version

*1 If there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreams, and giveth thee a sign or a wonder,
2 And the sign or the wonder come to pass, whereof he spake unto thee, saying, Let us go after other gods, which thou hast not known, and let us serve them;
3 Thou shalt not hearken unto the words of that prophet, or that dreamer of dreams: for the Lord your God proveth you, to know whether ye love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul.
4 Ye shall walk after the Lord your God, and fear him, and keep his commandments, and obey his voice, and ye shall serve him, and cleave unto him.*

Deuteronomy 13:1-4

New King James Version

(Punishment of Apostates)

*1 "If there arises among you a prophet or a dreamer of dreams, and he gives you a sign or a wonder,
2 and the sign or the wonder comes to pass, of which he spoke to you, saying, 'Let us go after other gods'— which you have not known—'and let us serve them,'
3 you shall not listen to the words of that prophet or that dreamer of dreams, for the Lord your God is testing you to know whether you love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul.
4 You shall walk[a] after the Lord your God and fear Him, and keep His commandments and obey His voice; you shall serve Him and hold fast to Him.*

This is what it says in the New Testament:

Matthew 18:6-7

King James Version

*6 But whoso shall offend one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were drowned in the depth of the sea.
7 Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that man by whom the offence cometh!*

New King James Version

(Jesus Warns of Offenses)

*6 "But whoever causes one of these little ones who believe in Me to sin, it would be better for him if a millstone were hung around his neck, and he were drowned in the depth of the sea.
7 Woe to the world because of [a]offenses! For offenses must come, but woe to that man by whom the offense comes!*

These are serious Words of God!

The so-called "Christian bookstores" that translate, print and sell books from these "dreamers" are just as guilty!!!

So I came to wonder WHO - which publisher – translates, prints and publishes Jonathan Cahn's books in Sweden...

And found that it is Semnos Förlag: <https://www.semnos.com/>

Semnos Publisher

I searched for Jonathan Cahn and the following books came up:

<https://www.semnos.com/info/om-oss/> - Om förlaget

Semnos Förlag AB startades 2001 och är idag ett av Sveriges större kristna bokförlag. Förlaget ger årligen ut omkring 35 boktitlar. "Alltid inspirerande" är mottot för utgivningen och vår inriktning är allkristen. Semnos ger företrädevis ut böcker för uppmuntran och inspiration i den kristna tron. Utgivningen omfattar bland annat böcker i kategorierna: romaner, uppbyggelse, livsberättelser, själavårdande, andakt samt barn och ungdom. Förlaget samarbetar också med några av de ledande kristna förlagen i USA, vilket gör att många av världens mest lästa och populära kristna författares böcker även blir tillgängliga på svenska.

Semnos Förlag AB was started in 2001 and is today one of Sweden's largest Christian book publishers. The publisher publishes around 35 book titles annually. "Always inspiring" is the motto of the publication and our orientation is all-Christian. Semnos typically publishes books for encouragement and inspiration in the Christian faith. The publication includes, among other things, books in the categories: novels, edification, life stories, spiritual care, devotion and children and youth.

The publisher also collaborates with some of the leading Christian publishers in the United States, which means that many of the world's most read and books by popular Christian authors also become available in Swedish.

NO! I do NOT advertise this publisher!!!!

I just want to point out that they write:

"...collaborates with some of the leading Christian publishers in the United States..."

This Publisher was founded by Tommy Dahlman... but they have removed his connection with them...

And this information has also been removed from Wikipedia: https://sv.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tommy\_Dahlman (Swedish)

Not a single word about his connection to Semnos Förlag (Publisher)... hm... talk about "re-writing history"!!!

Well, he certainly has had turbulent years with "scandals" (sex, alcohol, DUI, debts)...BUT deleting the facts seems "shady"!

What he does today I do not know...

On May 9, 2024 I Googled "Tommy Dahlman" and found many old books from him at Bokbörsern... (The Book Exchange)

https://www.bokborsen.se/?\_p=1&f=1&q=Dahlman%20Tommy

There you can see that books written after 2004 are printed by Semnos Förlag (Publisher)!

If you click on the link "Mer om ISBN (= "More about ISBN")..." you'll see the publisher:

There are so many tragic human fates...

I have no doubt that Tommy Dahlman has had a devotion and a zeal to convey salvation in Jesus Christ...

BUT... unfortunately, he has been stuck in the shackles of the Faith Movement and been involved conveying its heresies....

There are many who have fallen "victim" of the doctrines/teachings of deceiving spirits, who have been led astray and ended up on the "wrong path"... for example, those mentioned at the beginning of this newsletter; Mike Bickle and Bob Jones... Likewise, it happened to Todd Bentley @ the so-called "Lakeland Revival"... where he cheated on his wife and remarried with his mistress... 😞

Todd Bentley also looked up to Bob Jones (as does Mike Bickle!) and had him present on stage in Lakeland...

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MmaSbdC4IYk> - Bob Jones in the Lakeland Revival

Very poor quality of the video – but it proves that Bob was there and “prophesied”...

At one occasion Bob Jones proclaimed that the Lakeland Revival was "The Third Wave"...

I mentioned about this in my last newsletter from 2023:

7 Mountains - Asbury "Revival" influences of Roman Catholicism and NAR >>>

*Toronto Airport Vineyard Church – also known as "Toronto Blessing" with Rodney Howard- Browne
...introducing holy laughter... calling himself as "God's bartender" and the "holy ghost bartender"...*

"Brownsville revival" with Steve Hill...

"Lakeland Revival" – with Todd Bentley... "BAM-BAM-BAM"...

All the "elite" (the self-proclaimed apostles) within NAR were there in Lakeland and "sanctioned" the "movement"... and they referred to these "revivals" as part of "3rd wave"...

Third Wave | Theopedia

<https://www.theopedia.com/third-wave#:~:text=The%20Third%20Wave%20is%20a%20term%20apparently%20coined,of%20a%20larger%20movement%20called%20the%20%22Neocharismatic%22%20movement.>

But there is hope – even for these Gentlemen – for ALL – for everyone who repents and turns away from their sin/misstep and choose to walk in the Way of The Lord, with the Bible as a guide and won't compromise!

It is extremely important that you also distance yourself from false teachings that you have been a part of yourself and passed on... otherwise "you'll end up on the wrong side" soon again...

And those who publicly (via sermons - YouTube - books (also publishers!) and articles etc.) conveyed false teachings SHOULD also publicly announce that repentance has taken place! They should also warn about their own books and teachings!

God looks after a sincerely repentant heart and His Holy Spirit wants to help guide on right path... Hallelujah such Grace!

Yes, and it is important that we, readers, dare to distance ourselves from authors and their books that convey heresies...

Let's search our hearts = who do we love the most - Jesus Christ or the author!?!

I have had to do that myself... when I listened to many Faith-preachers both in the USA and in Sweden... BUT in 2008 when, by God's Grace, I gained insight into the heresies of the Faith Movement and its false apostles and prophets, I chose JESUS and the sound doctrine/teaching of the Bible and renounced everything I had read and listened to! There was, unfortunately, a lot... Yes! Joyce Meyer, John Bevere, Beth Moore to mention a few... ;(

Multitudes of books I have read from cover to cover and talk about the amount of time I spent reading and listening... and talk about the amount of money I spent buying these + a lot of videos, cassette tapes and CD's!!!! The picture above is ONE of many boxes and cases of "junk teaching" – heresies/false teachings... that I accumulated over many years... and which I had to renounce!

At the time I thought it was OK to buy – as they sold this at "Christian conferences" and in "Christian bookstores"...

So I'm not exhorting to anything that I haven't had to do myself!

Grace and Mercy – we may bow before the Cross and start over with the Lord!

The Lord wants us to have a clear and good conscience before Him!

1 Peter 3:21-22

King James Version

21 The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God), by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:

22 Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

New King James Version

21 There is also an antitype which now saves us—baptism (not the removal of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God), through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,

22 who has gone into heaven and is at the right hand of God, angels and authorities and powers having been made subject to Him.

And He doesn't want us to worry...

1 Peter 5:7

King James Version

Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.

1 Peter 5:7

New King James Version

casting all your care upon Him, for He cares for you.

We may throw away our sins/"missteps" and all the worries that these have caused... and trust that God works all things together for good and helps to establish our lives anew!

The Lord IS Able!

2 minutes of thought-provoking words by Amir Tsarfati: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=aEz97hJG0Z8>

Amir Tsarfati: God Loves to Declare His Plans

*God loves to declare His plans, sometimes directly and sometimes indirectly. Jesus said that all the things written by the prophets must take place. People can become distracted by strange theories and theologies instead of focusing on the written word. Deuteronomy 29:29 reminds us that some things are not meant for us to know, but those things revealed in the Bible belong to us and our children forever.

AMEN! Therefore, we do not need to listen to false self-proclaimed apostles and prophets!!!!

Nor buy and read their books... their "latest" books... or attend their conferences...

Don't be duped by this "eloquent" and self-proclaimed prophet!

Personally, I have a hard time listening to him... not only because I know he is part of the Faith Movement's NARians and its self-proclaimed Apostles and Prophets... but also because I experience - in my ears - that he is constantly "shouting" when he speaks... guess he is "eager"... but I don't sense PEACEFULNESS or humility in his "eloquent jargon"...

TODAY'S SAPPHIRES

How Chanukah Brought you Christmas

Friday, June 21, 2024

About 130 years before the birth of Messiah, Antiochus Epiphanes, King of the Greek/Syrian Empire, tried to wipe the Jewish faith from the face of the earth. He almost succeeded. If he had succeeded, there would be no Jewish fishermen in Galilee to become apostles, no Jewish shepherds in Bethlehem, no Jewish carpenter in Nazareth, and no Jewish virgin to give birth to Messiah. But by a miracle of God, he and his armies were defeated. The celebration of that miracle is called Chanukah. Jewish people celebrate as they light the lights of the Chanukah Menorah. Christians celebrate the birth of Messiah with the Lights of Christmas. But if it were not for Chanukah, if Messiah wasn't born, we would have nothing to celebrate.

The lights of Chanukah gave birth to the Light of Messiah. If you belong to the Messiah, rejoice in your Jewish roots, your heritage as a child of Abraham, and light a menorah this year. Celebrate the Festival of Lights in the Light of Messiah's glory.

From Message #275 - The Christmas/Chanukah Connection

IF Jonathan Cahn really was the "prophet" he claims to be... he would NEVER say that "Chanukkah brought you Christmas"... Jesus' birth has NOTHING to do with Christmas (Christ-mas – Christ's mass) – this comes from the Roman Catholic Church! SHOULDN'T "A PROPHET CHOSEN BY GOD" KNOW THIS!???! ... AND BE WILLING TO REMAIN IN THE TRUTH – JESUS IS THE TRUTH!

To then say that "The lights of Chanukah gave birth to the Light of the Messiah" is in my eyes "blasphemy" ... this statement leads us directly to the Jewish Talmud teaching!!!

The Talmud consists of the writings of the rabbis – the rabbis who did not believe in Yeshua, Jesus as the Messiah.

"RABBI" JONATHAN CAHN KNOWS THIS VERY WELL – BELIEVE NOTHING ELSE!

<https://simple.wikipedia.org/wiki/Hanukkah#:~:text=Hanukkah%20is%20a%20Jewish%20holiday%20which%20celebrates%20the%20victory%20of%20the%20Maccabees%20over%20the%20Greek%20army.&oldid=123456789>

Hanukkah is a Jewish holiday which celebrates the victory of the Maccabees over the larger Greek army. It also celebrates a miracle that happened during this time, where just a day's supply of oil allowed the menorah (Hanukkah or Hanukkah Menorah) in the rededicated Temple in Jerusalem to remain lit for eight days. Therefore, Jewish people celebrate Hanukkah for eight days. Hanukkah begins on the 25th day of Kislev according to the Hebrew calendar, which on the Gregorian calendar is late November or December. For example, in 2013 it started on November 27. The Hebrew word hanukkah means rededication.<sup>[1]</sup>

According to the Talmud, the Jewish people only found a single jar of undefiled oil, and that oil was only enough to last a single day. The Jewish people took a leap of faith and relit the menorah. To their surprise, the menorah stayed lit for eight days, which was seven more days than they expected. The Jewish people attributed the surprising amount of time that the oil lasted to God (a miracle).

Hanukkah is an eight-day celebration, and each day commemorates each day that the oil lasted. On each day, a branch of the nine-branch Hanukkah menorah is lit with the shamash ("helper" candle), which sits on the middle branch.

So here you got the Jewish Talmud-teaching for free by reading an article @ Jonathan Cahn's official website...

<https://www.hopeoftheworld.org/Sapphires/> - isn't that sad and "troublesome"!?!?

Read about the Talmud-teaching regarding the Menorah Candlestick on page 50-52...

And HERE Jonathan Cahn is on the same TBN program as the controversial pastor John Hagee who has been honourably accused of promoting heresy (by Biblical Evangelical standards) with his book denying that Jesus was the "Messiah":

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=11zCkgji474&t=1s>

Jonathan Cahn & John Hagee: Prophetic Signs of the End times | Praise on TBN

Jonathan Cahn and John Hagee sit down on TBN's Praise to discuss biblical prophecy around the end times, and finding comfort in the hope of eternity.

c:a 4:36 minutes in they advertise Jonathan's book

"THE ORACLE - AVAILABLE WHEREVER BOOKS ARE SOLD"

They advertise this book several times in the broadcast...

c:a 36:19 minutes in they have an ad about John Hagee's book
"EARTH'S LAST EMPIRE – AVAILABLE WHEREVER BOOKS ARE SOLD"

And 39:46 they mention the entire title of the book ...

THE FINAL GAME OF THRONES

In the book "In Defense of Israel" from 2007, John Hagee clearly states that Jesus was not the Messiah.

He claims: "Jesus did not come to earth to be the Messiah" and says:
"Since Jesus refused by word and deed to claim to be the Messiah, how can the Jews be blamed for rejecting what was never offered?"

You can hear this from himself here in his advertisement of the book:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NkcqvjQvsLE> - John Hagee's Lies In Defense Of Israel.

As the woman in the above video points out; there are many Bible passages that prove the opposite, including:

John 4:25-26 King James Version
 25 The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.
 26 *Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he.

I quote her: "Maybe John Hagee has never seen that scripture...!?"

I have NOT heard anything that John Hagee would have renounced this heresy...

And of course it is "interesting" that Jonathan Cahn allows himself to appear in the same program...

His "prophetic sharpness" apparently does not apply to other Faith-preachers...!

TBN appears to be interviewing Jonathan Cahn about ALL of his books:

Jonathan Cahn: Discovering a Prophetic Warning for America | Praise on TBN

April 10, 2024

Jonathan Cahn sits down with Erick Stakelbeck on TBN's Praise to discuss fulfilled prophecies in America today, and uncover warnings from God for our nation's future.

Here they advertise Jonathan's book

"THE HARBINGER II – AVAILABLE WHEREVER BOOKS ARE SOLD"

Its full Title: "THE HARBINGER II: THE RETURN"

IF THE MESSAGES ARE REALLY FROM GOD – WHY SHOULD YOU THEN CHARGE FOR THE BOOKS? WHY NOT ASK FOR DONATIONS TO GIVE THEM OUT FOR FREE – SO THAT AS MANY AS POSSIBLE CAN GET THE "WARNING" ...??? AND... WHY ONLY WARN AMERICA...? WHAT ABOUT ALL OTHER COUNTRIES?

THE WAY I UNDERSTAND IT WHEN I READ THE NEW TESTAMENT; IT'S INDIVIDUALS AND CONGREGATIONS THAT RECEIVES WARNINGS... NOT COUNTRIES...

No, now I can't take one more Cahn-video... if this hasn't convinced you, it won't no matter how many I show, I'm afraid...

I have no doubt that Jonathan Cahn believes in Jesus Christ as the Messiah...

Everything he teaches is not wrong – much is both Biblical and true... BUT... he has never renounced/separated himself from Judaism's Talmud-teachings and Mysticism, or the Faith Movement, so when he mixes this with the teachings of the Bible, it becomes, unfortunately, heresy – so be on your guard IF you listen to his teaching and/or read his books!

This is God's Word - God's exhortation:

(= NOT me who claims this...)

Ephesians 5:8-21

King James Version

8 For ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light:

9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;)

10 Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord

11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.

12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.

13 But all things that are reprov'd are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light.

14 Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light.

15 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,

16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.

18 And be not drunk with wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;

19 Speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;

20 Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;

21 Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.

I quote from the King James Bible as I'm convinced it is the most accurate translation... there are so many Bible versions available on the market and often they deviate from each other depending on which Manuscript they use and WHO interpreted and translated...

In these times, I believe, it is very important that you read a Bible that has used the correct Manuscript and that is not a "paraphrase"... I can warmly recommend the King James Version!

<https://www.kingjamesbibleonline.org/> - King James Bible
The Preserved and Living Word of God

And I can recommend ONE trustworthy on-line bookstore – in USA:

Lighthouse Trails <https://www.lighthouse Trails.com/>

They have writers you can trust:

<https://www.lighthouse Trails.com/5-browse-by-author>

Just one example to show you how wrong it can be with incorrect Bible translation/text:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gwcZYCQz4Is> – Prophetic update May 13, 2024 = Swedish!

Here Elvor, a sister in Christ, shares an important message about Israel and the "replacement theology" and she warns about the "Nubibel" = "NowBible"!

= The "Nubibel" is a Swedish Bible translation influenced by Seventh-Day Adventists... which influences, among other things, the view of Israel...

This is confirmed on this link: <https://sites.google.com/view/nubibeln/startside> - Nubibeln (Swedish text, BUT you can see "Adventist", "sjundedsadventist" and Ellen G White's name) – There is a video at the bottom in English worth watching:

"Is Seventh-day Adventism a Cult, by Dr Phil Johnson"

I agree with what they write in the beginning warning for the "Nubibeln":

Every Bible translation is to some extent an interpretation. It cannot be avoided that a translator's personal beliefs influence a Bible translation. Therefore, it is important that it is clear who the person/persons behind a translation are.

I just found that Bible Gateway provides the NUB translation online 😊

<https://www.biblegateway.com/passage/?search=Efesierbrevet%204%3A11-16&version=NUB>

And guess WHO provides this "bible" (Nubibeln) in Sweden!?

AND SHOULD NOT A "CHRISTIAN" BOOK PUBLISHER WANT TO STICK TO THE RIGHT BIBEL...!?????

<http://www.sjobergsforlag.se/biblar/bibel-2000/> bible 2000

Bible 2000 is another false Swedish "bible" where they have tampered with Scriptures...

It is a State Bible translation = Bibel 2000, or Carl XVI Gustaf's Bible, is a Swedish translation of the Bible made by the State Investigation Bible Commission on behalf of the Swedish Government.

Instead of writing "The Holy Bible" in the beginning – as it does in all Bibles; Bibel 2000 says SOU 1999:100 instead...

Statens Offentliga Utredningar = SOU 1999:100      The State's Public Investigations = SOU 1999:100

This is proof enough for me that it's NOT a trustworthy Bible! Not to mention all the removing of Bible verses 😊

Take Heed – make sure you feed yourself from a Bible with the correct Manuscript and from Biblical faithful interpretation!!

In this video with information about NAR by Elvor & Janne – unfortunately in Swedish:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ztyrw10zT1k> - NAR - Apostlar och Härskarteknik 7/8-23

I want to highlight what is said:

NAR - Apostles and Master Suppression Techniques

Master Suppression Techniques ridicules the opponent in order to exalt himself. Then you freeze the person out quietly effectively from the sect community. Very common in the Faith Movement according to lots of testimonies we've received.

I, too, can testify this first hand! 😊

To round off, I want to resubmit to my questions "does it bother/trouble you" on page 6:

NOW, AFTER READING THIS NEWSLETTER... DOES IT NOT BOTHER YOU – DON'T YOU GET UPSET IN YOUR SPIRIT – ABOUT WHAT HAS BEEN PROVEN HERE... ABOUT THE TEACHINGS OF JONATHAN CAHN – HIS NAR CONNECTION AND THAT HIS TEACHINGS CAN BE CONNECTED TO KABBALAH... AND THAT THIS IS CONVEYED TO CHRISTIANITY... ALL AROUND THE WORLD – EVEN IN SWEDEN...???

WELL, IT DOES BOTHER ME AND THEREFORE THE MOTIVE FOR THIS NEWSLETTER!

I can NOT bury my head in the sand and pretend I haven't seen and heard this – as if I don't know!!!!

(And NOW you cannot either!)

In April this year, I found a note I've written tucked in a book that said:

Jesus never spoke Grace at the expense of Truth, nor Truth without Grace.

It was both Grace and Truth = 100% Grace + 100% Truth!

God Is "either - or" = He Is absolute!!

I do NOT remember where I got this from... BUT I'm quoting it because I think it's good!

We must dare to "contend for the Faith" that the Bible teaches!

And keep ourselves within the framework of the Bible... remain in the faith... where there is Peace and Safety... and joy to the fullest... Let us rejoice in Him – The Joy of the Lord IS our strength! (Nehemiah 8:10)

Let's do the little we can – reach out to those near to us...

Or in NAR-language: reach out to those in our "sphere"... 😊

For those who want to read on - see page 25...

We must continue to pray and not lose hope in Christ!

+ PRAY FOR JONATHAN CAHN + THE FAITH MOVEMENT PREACHERS!

And don't forget to read the attachment/PDF #1 - Jonathan Cahn's Kabbalah & The History about Kabbalah

For The Truth,

Since much information on the Internet can change quickly, let me just mention that the links in this newsletter worked when it was written. (except for the ones I written are broke)

I do not necessarily agree with everything that is written on the pages/articles that I have linked to in this newsletter - it's just the article or the excerpt I've linked to that I want to emphasize.

PLEASE NOTE!

This newsletter is not intended as a personal attack on Jonathan Cahn and self-proclaimed "NAR-apostles and prophets" and "NARians" whom I've mentioned about. God will judge them, not we. But we must admit that much is required of those in leadership within "Apostolic- and Prophetic Movements", who claim to have "special gifts" and "anointing"... who are prophesying and decreeing wildly!!!! As well as of those who are Bible believers – the importance to abide in the Biblical doctrines and love the Truth therein...

So, I started writing this BELOW in March 2018...

Much is copied from an email communication I had in 2013...

I'm not going to 'edit' below - it will be "as is"... just translating into English where I wrote in Swedish...

See it as "extra reading" for those who want... it will be a bit repetitive...and several links doesn't work...

ABOVE text, along with the attachment/PDF, is enough to realize that Jonathan Cahn is providing heresies!

Unfortunately!

The Harbinger - Fact or Fiction - <https://www.thebereancall.org/harbinger-fact-or-fiction>

Johathan Cahn is CLEARLY a Faith Movement/NAR-connected man!

His book "The Harbinger" is fully promoted by Charisma Magazine - which is clearly a Faith Movement and especially NAR-supplier/broker/advertiser!

I have read the book:

<http://www.spiritual-research-network.com/catalog/item/8321312/9476836.htm> - The Harbinger: Fact or Fiction? by David James which clearly shows that Jonathan Cahn is "way off" in his book The Harbinger...

I can highly recommend this book by David James!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=S9xMxkNROto>

MESSAGE TO AMERICA: FULL VERSION: JONATHAN CAHN ADDRESSES THE PRESIDENTIAL INAUGURAL PRAYER BREAKFAST

I have no doubt that what he says at this Prayer Breakfast can sound "extremely good", but just want to point out that there are other things that can be questioned in his teaching...

Among other things:

"Does Isaiah 9:10 Really Contain An Ancient Mystery That Holds The Secret Of America's Future?", Which he claims it does!

The Berean Call also draws attention to this:

Letter to The Beran Call re. Jonathan Cahn from Robert Scarpati

Here is "proof enough" that he approves of the Faith Movement = Charisma Magazine which is their & NAR's biggest "mediator" has Jonathan Cahn-articles very often...

He is a "Messianic-Faith-Movement-Jew"... a false self-proclaimed "prophet" who conveys heresies... unfortunately!

"What we were warned never to do, we now have done."

2015: THE CHRISTIAN HOLOCAUST: JONATHAN CAHN'S SPEECH TO THE U.N.-FULL VERSION

Check out this video on YouTube: <http://youtu.be/IUh710HjwpU>

Of course, Jonathan Cahn is good in many things!!!

NO false prophet is 100% wrong... we know that!

But notice one thing:

He neither says anything about nor prays for the Jews to be saved...

He says nothing about the Orthodox/Catholics, who are being persecuted, to be saved...

This is a Messianic Jew who is deeply involved in the Faith Movement and its Mysticism...

You don't end up with Sid Roth for no reason!

I can't find the particular movie I listened to that was "extra mystic"...

But here you see that he is a constant guest of the New Ager Sid Roth ---- That alone is warning enough!!!!!!!

MUCH of what is being said sounds really good and Biblically...

BUT – this is a show that condones and promotes Word of Faith teachings and unbiblical doctrines – Sid Roth is a New Ager!

And Jonathan Cahn obviously condones this as well – or... he would NEVER be part of such a show!!!!!!

And Charisma Magazine is printing and selling his books – this itself "speaks volume" as they are the hugest promoters of the Faith Movement's NARians...

Charisma Magazine relay all new "prophecies" and teachings from these self-proclaimed NAR apostles & prophets... And Cahn doesn't seem to have a problem with this either!

Just check this advertisement from the link:

.... "how you work with angels"

SHOULD WE "WORK WITH ANGELS" – WHERE CAN WE FIND THAT IN THE BIBLE???

Here are some comments from what they say:

So... a DVD is being uplifted... more than "needing Jesus Christ" ... all for the "experience"...

Sid: ... I have THE man... Jonathan Cahn... what's going to happen and when it's going to happen...

Cahn: ... gives exact time...

KJ = As if he (Cahn) is the "prophet of today" with all the answers...

= That's how he wants to be portrayed!

BUT Jesus said that not even He KNEW "when" – only the Father!!!

Approx 41:50 "the safest place to be is in the will of God"

KJ = AMEN – best he said until now!

Approx 45 min...

SID: ... the presence of God – there is nothing to compare with that...

KJ = what about "the peace of God, the Joy of The Lord"???

Just the knowledge of being forgiven, cleansed and saved – isn't that more important than to "experience the presence of God" ...?

Ha... I just found out that Sid Roth is a Jew... didn't know that before... (KJ = in an e-mail från 2013...)
So... they are both Jews – Sid & Jonathan Cahn... very interesting!

Jewish people to be saved... Amen!

Approx 53 min...

SID: Just before judgment comes to any country, historically, Biblically, in the OT God would raise up a Jewish prophet. And just before The Messiah returns to Israel: God is raising up Jewish prophets. You must heed what God has revealed to them. I believe rabbi Jonathan Chan has been raised up by God for this moment in history.

KJ = We must heed what God has revealed to them???

Where does it say so in the Bible?

It warns of being deceived... and we must heed what God has revealed in the Bible – nothing else!

And this “rabbi” (=Cahn) being “raised up by God”, who is linked together with Faith Movement promoters???

Heed what he says? I really don't think so!!!

Charisma publishes his books and advertises & sells them via their Charisma Magazine...

They are the hugest promoters of Faith Movement doctrines... and its self-proclaimed NAR apostles and prophets... <https://mycharismashop.com/>

(I know I'm repeating myself!)

And... line himself up with Sid Roth – to be in his “It's Supernaturally Show”...???

Sid, a man who is known for unbiblical “experiences”...

NO, God would give him discernment NOT to partake with “darkness”...

However, Cahn speaks of repentance and salvation – even for the Jews... so “he sounds good”...

Approx 55 min...

OK this is proof of WHAT Sid Roth approves, condones and promotes:

It's all about “buy the book – make them rich” – money money money...

(they are also advertising and selling Jonathan Cahn's books & DVD = making lots of $$$$$$)

The book “One minute with God”... by Keith Ellis...

MIRACLES BECAUSE OF THE BOOK...

“People are sleeping with my book... the presence of God is so strong on this book...

... they touch it... they feel God on it...

As if this book, written by a man, had “God on it” – while many people reading the Bible don't necessary feel “God on it” when they touch it... = this is garbage!

Approx 1:01.00

SID “pray in tongues...2 hours a day...”

2 hours = this is WORKS – not rest in Christ alone... you NOW have to do something – to become something more – for the “next level”... = Faith Movement teaching!

Now this was “good”:

Cahn: “I am ‘pan-tribulationist’ – it will all pan out in the end”... ;-D) Well, it was funny!

End of quotes from “Sid Roth It's Supernatural! med Jonathan Cahn”

I am NOT going to say that “nothing is going to happen”...

Because... IF the “elite” – those who are behind the scene... working for a NOW (New World Order)... wants something to happen...

... they can make anything to happen with the economy WHEN they like it to happen...

But I am still awaiting some prophecies to yet take place that we can read in the Book of Revelation...

So I think it may not happen much this September... (= year 2017 or 2018... and NOTHING happened – when we can look back!)

IF the people “pushing” the Shemitah warning – Jonathan Cahn and this Jeff Berwick... among others who has read Cahn’s books...

IF... they are influenced by Talmud and Kabbalah... then... they are NOT trustworthy...

Then... who knows if they are running the errands of the “elite” of NWO... and causing people to react – taking out their money from banks etc.

Then we for sure will have chaos in the world economy which can cause the economy to collapse...

Doesn’t take a brain to figure that out!

But I can be totally wrong!

It may be as they predict...

And if it does... it doesn’t matter... as long as we are prepared and ready – having PEACE with God through His Son Jesus Christ!!!

Dear Lord; in Your Hands we commit our future – our economy and our belongings – it’s all yours... we’re just stewards of it in anyway...

Keep us from fear and from following wrong voice... guide us by Your Still Small Voice and keep us safe from all alarm – we pray!

Your will be done!

I’m so thankful you sent this to me – to be more aware of it all – as I have also received other links/news about this being spread to Sweden...

People are reading Cahn’s books in Sweden... and being fed with false doctrines mixed in with Truth...

I have a huge burden for both USA & Sweden – of brothers and sisters being misled...

So, I have listened to “The Fallen Angel”...

I have to say that I am so tired of this kind of "Faith-Movement sermon" that it “sticks in my throat”! They talk about themselves and their "experiences", "visions" & "prophecies" and insert Bible verses to back this up and their teachings...

BUT I finished listening to everything! ;-D)

MUCH of what he says "sounds good" and a lot of it is probably Biblical...

For example; the thing about panic comes from "the idol Pan"... so don't panic! = it sounded "fun"... I like humour!

And the fact that he defends Israel, unfortunately, causes many to immediately believe that he therefore is "OK".

It's clear that he is NOT reading by heart - so it could very well be someone who wrote the script for him!

This is probably something he conveys over and over again in church after church...

He tells a lot about events where "all hell broke loose"... as if satan knows everything...

BUT we know that in the Bible it says that only God is omniscient!!

He also says that satan is attacking "the Messianic Movement"...

Hm... satan attacks everything and everyone – to steal, and to kill, and to destroy!

Then he mentions that he was on the Glenn Beck Show...

Says further "and gave the Aaronic blessing over the Glenn Beck Show... the spirit took over..."

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The\_Lord\_bless\_you\_and\_keep\_you = Aaronic blessing

Would God's Holy Spirit take over and cause Jonathan Cahn to give the Aaronic blessing over a Mormon's TV-show in public???

I can NOT believe it!

Wouldn't it be the other way around? That God's Holy Spirit came upon him and caused him to preach, so that Glenn Beck and ALL TV-viewers got a chance to hear the Gospel of Christ to be able to repent and be saved!?! I would like to say so!

= a sign of Cahn's ecumenical endorsement, perhaps!?

The entire "message" shines with a lack of warning of heresies... which run rampant within Christendom...

Wouldn't God's Holy Spirit be more concerned with wanting to warn against these heresies, than to publicly wanting to bless one who preaches heresies = Glenn Beck?

Yes, the Holy Spirit of the Bible would!

He also wants Glenn Beck to be saved and freed from Mormon's heresies! Here Jonathan Cahn "missed" the chance... perhaps because of the "Ecumenism"...??

As I wrote about Jonathan Cahn in one of the e-mails I sent:

This is a Messianic Jew who is deeply involved in the Faith Movement and its Mysticism...

Why Jonathan Cahn and His Revelations Must be Ignored

Why Jonathan Cahn, His Mysteries, Keys and Revelations Must be Ignored

Rabbi Jonathan Cahn has been bothering me with his The Harbinger and now The Mystery of the Shemitah 'revelations'. Who is he exactly? Is he a born again Christian or is far worse than just your plain run of the mill false teacher?

Unfortunately, I have to say that Cahn's alleged 9/11 connection to Isaiah 9:10 is the problem... = not fact!

This is addressed in the book The Harbinger: Fact or Fiction? by David James

I have scanned a number of pages...see below...

It is pretty much the entire book that is being called into question!

You can "skim through them" (= the pages I scanned) and read my underlines to get an "idea/understanding"...

(sorry for the sloppy underlining and comments – lying by the pool reading last fall ;-D)

Yes, I take it so seriously...

But to make things easier, I've written down some "important points" below...

Copies of the pages can be found further down – so that you can read it yourself in "context"...

(= See page 35 and down!)

On page 44-47 Cahn's NAR involvement is pointed out.

Cahn's problematic ministry decisions since the release of The Harbinger have not been limited to just these interviews and promotions. In April, Cahn was one of the keynote speakers at Chuck Pierce's Celebrate Passover conference. This meant sharing platform and pulpit with men and women who are leaders in the New Apostolic Reformation (NAR) movement. The NAR is dedicated to promoting doctrines worldwide that are also thoroughly unbiblical and dangerous. That Cahn would minister alongside "apostles and prophets" does suggest that this is not a significant problem for him.

Chuck Pierce is the "apostle" who took over the "NAR leadership" from C. Peter Wagner:

<https://www.charismanews.com/news/us/apostolic-pioneer-c-peter-wagner-goes-on-to-glory/>

In 2010 on his 80th birthday, Wagner turned Global Harvest Ministries over to Chuck Pierce who formed Global Spheres, Inc., a "new wineskin for apostolic alignment."

*Just as proponents of Anglo-Israelism believe that they have found a new supporting resource in The Harbinger, so too proponents of "kingdom now" theology, reconstructionism, and dominionism could have another weapon in their arsenal.*

*Yet Cahn's choices seem to be extremely out of balance given the ultimate purpose of The Harbinger. In the context of a book that is supposed to be calling a nation to repentance to avoid God's judgment, such omissions are not only disconcerting and inexplicable—they are unbiblical.*

The New Testament makes it clear that every future judgment of God involves Jesus Christ, yet Cahn never makes that association.

Every future judgment of God is in the context of Christ's second coming, yet Cahn never mentions His return.

And every future judgment of God is preparatory to the establishment of Christ's kingdom, yet Cahn never tells the reader where this is all heading.

Page 80-81 = Good questions about 9/11...

(Scroll down and read on page 40!)

In addition to those wars, terrorist attacks were carried out in the United States prior to 9/11:

If God's hedge of protection was removed, allowing the terrorist attacks in 2001, when was it put back into place?

Was this hedge of protection also absent when the other military and terrorist attacks took place on American soil?

At which points was the hedge of protection in place – and when was it not?

INTRESSTING ABOUT THE SYCAMORE – FIG-MULLBERRY:

In contrast, the American sycamore, as stated before, is not botanically related in any way to the fig-mulberry.

There is no semantic connection.

Of course, both trees carry the same name – but this is true only for English-speakers – not for Hebrew-speakers.

Again, there is none but the most superficial connection with the trees in Isaiah 9:10.

The sycamore cannot reasonably be considered to be a harbinger.

The Biblical evidence overwhelmingly shows that the erez tree is exclusively the cedar of Lebanon.

There is no amazing biblical coincidence between the cedar of Isaiah 9:10 and the Norway spruce at Ground Zero (as the author would have the reader believe). There is no match. There is no parallel. And there is no harbinger.

As noted earlier: If a proposed theological or spiritual idea is not found in the Bible, or if it cannot at least be supported by the text in some way, then someone made it up.

This is exactly the nature of the Isaiah 9:10 Effect – someone made it up.

*Readers are not necessarily being misinformed, but they are being uninformed.

...

But why is September 11 considered the significant date and not September 15, which is the day it filed for bankruptcy? Or why not September 9, when the drop started?

This seems very arbitrary and gives the impression of "cherry-picking" evidence in order to strengthen the author's arguments while diminishing the significance of related evidence that does not support and, in many ways, even undercuts his arguments.

*And finally, the fact is that the drop was not exactly 7.0 percent. Rather, it was 6.98 percent.

...

If God were sending a sign, how difficult would it have been for Him to make it exactly a 7.0 percent drop? Or better still, 7.7 percent, or even 7.77 percent?

*Of all the godly men and women across America who love and serve the Lord, of the thousands and thousands of outstanding Bible teachers and preachers, virtually no one was sounding the alarm because they did not recognize it as a warning of an impending Shemitah judgment. The reason they did not recognize it is because the evidence is not there and the idea of a Shemitah being imposed on America is unbiblical.

*Between the last sentence in the quote below and what can be seen from the messages above, the real mystery of The Harbinger may be that its foundation is actually Jewish mysticism:

...

The introduction of Jewish mystical writings into the storyline of The Harbinger is very problematic, and one has to wonder why Cahn would have done this.*

Mysticism and mystical experiences have been a part of Judaism since the earliest days....

So, in this message Cahn presents concepts that are reflected in The Harbinger.

The first is that Isaiah 9:10 contains a mystery that no one has seen before – Cahn has discovered it for the very first time – just as he discovered this inspired message in the ancient rabbinic writings.

...

How can a pastor instruct his congregation to "listen to the rabbis" who produced the Zohar and tell then these rabbis were inspired by God?

*The Zohar is not simply an innocuous source of information-it is an extrabiblical guide to "higher spirituality". It is mystical. It is occultic.

He presents the Zohar as something that can be studied and its depths plumbed for hidden mysteries like he has just revealed for the first time.*

...

The following excerpts from that message confirm his belief in the significance and authority of the extra-biblical writings of the rabbis as found in the book of Yoma in the Babylonian Talmud:

*But now could there be any other witness, historical witness, even beyond the gospel accounts - that confirm something cataclysmic happened. The answer is amazingly, "Yes!" And just as amazingly it comes from people who oppose the faith - so it's even more powerful a witness. The Talmud consists of the writings of the rabbis - the rabbis who did not believe in Yeshua, Jesus as Messiah.... The earliest writings or the earliest notes are based on the writings, accounts from the time of Messiah. ... And one of those books is called the book of Yoma, in the Talmud. Orthodox Jews read this book.

Yoma 39a. The rabbis record a phenomenon [sic] - strange events that take place in the temple of Jerusalem. Signs. Events of such significance they deemed it worthy of recording it in the closest thing they had after the Scriptures.<sup>14</sup>

Cahn goes on to explain that the rabbis taught that a miracle took place such that the center lamp of the menorah in the temple never went out even when the oil in the other six lamps was used up. Then, in 30 A.D. the miracle ceased, coinciding with the death of the Messiah.

So in the temple of Jerusalem they kept the menorah, the seven-branched candlestick.
... a symbol of the light of God.
... by tradition the central lamp was the westernmost lamp that lit up all the other ones....
It kept burning even when the other ones would go out....The rabbis noted this was a sign.... They said it was a sign of the glory of God....but the rabbis record something happened.... that had to do with Israel's light - the menorah, the flame....The rabbis record all of a sudden the western light, this key light, stopped shining.... and they view it as a cosmic change.<sup>15</sup>

Page 208-209

How could a post-resurrection prophet of God fail to mention the resurrection – apart from which there is no gospel at all?

...

Cahn certainly does not deny the resurrection, yet inexplicably he has left it out of his book.

...

The Harbinger has mesmerized disproportionately large number within our ranks. Has Cahn, wittingly or unwittingly, created an illusion so elaborate and stunning – an illusion so effective – that many have actually become deluded by what they think they see?

What The Harbinger presents as facts and truth is not reality. There needs to be a "reveal". The curtain needs to be pulled back.

The book needs to be examined from another angle-the biblical angle. Its claims need to be tested, especially the foundational claim that someone has discovered an ancient mystery in Isaiah 9:10, a mystery so well hidden that it has eluded everyone – until now. We all share this responsibility.

CHAPTER 2

DEPARTURE FROM A BIBLICAL HERMENEUTIC

A HERMENEUTIC is a set of principles used in interpreting the Bible. At the heart of a biblical hermeneutic is the commitment to understanding a passage in its literary and historical context. It is in this regard that Cahn's thesis first runs into trouble.

LITERAL, GRAMMATICAL, HISTORICAL INTERPRETATION

The literal, grammatical, historical approach to interpreting Scripture is rooted in the idea that the meaning of any given passage resides exclusively in the inspired text itself, which is the very Word of God. The question is not, "What does this mean to me?" Rather it is, "What did this mean to the original author, and what does it mean to God?" It is therefore the interpreter's task to discover that meaning by analyzing the grammar, syntax, and vocabulary of the passage, as well as the overall literary context in which it exists.

The "historical" aspect of a biblical hermeneutic includes the identity of the author and recipients, the time of the writing and of the events, as well as the religious, economic, political, and cultural setting. The historical context does not affect the meaning directly but does provide helpful insights into how it may have been understood by the original readers and how it might be applied today, among other things.

CONTEXTUAL PROBLEMS

The application of a biblical hermeneutic to Isaiah 9:10 reveals nothing that would indicate that either Isaiah or the Lord intended for the prophecy to be understood as having to do with anything other than the Northern Kingdom of Israel in the eighth century B.C. In a moderated discussion on Prophecy Today with this author,<sup>1</sup> Cahn affirmed his belief that Isaiah 9:10 was specifically to ancient Israel. He has also stated that the prophecy is not to, for, or about America. This would be consistent with the view of conservative scholars, who generally agree that America is not referenced or in view in any biblical passage. However, the book leaves the reader with the very distinct impression that Isaiah's prophecy and ancient Israel are indeed connected to modern-day America in some way.

One serious departure from using a biblical hermeneutic is the failure to mention the preceding verses in the chapter. These verses form a critical part of the immediate context of Isaiah 9:10 and represent one of the most important messianic kingdom passages in the entire Old Testament. This is a significant omission when dealing with the subject of Israel's judgment because it includes the unconditional promise that even in the face of the coming destruction, Israel's future is still sure. Isaiah 9:1-7 guarantees that the kingdom will still be established and that Messiah will rule from the throne of David forever. It is impossible to understand and apply Isaiah 9:10 correctly unless these verses are brought into the discussion.

Another significant problem is Cahn's view that Isaiah 9:10-11 reflects a pattern of God's judgment. In interviews he frequently refers to this pattern as a "template for God's judgment." Based on this theory, he contends that the nine theoretical harbingers coincide precisely with recent historical events, beginning with the terrorist attacks of September 11, 2001.

There is nothing, however, in the immediate context—nor in the context of the entire Bible—that would support this theory. If it is a pattern of God's judgment, then why is it not identified as such, either here or anywhere else in Scripture? If it is a predictable and identifiable pattern, as the author suggests, why is there neither a precedent nor repetition of the pattern in the Bible? Why is this pattern never the subject of any other prophecy? There is simply no biblical warrant for this being identified as a pattern or a template.

THE HARBINGER - FACT OR FICTION?

by almost everyone who does not share their heretical views. Even David Wilkerson had consistently spoken out against these false teachers, some of whom represent the most extreme Charismatic excesses. Among these are Sid Roth, Jim Bakker, Pat Robertson, and Perry Stone (on TBN)—false prophets and false teachers whom Cahn has not avoided.

Some might argue that this is a decision only about philosophy of ministry, leaving room for disagreement as a practical matter. However, the following passages should sound the alarm for anyone who might be tempted to dismiss these associations as simply pragmatic ministry decisions that say nothing about Cahn's overall views and the theology underlying The Harbinger.

2 John 9—

Whoever transgresses and does not abide in the doctrine of Christ does not have God. He who abides in the doctrine of Christ has both the Father and the Son. If anyone comes to you and does not bring this doctrine, do not receive him into your house nor greet him . . .

Romans 16:17-18—

Now I urge you, brethren, note those who cause divisions and offenses, contrary to the doctrine which you learned, and avoid them. For those who are such do not serve our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly, and by smooth words and flattering speech deceive the hearts of the simple.

1 Timothy 6:20-21—

O Timothy! Guard what was committed to your trust, avoiding the profane and idle babblings and contradictions of what is falsely called knowledge—by professing it some have strayed concerning the faith. Grace be with you.

Cahn's problematic ministry decisions since the release of The

THE DAVID WILKERSON CONNECTION

Harbinger have not been limited to just these interviews and promotions. In April, Cahn was one of the keynote speakers at Chuck Pierce's Celebrate Passover conference. This meant sharing the platform and pulpit with men and women who are leaders in the New Apostolic Reformation (NAR) movement. The NAR is dedicated to promoting doctrines worldwide that are also thoroughly unbiblical and dangerous. That Cahn would minister alongside these "apostles and prophets" does suggest that this is not a significant problem for him. The brief biographies of just a few of the other conference speakers needs no comment.<sup>10</sup>

Chuck Pierce . . . also serves as President of Global Spheres, Inc., an apostolic ministry for apostolic, prophetic and intercessory leaders. He is known for his accurate prophetic gifting, which helps direct nations, cities, churches and individuals in understanding the times and seasons we live in.

C. Peter Wagner is the Ambassadorial Apostle of Global Spheres, Inc. (GSI), led by Chuck Pierce. GSI is an apostolic network providing activation and alignment for Kingdom-minded leaders of the Body of Christ. He travels extensively throughout the United States and other nations helping to equip Believers to minister in the areas of apostolic ministries, wealth, dominion, and reformation of society.

Barbara J. Yoder is the founding apostle and senior pastor of Shekinah Christian Church, a racially and culturally diverse church in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Pastor Barbara is known for her cutting-edge prophetic ministry and apostolic breakthrough anointing.

Kyle Searcy is a recognized and highly respected, apostle, prayer warrior, teacher, and author. Apostle Kyle . . . serves as Apostle and co-founder . . . Fresh Anointing House of Worship, located in historic Montgomery, Alabama.

Cahn believes that any concern someone might have with associations like this is nothing more than an illegitimate "guilt-by-association" charge. This might be true if there were just an isolated incident here and there, but that is not the case. Most of the highest-profile promotion of The Harbinger has come from Cahn's intimate association with these organizations. This is further confirmed by the fact that his publisher is Charisma House. In an open public letter to T. A. McMahon, Cahn not only dismissed this concern but rather ridiculed it and went so far as to suggest that just expressing such concern is a "sin":

But in the article you do raise one "big red flag" and a "discernment alert" concerning . . . of all things, the book's publisher. You've devoted an entire section to establishing this connection as if it somehow meant something. Here is the logic: Charisma puts out some books that you consider to be erroneous or false. The Harbinger is put out by Charisma. Therefore it must be suggested that The Harbinger might on these grounds be erroneous or false. . . . It exemplifies one of the key errors such ministries often fall into, namely assigning "guilt by association." In other words, "Since the publisher puts out books we disagree with, this, in itself, gives us the go ahead to publicly raising doubt and suspicions concerning this book." . . . The same "guilt by association" charge is often leveled against other ministers. . . . By such indiscriminate sword-wielding, many good ministers and ministries of God and their reputations can and have been attacked and wounded and major damage inflicted within the kingdom. . . . I believe this is a major sin before God concerning His kingdom before Whom we must stand accountable.<sup>11</sup>

Yes, there is accountability for all. This means that there is also accountability for being in a contractual business relationship with a company that has been built almost exclusively upon publishing, distributing, and actively promoting some of the most extreme of the extreme false teachers in the world. Charisma House has published and Charisma magazine has regularly featured such people as Benny Hinn, John Arnott, Mike Bickle, T. D. Jakes, Perry Stone, Reinhard Bonnke, Joyce Meyer, Jim Bakker, Fred Price, Rodney Howard-Browne, Oral Roberts, Joseph Prince, and countless others.

In his open letter to T. A. McMahon, Cahn tells the the story of how Steve Strang, founder of Charisma magazine, personally contacted him because Strang had heard of a prophecy given over him in the Charlotte airport (also noted in the previous chapter).<sup>12</sup> Cahn and Strang appeared together on The Jim Bakker Show on April 30, 2012, to discuss Cahn's book. It is simply impossible for the author of The Harbinger to distance himself from the publisher of his book.<sup>13</sup> Rather than avoiding one of the most influential promoters of false prophets and teachers, Cahn has drawn close to him.

Furthermore, it must be noted as a confirmation that these relationships are not just incidental and inconsequential. In this April 30 appearance, Cahn noted that The Harbinger had been launched on The Jim Bakker Show, and as a returning guest he said that the show felt like "home" to him.<sup>14</sup> He went on to say that the launching of the book took place on the show on January 2, 2012.

These all point to the fact that Jonathan Cahn has personal and close ministry relationships with these false teachers who are promoting his book. Why he would try to distance himself from these men when speaking and writing to those concerned about the book is puzzling and actually seems rather disingenuous.

THE HARBINGER - FACT OR FICTION?

restoration are ignored in favor of the single example of Nineveh, which speaks only of postponed judgment—not the possibility of restoration after judgment.

Would that have taken the alarmist edge off the book? Is Israel's God-given claim to the Promised Land too much of a political "hot potato" in today's era of political correctness? Why would a messianic rabbi fail to make at least some reference to Israel's coming restoration? The most important question, however, is: How does one justify omitting one of the most important themes related to Israel's judgment in the entire Word of God?

This problem is further compounded by Cahn's failure to mention Isaiah 9:1-7. It is impossible to correctly understand Isaiah 9:8-11 apart from the preceding verses—particularly verses 6 and 7 about the coming of the Messiah who will rule over the nations—from Israel.

Isaiah 9:6-7—

For unto us a Child is born, Unto us a Son is given; And the government will be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of His government and peace There will be no end, Upon the throne of David and over His kingdom, to order it and establish it with judgment and justice From that time forward, even forever. The zeal of the LORD of hosts will perform this.

Granted, it is beyond the scope of The Harbinger to include a fully developed eschatology or end-times scenario. However, the only thing that one can learn from the book is that ancient Israel did not repent and was destroyed. This is where Cahn leaves it.

[THE PROPHET] "So what happens if a warning is given, if the alarms go off, and nobody listens?"

[KAPLAN] "Then it happens."

[THE PROPHET] "So then it happens."

[KAPLAN] "But does it have to happen?" I asked.

AMERICA: A NEW ISRAEL?

[THE PROPHET] "If the warning is rejected, then, yes, it has to happen."

[KAPLAN] "But people can change, and a nation can alter its course."

[THE PROPHET] "Yes. That's the hope. That's the purpose of a warning. A changed course means a changed end. But an unchanged course means an unchanged end. Then it has to happen."

[KAPLAN] "As it did to ancient Israel?"

Once again, this gives the distinct impression that Israel met its final end, which is precisely Cahn's warning to America: If America does not turn to God soon, it will mean the end of the nation. If Cahn does believe that Israel still has a future, it is unfortunate that he invoked America's founders with their belief in a new Israel, while speaking only of ancient Israel's destruction and nothing of her future restoration.

America's early founders believed that as a group—as a new nation—they represented Christ's kingdom. No longer under the established church in Europe, they were now free as the true church to establish God's kingdom upon the earth—beginning with America as the "New Israel." In their view, this was their God-given right and responsibility. As a result, there is little practical difference between their view of America as God's covenant people and replacement theology, which sees the church as God's covenant people—with no place left for national Israel.

This highlights the problem of lifting a passage from its context. Although Cahn has said that he rejects and in fact teaches directly against replacement theology, The Harbinger nonetheless has strong overtones of that very doctrine. And because it involves America as a nation, this could well play into the hands of those who wrongly believe it is the church's responsibility to establish God's kingdom on the earth in preparation for Christ's return. Just as proponents of Anglo-Israelism believe that they have found a new supporting resource in The Harbinger, so too proponents of "kingdom now" theology, reconstructionism, and dominionism could have another weapon in their arsenal.

CHAPTER 9

MISSING CRITICAL ELEMENTS

CHRIST, THE CHURCH, CHRISTIANS: WHERE ARE THEY?

FROM THE COMING of the Holy Spirit on the day of Pentecost (Acts 2) to the present day, building the church of Jesus Christ has been the central focus of what God is doing in the world. Made up of born-again believers in Christ (Christians), the church has been entrusted with the gospel and commissioned to proclaim the good news of forgiven sin and eternal life—the message of salvation through faith in Christ. God works in and through the church to call unbelieving sinners to faith in Christ. The Father draws the lost to the Son through the Holy Spirit.

Cahn's omission of present or future Israel from the book is surprising, but his failure to mention the church is startling. The word "church" is never used except in reference to a building.

But there is more.

Cahn does not include the word "Christian" in the book either.

And yet more.

The author does not use the word "Christ." ("Messiah" is used—but only twice).<sup>1</sup>

Nor does he mention Christ's second coming or the kingdom that Christ will establish.

MISSING CRITICAL ELEMENTS

This is not to say that Jesus is not referenced or mentioned anywhere in the book. Cahn does devote chapter 21, "Eternity," to extensively discussing salvation and does refer to Jesus—which is very positive in principle (and will be discussed later). However, except for chapter 21, Jesus is only referred to one other time in one paragraph on one page (p. 118). And even in chapter 21, the name "Jesus" is used a total of two times. He is referred to more times than that in the chapter but not by name.

Of course any author would have to make these literary decisions and decide on the right balance. Yet Cahn's choices seem to be extremely out of balance given the ultimate purpose of The Harbinger.

In the context of a book that is supposed to be calling a nation to repentance to avoid God's judgment, such omissions are not only disconcerting and inexplicable—they are unbiblical. The New Testament makes it clear that every future judgment of God involves Jesus Christ, yet Cahn never makes that association. Every future judgment of God is in the context of Christ's second coming, yet Cahn never mentions His return. And every future judgment of God is preparatory to the establishment of Christ's kingdom, yet Cahn never tells the reader where this is all heading.

One almost senses that Cahn has explicitly avoided saying too much about Christ and Christians and Christianity. Trying to avoid giving the impression that this is only about religion is a good thing. But leaving out so much crucial biblical truth concerning the nature of the coming judgment is just wrong.

ACTUAL PROPHESED EVENTS: WHERE ARE THEY?

The omission of this and other important issues directly associated with God's coming judgments is troubling. An abundance of biblical material could have been used to warn in explicit detail of what is really coming.

Just a few examples include the Rapture of the church in 1 Thessalonians chapter 4, the rise of Antichrist in 2 Thessalonians chapter 2, the seven years of tribulation judgments culminating with the return of Christ in Revelation chapters 4 through 19.

Those prophecies, being directly connected with the coming judgment, are powerful yet none of these events are mentioned in The Harbinger.

THE HARBINGER – FACT OR FICTION?

discovered an ancient mystery—a pattern of judgment represented by these signs—which is appearing once again in the United States of America. This is what the author means when he writes, “what is contained within the story is real.”

THE FIRST HARBINGER: THE BREACH

FACT CONCERNING ISRAEL: God removed His hedge of protection from Israel, which allowed the Assyrians to attack the nation.

CLAIM CONCERNING AMERICA: God removed His hedge of protection from the United States, which allowed the terrorists to attack on 9/11.

Although God protects whomever, whenever, and however He chooses, His “hedge of protection” specifically prevents external harm from befalling the object of His care. Such protection is mentioned only twice in the Old Testament—once in Satan’s accusation against God concerning Job (Job 1:10) and once concerning the nation of Israel (Isaiah 5:5). In the New Testament, it appears in only one parable, which is also about Israel (Matthew 21:33; Mark 12:1). There is no indication anywhere in Scripture that any other nation ever has or ever will be protected in this particular way.

If the Scriptures never connect a hedge of protection with any nation except Israel, which was completely unique, how can it be claimed with any certainty that 9/11 marked the removal of such protection from America? Such a conclusion is purely speculative.

Furthermore, even if God had provided such a hedge of protection around America, is it not possible to also argue that it is still in place? There has not been another successful terrorist attack on American soil since September 11, 2001—even though U.S. intelligence has frequently indicated that the motivation, intent, and plotting to launch more attacks has continued unabated.

A recent Reuters article reported that “law enforcement and homeland security personnel face an average of fifty-five daily encounters with ‘known or suspected terrorists.’”<sup>2</sup> That is over 20,000 per year. So on what basis does someone suggest that God has removed His hedge of protection—if such a thing even exists for any nation but Israel? Or would Cahn now need to say that God has put the hedge back into place? Cahn’s theory aligns with neither the biblical evidence nor with the contemporary evidence of current events.

What about all those countries in Europe that have not experienced any attacks on their soil for more than sixty years? What about Canada? Does this mean that a similar hedge of protection remains in place around those nations? It is fairly clear that Cahn has developed a specious argument.

If America enjoyed God’s hedge of protection until 9/11, then what about Pearl Harbor? A common objection to this question is that Hawaii was not on American soil. However, that is an uninformed view. Hawaii was an American territory, and therefore the attack was against America and on American soil.

The year following that attack, the Japanese captured and occupied two Aleutian islands of the Alaska territory. The United States purchased Alaska from Russia in 1867<sup>3</sup>—it was U.S. soil.

The British captured Detroit on August 16th during the War of 1812.<sup>4</sup> Later in the war, Washington D.C. was captured and burned to the ground.<sup>5</sup>

In addition to those wars, terrorist attacks were carried out in the United States prior to 9/11:

- In 1920, a TNT bomb on Wall Street killed 35 people. Though the crime was never solved, it was believed to be the work of Bolshevik and anarchist terrorists.<sup>6</sup>
- In 1975, a Puerto Rican nationalist group claimed responsibility for a bomb in New York City that killed four and injured more than fifty people.<sup>7</sup>
- In 1993, the World Trade Center was bombed by foreign nationals (Al Qaeda was suspected) with the intent of taking down both towers. This attack killed six and injured over 1000.<sup>8</sup>

If God’s hedge of protection was removed, allowing the terrorist attacks in 2001, when was it put back into place? Was this hedge of protection also absent when the other military and terrorist attacks took place on American soil? At which points in history was the hedge of protection in place—and when was it not? Given the lack of successful attacks over the past decade, should it be assumed that God’s hedge of protection has now been put back in place?

It quickly becomes clear that any event could be interpreted in any linguistic argument that does not hold up to scrutiny as is true of so many of the other arguments.

This is the way the Hebrew word is used in each of the eleven times it occurs in the Old Testament.<sup>30</sup> Nowhere does it speak of "a Gazit Stone," and "gazit" is never translated as "cornerstone." Except for one or two places, it refers to all the stones in the structure. In each of the six places where the cornerstone of a building is in view (either literally or figuratively)<sup>31</sup> the only word that is used is pinnah ("corner"), except for one place (Job 38:6), where it is used together with eben ("stone") to also mean "cornerstone."

Gazit has no ceremonial or symbolic significance in Isaiah 9:10 or in any other Old Testament passage. The supposed parallel is a manufactured one. It is simply not a harbinger.

SIXTH HARBINGER: THE SYCAMORE

FACT CONCERNING ISRAEL: Many or most of the fig-mulberry trees (sycamores) were cut down by the Assyrians as part of their assaults on Israel.

CLAIM CONCERNING AMERICA: A lone American sycamore stood in the courtyard of St. Paul's Chapel in the shadow of the World Trade Center and was knocked down as a result of the collapse of the buildings and flying debris.

This is yet another forced parallel that does not withstand closer examination. First, the sycamore (fig-mulberry) of ancient Israel and the American sycamore are two completely different trees that are unrelated in any way.<sup>32</sup> They are not the same species (Ficus sycomorus versus Platanus occidentalis). They are not in the same genus (Ficus versus Platanus) nor even in the same family (Moraceae versus Platanaceae). In spite of this, the author tries to make the connection on a linguistic basis. He argues that the trees in ancient Israel were sycamores to them, while a different tree in America is a sycamore to us.

[THE PROPHET] "In each case, the ancient and the modern, the leaders speak in the tongue of their people and nation. The Harbinger is translated into the context of the nation in which it appears and to the people to whom it is directed. So too with the sign of the Sycamore. It was a translation."

THE ANCIENT MYSTERY: THE NINE HARBINGERS

[KAPLAN] "A translation . . . how?"

[THE PROPHET] "The tree matches the nation . . . the land. The tree of Isaiah 9:10 was endemic to Israel. So the tree of 9/11 was endemic to America."

[KAPLAN] "But you said it was a sycamore."

[THE PROPHET] "It's classified under the genus platanus. But it's known by its common English name . . . sycamore. It was a sycamore."

[KAPLAN] "But . . ."

[THE PROPHET] "Yes, you were right, Nouriel. The Middle Eastern sycamore doesn't naturally grow in the American Northeast. But there exists a version of the sycamore that does—the English sycamore."

[KAPLAN] "The English sycamore . . . a translation of the Harbinger."

[THE PROPHET] "And it was the English sycamore that happened to be growing on the little plot of land at the border of Ground Zero."

Again, this exchange is misleading. The tree in Israel is a fruit-bearing tree, with the English translation ultimately coming from the Greek for "fig-mulberry" which is sycomoros. However, this tree is shaqam in Hebrew. So it is not legitimate to claim that this tree was a "sycamore" to the ancient Israelites, who lived long before the influence of the Greek Empire. It was a fig-mulberry—it was a shaqam to them.

In contrast, the American sycamore, as stated before, is not botanically related in any way to the fig-mulberry. There is no semantic connection. Of course, both trees carry the same name—but this is true only for English-speakers—not for Hebrew-speakers.

The following example from English and Hungarian illustrates the fundamental flaw in the author's linguistic argument. In Hungarian, the word kocsi (kó-chi) can mean either automobile or wagon (horse-drawn), but they cannot be used interchangeably in English. Even if someone were to install an engine to power a horse-drawn wagon in order to make it auto-mobile, it would still not be an automobile.

Yet this is precisely the type of mistake that Cahn makes in The Harbinger. It's true that automobiles and "auto-mobile" war wagons are both vehicles, just as sycamores and fig-mulberries are both trees. However, automobiles and wagons are more closely "related" to one another than are these two types of trees.

Furthermore, in the case of Israel, the fig-mulberry trees were cut down intentionally by the Assyrians, possibly for their wood to be used in siege engines, or perhaps to complete the scene of utter destruction. Either way, many, or perhaps all of the fig-mulberry trees were destroyed by the invaders, being specific targets, apparently as part of their military strategy. Their destruction was a significant blow to Israel as a nation.

However, in the case of the 9/11 attacks, there was just a single American sycamore at St. Paul's Chapel, which was not a target, was not cut down, and was not intentionally destroyed. It was collateral damage and had absolutely no impact on the nation—except for perhaps the fact that its destruction was a blessing. How was it a blessing? It seems that the tree actually shielded St. Paul's Chapel by absorbing the force of the blast, protecting it from any significant loss, although all the surrounding buildings were either destroyed or sustained tremendous damage.<sup>33</sup>

Again, there is none but the most superficial connection with the trees in Isaiah 9:10. The sycamore cannot reasonably be considered to be a harbinger.

SEVENTH HARBINGER: THE EREZ TREE

FACT CONCERNING ISRAEL: Israel planted valuable cedars of Lebanon to replace sycamores in defiance of the Assyrians who cut them down and in defiance of God who had sent them to judge the nation.

CLAIM CONCERNING AMERICA: A Norway spruce was planted at Ground Zero to replace the sycamore to give hope to a hurting nation.

Cahn once again goes to great lengths to connect current events to Isaiah's prophecy. He uses a scientific argument that appears to be straightforward on the surface. However, the complexity has been obscured by a few well-placed "broad brush strokes."

With the sycamores of the sixth harbinger, Cahn uses a linguistic argument that does not account for the science involved. His argument overlooks the fact that the American sycamore and the fig-mulberry are not even in the same botanical family.

However, with the Erez tree, his scientific argument does not fit the way erez is used in the Bible. His argument depends on the fact that the spruce at Ground Zero and the erez(im) in ancient Israel are in the same botanical family. He can't have it both ways.

As previously, Cahn tries to make it sound as if he has an open-and-shut case, which he does not. He mishandles the scientific evidence, but even more important, his argument goes beyond a lack of biblical evidence. It contradicts the biblical evidence. In addition, he again fails to accurately convey the historical context of the events.

First, Cahn tries to persuade the reader that the spruce that replaced the sycamore at Ground Zero exactly matched the cedars in Isaiah 9:10 when The Prophet says, "It is a particular kind of cone-bearing evergreen."<sup>34</sup> But he then immediately reverses direction by arguing that the match is due to the fact that cedar and spruce trees are both part of the same broad category. He cites a commentary for support: "The Hebrew erez rendered 'cedar' in all English versions, is most likely a generic word for the pine family."<sup>35</sup> Then comes the following exchange:

[THE PROPHET] "The Erez Tree would fall under the botanical classification of pinacea."

[KAPLAN] "Pinacea. And what," I asked, "does pinacea refer to specifically?"

[THE PROPHET] "The cedar, the spruce, the pine, and the fir."

[KAPLAN] "So the most accurate identification of the Hebrew word erez would be pinacea tree."

[THE PROPHET] "Yes. The most botanically precise translation of the vow would be, 'But we will plant pinacea trees in their place.'"<sup>36</sup>

THE HARBINGER — FACT OR FICTION?

So, which is it? Does the spruce match the erez tree because it is a particular kind of tree? Or does it match because erez refers only to a broad category? The remainder of Cahn's argument hinges on erez referring only to the broad category of Pinacea family, or pine tree. But that is not the way erez is used in the Bible.

The biblical evidence

A careful biblical study of erez reveals that the spruce at Ground Zero is not parallel to the cedars of ancient Israel. The results of this study are summarized here:

1. In Isaiah 9:10, "cedars" is the translation of the plural of the Hebrew word erez (erezim).
2. Erez is used in sixty-nine verses of the Old Testament and is always translated "cedar" in twenty different English translations and revisions.<sup>37</sup> Hundreds of theologians and Hebrew scholars all reached the consensus that erez is always "cedar." (Note: This is not an endorsement of all the translations consulted for this specific purpose.)

This raises the next question: "What type of cedar trees did the biblical writers mean when they used erez?" Were they just cedars in general or a specific type of cedar?

1. Twenty-three of the sixty-nine verses identify erez as the cedar of Lebanon because the word Lebanon is either in the verse or the nearby context.<sup>38</sup>
2. Twenty-seven of the remaining forty-six verses connect erez to construction and buildings, mostly the temple and royal palaces, where only cedars of Lebanon were used.<sup>39</sup> Three of the uses are figurative but are still part of a building metaphor.<sup>40</sup>
3. Seven of the remaining nineteen verses connect erez with religious activity: five with purification,<sup>41</sup> one with a sacrifice,<sup>42</sup> and one with making an idol.<sup>43</sup> (Some have suggested that the juniper may be in view in Leviticus,<sup>44</sup> but it is never translated that way.)

THE ANCIENT MYSTERY: THE NINE HARBINGERS

4. In six of the remaining twelve verses, erez is used figuratively. But in each case, the cedar of Lebanon must be in view. It depicts the glory of Israel's camp in the wilderness,<sup>45</sup> describes the tail of behemoth in Job,<sup>46</sup> and refers to the majestic cedars.<sup>47</sup> Only Psalm 148:9 might refer to cedars in general, but the only cedar found in the region of ancient Israel is the cedar of Lebanon.<sup>48</sup>
5. In the last six verses, the trees are planted erez trees. This includes Isaiah 9:10, where it seems clear that specifically cedars of Lebanon will be planted—not pine trees in general.
6. The Bible does refer to other conifers but never as erez. Other words are translated as fir,<sup>49</sup> cypress,<sup>50</sup> and pine,<sup>51</sup> but never as cedar.
7. Erez occurs in some verses with other Pinacea trees, but each refers to a different type of tree, showing that erez cannot be a generic word for a broad category. For example:

Isaiah 41:19—

I will plant in the wilderness the cedar and the acacia tree, the myrtle and the oil tree; I will set in the desert the cypress and the pine and the box tree together . . .

cedar = erez<sup>52</sup> (a Pinacea) cypress = berosh (perhaps better: fir - a Pinacea) pine = tidhar (perhaps Aleppo pine - a Pinacea)<sup>53</sup>
 box tree = teashshur (evergreen, but perhaps not a Pinacea)

Even though not all trees of the Bible can be identified with certainty, it is clear that the author had specific trees in mind—not just broad families.

The biblical evidence overwhelmingly shows that the erez tree is exclusively the cedar of Lebanon. There is no amazing biblical coincidence between the cedar of Isaiah 9:10 and the Norway spruce at Ground Zero (as the author would have the reader believe). There is no match. There is no parallel. And there is no harbinger.

THE HARBINGER - FACT OR FICTION?

- "So the rebuilding must begin . . ."<sup>3</sup>
- "So the Gazit Stone must be brought . . ."<sup>4</sup>
- "...the Sycamore must be replaced . . ."<sup>5</sup>
- "The Erez Tree must be planted . . ."<sup>6</sup>
- "The vow must be spoken . . ."<sup>7</sup>
- "But according to the Isaiah 9:10 Effect the second calamity must be born out effectively of the first . . ."<sup>8</sup>

This leaves Cahn with two major problems. If Isaiah 9:10 is to both ancient Israel and America, he is faced with an insurmountable hermeneutical problem. But if instead there really is such a thing as the Isaiah 9:10 Effect, he then has a historical problem.

What if "the breach" and "the terrorist" had been observed in 1812 or 1861 or 1941? In theory, could someone have discovered the "hidden ancient mystery" of Isaiah 9:10 in 1949? And if it had been claimed that Pearl Harbor was a breach by an enemy who persistently used terrorist tactics throughout the war in the Pacific (which the Japanese did), then could it not be argued that God's hedge of protection had been withdrawn prior to December 7, 1941? And if the hedge of protection had been removed long before 9/11, had God put yet another hedge of protection in place since WWII? The questions are truly endless.

This is not an attempt to mock the author. This is a very serious issue because if he is correct about the Isaiah 9:10 Effect, then it could have happened at any time in the past or it could happen again at any time in the future. On the other hand, if it could only have happened one time on September 11, 2001, then there is no such thing as the Isaiah 9:10 Effect as a principle.

OTHER "... EFFECT" PASSAGES?

If Cahn is right about the Isaiah 9:10 Effect, this raises another very important question: Are there any other prophetic passages in the Old Testament that also function like the Isaiah 9:10 Effect? How many other prophecies that were directed to Israel can also be correlated to historical events in the United States?

THE ISAIAH 9:10 EFFECT

Is there also a "Genesis 12:2 Effect?"

I will make you a great nation; I will bless you and make your name great; and you shall be a blessing.

Or a "Joshua 1:2 Effect?"

Every place that the sole of your foot will tread upon I have given you, as I said to Moses.

Are there dozens of others? Or is Isaiah 9:10 the only such passage in the entire Bible? If the Isaiah 9:10 Effect really exists, then it seems remarkably unlikely that it would be the only such principle in the entire Old Testament. But if not from the context, how could it possibly be known whether any given passage is supposed to function in this way? And yet there is nothing whatsoever in the context of Isaiah 9:10 that would suggest the existence of such an effect.

As noted earlier: If a proposed theological or spiritual idea is not found in the Bible, or if it cannot at least be supported by the text in some way, then someone made it up. This is exactly the nature of the Isaiah 9:10 Effect—someone made it up.

X the entire body of evidence for themselves. Readers are not necessarily being misinformed, but they are being left uninformed.

In order to make his case for the exact seven-year "Shemitah timing" between the stock market crashes, he appeals to the Hebrew calendar to show that both happened on the last day of the Jewish year, Elul 29. That seems reasonable. However, he shifts to the Gregorian calendar (the one normally used) to show the precision of the seven years between 9/11/2001 and 9/11/2008:

[THE PROPHET] "The collapse of Lehman Brothers and the American economy took place over the course of one week. It was the anniversary week of another American calamity . . ."

[KAPLAN] "9/11."

[THE PROPHET] "Yes, 9/11," he said. "The collapse of Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac happened on September 7. The collapse of Lehman Brothers began two days later on September 9 when it lost 45 percent of its value. It was on September 10 that it announced its loss of almost four billion dollars. The following day its stock took a second precipitous plunge."

[KAPLAN] "September 11."<sup>23</sup>

Here Cahn uses the Gregorian calendar (which is used in America) when it suits his purposes to show precise timing. Then to show the precise timing of another set of events, he uses the Hebrew calendar to demonstrate that the two collapses of the stock market on 29 Elul matched the seven-year cycle of the Shemitah. So economic cycles follow the Hebrew calendar? Not necessarily, as can be seen when Cahn tries to muster additional support for his theory:

[KAPLAN] "And the time separating the two events . . ."

[THE PROPHET] "Seven years," said The Prophet. "There were seven years between the two."

[KAPLAN] "Seven years—the biblical period of time that concerns a nation's financial and economic realms."<sup>24</sup>

In this case, he isn't talking about seven years based on the Hebrew calendar. He's talking about September 11, 2001, and September 11, 2008—according to the Gregorian calendar.

Beyond this, the way that he deals with the dates is also rather questionable. Things happened on various dates around September 11, 2008, but he picks out that date to argue for the precision:

[THE PROPHET] "So not only did the collapse of 2008 take place at the seven-year mark from 9/11, but it specifically concerned the principle of the Shemitah."

Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac collapsed on September 7. Lehman Brothers' stock dropped 45 percent on September 9 and then announced a $4 billion dollar loss on September 10. And then on September 11, Lehman's stock "took a second precipitous plunge." But why is September 11 considered the significant date and not September 15, which is the day it filed for bankruptcy? Or why not September 9, when the drop started? This seems very arbitrary and gives the impression of "cherry-picking" evidence in order to strengthen the author's arguments while diminishing the significance of related evidence that does not support and, in many ways, even undercuts his arguments.

Some might suggest that such criticisms miss the larger important point while unnecessarily getting lost in minute details. However, if Cahn relies on this level of precise detail, then his claims need to be examined at that level. When this is done, the claimed precision required by the Shemitah begins to fade away.

Once again, the author cannot have it both ways by arguing for exact precision to the day, on one hand, but then arguing for "in-the-ballpark" precision on the other—especially by switching between two different ways of reckoning dates (the Hebrew and Gregorian calendars). This is not significantly different from using the Septuagint to prove one point and the Masoretic text to prove another point—even though they are mutually contradictory.

And finally, an interesting fact is that although Congress allowed Lehman Brothers to fail by voting down their $700 billion bailout on Monday, September 29, on Friday of that week the bailout was approved for the financial sector in general.<sup>27</sup> Once again, the reader has been misled through the very selective use of facts that do not remotely represent the whole picture—and the total proof is now down from three points to two.

Stock market crash of 2008

As he does on several occasions, in trying to demonstrate the validity of the “mystery of sevens,” Cahn appeals to what he says are very precise numbers. Therefore, if precision is claimed to prove God’s involvement, the numbers actually need to be precise. Anything less proves nothing more than an interesting coincidence.

The first issue is the supposed sign of the 777-point drop on September 29, 2008. Late that day, CNNMoney.com reported the drop as 778 points.<sup>28</sup> This was because the actual figure was 777.68 points. It was not 777, nor could it properly be rounded down to 777.

If the Lord were trying to draw attention to what He was doing, causing the drop to be precisely 777.77 or 777.00 certainly would be no more difficult for Him than 777.68. But as it is, the actual figure is just another number.

Of course, the charge could be made that this is just wrangling over insignificant details and missing the main point. However, it is the details on which Cahn’s theories depend, and in this case, the theory is dashed on the rocks of those details. This takes the total proof down to just one final point.

As has been previously noted, the corresponding 7 percent drop does not even rank in the top 10 declines by percentage points. Furthermore, while the DOW is an important measure, the NASDAQ and S&P 500 indexes are also significant indicators, and they fell 9.1 percent and 8.8 percent respectively.<sup>29</sup> How does the author determine which one of the three important stock market numbers is a sign from God? Would it have also been a sign if the DOW had fallen 8 percent but the NASDAQ had fallen 7 percent?

And finally, the fact is that the drop was not exactly 7.0 percent. Rather, it was 6.98 percent.<sup>30</sup> Citing this exact number will surely cause some to roll their eyes at the meager two-hundredths difference. However, when the basis for one’s arguments is precise numbers, then they need to be precise. Would it also have been a sign if it had been 6.51 percent or 7.49 percent? How much could it be off and still be a sign?

This is not 722 B.C., when numbers were considered precise if they were in the ballpark. In the twenty-first century, with incredibly precise computers and lightning-fast communications technology, millions of dollars are often at stake with even just 1 hundredth of a percent. For example, 2 hundredths of 1 percent of the $700 billion bailout is $14 million. If God were sending a sign, how difficult would it have been for Him to make it exactly a 7.0 percent drop? Or better still, 7.7 percent, or even 7.77 percent?

This is not to presume to tell the Lord how He should send signs or with what precision. On the other hand, if someone claims to try to discern what God has done with precision, then precision should be expected. Yet the degree of precision that Cahn employs is both arbitrary and inconsistent. The numbers are interesting—but not amazing. They do not rise to the level of being the sure signature of the hand of God.

This is compounded by the fact that it is impossible to justify the very narrow selectivity that Cahn uses. This is “stacking the deck.” The mathematical improbability argument to which so many appeal in support of the validity of the author’s theories simply evaporates under even moderate scrutiny. This removes all three numbers from the “mystery of the sevens,” leaving just the dates themselves to consider.

The most obvious problem is that if the three numbers have no statistical significance, then the significance of the date on which they occurred is lessened dramatically. Granted, the timing of what happened on these two dates is perhaps the most interesting phenomenon in the book, but this is simply because none of the rest of the “evidence” has any demonstrable significance.

Cahn has noted that the “first shaking” occurred on September 17, 2001 (29 Elul), in the form of a stock market crash on the last day of the Shemitah year. For that to be significant would require the previous seven years to also be part of an imposed Shemitah cycle, beginning with September 6, 1994 (1 Tishri).

Another consideration is that in 2001 the drop was 684 points at 7.1 percent.<sup>31</sup> Close, perhaps, but this is even less precise than in 2008. Can it be said with any confidence that God caused this drop as a warning to America? And did He do so in a way that would be recognized as connected to the

THE HARBINGER — FACT OR FICTION?

Jewish Shemitah? To even suggest that this might be true requires a lot of supporting evidence, which simply doesn't exist.

No one else has noticed this over the last eleven years for a very good reason—it is not obvious. And if it isn't obvious, then it isn't a sign or warning of judgment. Cahn says that there was a second warning in 2008 because everyone ignored the first warning in 2001. No, they didn't. It was not ignored—it wasn't seen.

Of all the godly men and women across America who love and serve the Lord, of the thousands and thousands of outstanding Bible teachers and preachers, virtually no one was sounding the alarm because they did not recognize it as a warning of an impending Shemitah judgment. The reason they did not recognize it is because the evidence is not there and the idea of a Shemitah being imposed on America is unbiblical.

THE SHEMITAH AS LAW

The myriad of practical problems strongly mitigates against Cahn's theory that God has imposed a Shemitah on the United States. As previously noted, Cahn acknowledges that the Shemitah was given to Israel and not to any other nation. But the theological problem involved with proposing that God is still using the Shemitah as a principle is even greater.

The Sabbath day and the Sabbath year, the Shemitah, were exclusively part of the Law of Moses. If God had any expectations of man with regard to the Sabbath day or a seven-year economic or agricultural cycle apart from the Law, there would be corresponding revelation. However, the Scriptures are silent on this, both before and after the Law.

The New Testament neither prescribes nor describes any Sabbath-keeping for believers after Christ's death on the cross. There are only seven references to the Sabbath day after the Day of Pentecost (Acts 2). These references occur only in the book of Acts in chapters 13 through 18 and are only in reference to the day of the week when unconverted Jews gathered in the synagogues.

Other than these, there are no references to the Sabbath day or year—not a single instruction to the churches—except for one important passage in Romans concerning Sabbath-keeping:

THE SHEMITAH

Romans 14:5-6—

One person esteems one day above another; another esteems every day alike. Let each be fully convinced in his own mind. He who observes the day, observes it to the Lord; and he who does not observe the day, to the Lord he does not observe it. He who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives God thanks; and he who does not eat, to the Lord he does not eat, and gives God thanks.

In keeping with this principle, the writer of Hebrews gives additional insight into the theological basis for what Paul wrote to the believers in Rome. In order to prepare ethnically Jewish Christians for the soon-coming destruction of the temple, chapter 4 makes it clear that those who have believed the gospel have entered into God's Sabbath rest—which would include both the Sabbath day and the Sabbath year:

Hebrews 4:1-3, 8-10—

Therefore, since a promise remains of entering His rest, let us fear lest any of you seem to have come short of it. For indeed the gospel was preached to us as well as to them; but the word which they heard did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in those who heard it. For we who have believed do enter that rest . . .

For if Joshua had given them rest, then He would not afterward have spoken of another day. There remains therefore a rest for the people of God. For he who has entered His rest has himself also ceased from his works as God did from His.

Those who are in Christ by faith have entered into the Sabbath rest that God has promised and prepared. Apart from Christ there is no Sabbath requirement, meaning that because Christ fulfilled the Law, God does not impose a Sabbath day or a Sabbath year (the Shemitah).

God no longer expects Jews to continue keeping the Sabbath day or Shemitah. Rather, His desire is that they would enter His Sabbath through faith in Christ. Gentiles were never required to keep either Sabbath. Therefore, there is no biblical basis whatsoever for Cahn's theory concerning an imposed Shemitah. Quite the opposite is true—his theory runs counter to the Word of God and the gospel.

In the last chapter of the book, Kaplan explains to Goren how he figured out the meaning of his personal clay seal in what may be a very revealing exchange. Between the last sentence in the quote below and what can be seen from the messages above, the real mystery of The Harbinger may be that its foundation is actually Jewish mysticism:

[KAPLAN] "The writing on the seal was in a language I had never seen before. But I remembered the words of The Prophet that day we first met on the bench, when he took the seal to examine it. He said it was Hebrew, but a different form of Hebrew—Paleo-Hebrew, an older version."

[GOREN] "And did you know anybody who could read Paleo-Hebrew?"

[KAPLAN] "No. But I knew someone who studied Hebrew from biblical and rabbinical writings. I looked up the Paleo-Hebrew alphabet, then transcribed each of the letters into its modern Hebrew equivalent. Then I made a trip to Brooklyn. That's where my friend was, an Orthodox Jewish man who ran a little bookstore, in back of which was a study, a library of all sorts of mystical Hebrew writings. That was his passion—finding meaning in mystical Hebrew literature."

THE TENTH SEAL

The introduction of Jewish mystical writings into the storyline of The Harbinger is very problematic, and one has to wonder why Cahn would have done this.

Mysticism and mystical experiences have been a part of Judaism since the earliest days. . . . The mystical school of thought came to be known as Kabbalah, from the Hebrew root Qof-Beit-Lamed, meaning "to receive, to accept." The word is usually translated as "tradition."<sup>3</sup>

"Kabbalah" is a doctrine of esoteric knowledge concerning God and the universe, asserted to have come down as a revelation to the Sages from a remote past, and preserved only by a privileged few. Kabbalah is considered part of the Jewish Oral Law. It is the traditional mystical understanding of the Torah. Kabbalah stresses the reasons and understanding of the commandments, and the cause of events described in the Torah. Kabbalah includes the understanding of the spiritual spheres in creation, and the rules and ways by which God administers the existence of the Universe.<sup>4</sup>

Most forms of Kabbalah teach that every letter, word, number, and accent of scripture contains a hidden sense; and it teaches the methods of interpretation for ascertaining these occult meanings.<sup>5</sup>

That Cahn would include this reference to Jewish mysticism in the book is not necessarily just an anomaly. Cahn gave a message at his church that also included detailed references to Jewish mystical writings. His message was titled "Gulgatah: The Cosmic Skull: The Rabbinic Mysteries V." The title seems to suggest that this was the fifth in a series of messages on "The Rabbinic Mysteries."

A segment from near the end of this message was uploaded to YouTube on February 25, 2010, and the video is titled, "The Zohar Speaks." This video is connected with the username "bethisraelwayne" which would indicate that the video was uploaded officially by Cahn's church, Jerusalem/Beth Israel Worship Center in Wayne, New Jersey.

The following description accompanies the YouTube video:

THE HARBINGER - FACT OR FICTION?

"Something never before revealed, to the glory of Messiah! The Cosmic Skull, the mercy of God, and the hidden and mystical writings of the Rabbis that point to Messiah."<sup>6</sup> The description coincides exactly with the overall trajectory of Cahn's messages, and that of The Harbinger, which is to reveal to the world mysteries that have been hidden until he discovers and proclaims them.

The Judaism 101 website notes the following concerning the Zohar:

In the middle ages, many of these mystical teachings were committed to writing in books like the Zohar. Many of these writings were asserted to be secret ancient writings or compilations of secret ancient writings.<sup>7</sup>

Intentional or not, the way Cahn describes its teachings gives the impression that he views the Zohar as being a credible source of truth as held by the ancient rabbis:

Incredible thing. Blew me away. I found it in the mystical Jewish writings of the Zohar. Something I never heard mentioned anywhere, ever. . . . The Zohar speaks, the rabbis are writing of the redemption of the world with Messiah's coming. They speak of life from the dead. They speak of resurrection, the redemption of the world. . . . They say it all will come, the power of all this, the miracle of all this will come from a sacred thing, a sacred place. And this place, this thing, is where all the mercy of God is stored. All the mercy of God pours out from this place, this thing. What is it? Very strange. They call it the "gulgatah." This holy, mystical thing. . . . The most famous scene in human history, the center of salvation. Messiah dying on that hill which appears as a skull. That's why they called it "gulgatah"—Golgotha. And which signifies God's mercy. All His mercy. Why on earth would the rabbis put it there? Makes no sense at all—except that God just puts it in.<sup>8</sup>

"God just puts it in." In other words, God inspired the rabbis to write about redemption coming from a skull, yet they had no idea what it meant. So, in this message Cahn presents concepts that are reflected in The Harbinger. The first is that Isaiah 9:10 contains a mystery that no one has seen before—Cahn has discovered it for the very first time—just as he has discovered this inspired message in the ancient rabbinic writings. The second is that Tom Daschle was inspired by God to proclaim America's defiance and thus set up the nation for judgment—even though he didn't know what he was doing—just as is true of the ancient rabbis.

As Cahn continues his exposition of the Zohar, the mystical nature of his thinking becomes even more clear. And once again he notes that perhaps no one has ever said the words he has just uttered:

In the gulgatah—Golgotha—sit thousands of myriads of worlds. And from the gulgatah—Golgotha—drips dew and fills . . . the dew fills the world and the dead will awaken in the world to come as the dew comes forth. The dew is the light of the ancient one. The light of the ancient one comes from Golgotha and as it touches—the dead ones come to life. From Golgotha is the light of God bringing life from the dead. Golgotha—the radiance of God which brings life. Whoa! That's amazing stuff. And that may be the first time it's ever been said. 'Cause you have to be a believer and you have to be in that stuff.<sup>9</sup>

What stuff? The ancient mystical writings. Yet even more telling is that Cahn confidently elevates the rabbis to the level of Moses and Daniel.

The death of Messiah—all pinpointed in time and space. Moses zeroed in on the day. Passover. He dies on the day that the lamb is killed. The prophets—Daniel zeroes in on the time period, mathematically, before 70 A.D. Daniel—those seventy sevens. The rabbis in the book of Moed, unwittingly, and another thing we shared this [sic], zeroed in on the year by saying that the cosmic change all took place in the year 30 A.D. . . . And now the very hill, the very place, here in, of all places, the rabbinical writings, the Zohar. . . . you want mercy, you go there. Listen to the rabbis. . . .<sup>10</sup>

How can a pastor instruct his congregation to "listen to the rabbis" who produced the Zohar and tell them these rabbis were inspired by God? The Zohar is not simply an innocuous source of information—it is an extrabiblical guide to "higher spirituality." It is mystical. It is occultic.

The Zohar cannot be understood and felt directly, but requires preconception of spirituality, before one approaches the book.

THE HARBINGER - FACT OR FICTION?

The greatest Kabbalist of our time—Rabbi Yehuda Ashlag (Baal HaSulam)—wrote introductions to The Zohar precisely to guide one's approach to this profound book prior to studying it.

Such articles cultivate one's spiritual qualities to perceive the Higher reality. Additionally, these texts provide knowledge of how to approach certain terms, phrases, and concepts in The Zohar, to maximize its use as a guide for spiritual attainment, avoiding being lost in materialized depictions that the human mind is prone to form.<sup>11</sup>

In the July 3, 2012, interview when Brannon Howse expressed his deep concern about Cahn using mystical sources for his messages, Cahn tried to justify his practice by noting that the Apostle Paul also referred to the teaching of pagan philosophers in his address to the Athenians (Acts 17:22-31). He went on to suggest that Paul would have been "crucified" by discernment ministries for using a hymn to Zeus and because of his associations.<sup>12</sup>

That is a red herring. The two situations are completely different. Paul's approach is nothing like Cahn's. Cahn refers to the mystical rabbinical writings positively, saying that because God had inspired them his church should "listen to the rabbis." He presents the Zohar as something that can be studied and its depths plumbed for hidden mysteries like he has just revealed for the first time.

In stark contrast, Paul immediately tells his audience that what they have been taught by their poets about the unknown god they worship is completely wrong. He does not suggest that their sayings contain hidden mysteries that were inspired by God and that he had just discovered for the first time. Paul never implies that the Athenians should listen to these men. Rather he refers to a single point of agreement (we all come from God) to denounce their idols. From Romans we understand that the knowledge of that truth is not a hidden mystery but has rather been made plain to everyone through both the conscience and the Creation (Romans 1:18-2:16).

Lest someone think this too was just an anomaly, another message from Cahn was uploaded to YouTube by user "bethisraelwayne" on April 10, 2012: "Messiah's Cosmic Cataclysm and the Hidden Writings of 30 A.D." This video includes the following description:

THE TENTH SEAL

The amazing signs contained in the hidden writings of the rabbis that happened c. 30 A.D., the Scarlet Chord [sic], the Lots of Scapegoat, the Western Light, the Exile of the Sanhedrin, the Doors of the Temple, and the cataclysmic power of the Lamb—Great for believer and unbeliever alike.<sup>13</sup>

The following excerpts from that message confirm his belief in the significance and authority of the extra-biblical writings of the rabbis as found in the book of Yoma in the Babylonian Talmud:

But now could there be any other witness, historical witnesses, even beyond the gospel accounts—that confirm something cataclysmic happened. The answer is amazingly, "Yes!" And just as amazingly it comes from people who oppose the faith—so it's even more powerful a witness. The Talmud consists of the writings of the rabbis—the rabbis who did not believe in Yeshua, Jesus as the Messiah. . . . The earliest writings or the earliest notes are based on the writings, accounts from the time of Messiah. . . . And one of those books is called the book of Yoma, in the Talmud. Orthodox Jews read this book. Yoma 39a. The rabbis record a phenomenon [sic]—strange events that take place in the temple of Jerusalem. Signs. Events of such significance they deemed it worthy of recording it in the closest thing they had after the Scriptures.<sup>14</sup>

Cahn goes on to explain that the rabbis taught that a miracle took place such that the center lamp of the menorah in the temple never went out even when the oil in the other six lamps was used up. Then, in 30 A.D. the miracle ceased, coinciding with the death of the Messiah.

So in the temple of Jerusalem they kept the menorah, the seven-branched candlestick. . . . a symbol of the light of God. . . . by tradition the central lamp was the westernmost lamp that lit up all the other ones. . . . It kept burning even when the other ones would go out. . . . The rabbis noted this was a sign. . . . They said it was a sign of the glory of God . . . but the rabbis record something happened . . . that had to do with Israel's light—the menorah, the flame. . . . The rabbis record all of a sudden the western light, this key light, stopped shining. . . . and they view it as a cosmic change.<sup>15</sup>

Yes, this about the Menorah (the seven-armed candlestick), I have heard preached in Sweden also...

by KG Larsson... at "Smålandskonferensen" (The Småland Conference)!!! Year??? Around 2005-2006...

He talked about one of his trips to Israel and how a rabbi talked about this very thing that the Menorah light went out... My friend and I thought it sounded "cool" at the time and were impressed... and have ourselves told it further...

So... KG Larsson thus conveyed a "Talmud teaching" to the Christians at a conference in Sweden!

IMAGINE how easy it is to end up "wrong"...

I cannot find link from the Smålandskonferensen (Småland conference) around 2005-2006...

BUT HERE I found a "similar" teaching! @ BETEL, RUNEMO - SATURDAY SEPTEMBER 21 2019 KL 15:00

AVAILABLE @ SÖNDAGHELAVECKAN (= SUNDAY ALL WEEK): unfortunately in Swedish only – but will comment a little!

<https://www.sondaghelaveckan.se/?m=27558>

Den sjuarmade ljusstaken The seven-branched candelabrum

The menorah (/məˈnɔːrə/; Hebrew: מְנוֹרָה mənōrā, pronounced [menoˈʁa])

is a seven-branched candelabrum that is described in the Hebrew Bible and in later ancient sources as having been used in the Tabernacle and in the Temple in Jerusalem.

Approx 16-18 minutes in the teaching it comes = Menorah Lamp went out!

A guide @ The Tempel Institute in Jerusalem = is from where he got this Menorah-teaching...

<https://templeinstitute.org/> = The Tempel Institute

I can't resist commenting just a little from this teaching...

...from Judaism, then it originates from this book = he means The Bible ;-D)

KJ = BUT... the Kabbalah doctrine of Judaism does NOT come from the Bible!!!

So we can't "embrace" everything that Judaism teaches...

AMEN to what he says in the beginning "the Christmas tree - a pagan tradition... Santa and troll/goblin do not come from Israel or this book" (= The Bible)

KG Larsson starts talking about different "numbers"... Seven, 8, 6...

Well... this has been heard over the years... especially within the Faith Movement – when I was at various conferences (at the Conference in Småland among other) – this was BEFORE 2008 when I became aware of the false teachings within the movement... I guess I never reacted to it... and some of the "7" which KG mentions from the Bible is correct...

BUT...

In view of what is stated in the attachment/PDF on page 9:

...7 is a "MAGICAL" number within occultism..... .... the number 7 and the cycles of 7 are important.

Then it becomes "interesting"...

At least it makes me wonder "WHO has influenced who"?

To know the different "meanings of the numbers" might interest some, but it is not the Gospel...it is not a saving message!

As soon as we start to "HYPER-focus" on, for example, the meaning of the numbers in themselves, there is risk that Jesus Christ and His Holiness no longer becomes the centre/focus... We must be on our guard for teaching what is influenced by "Kabbalah's search for new knowledge"...

Yes, much of what KG teaches here is right and "sounds right"... BUT... when you gather information from Judaism – from the Jews who do NOT believe that Jesus Christ IS the Messiah – you get extra-biblical teachings... which you then pass on to Christian listeners who do not know its origin...

As in this case = KG Larsson conveyed "extra-biblical writings found in the book of Yoma in the Babylonian Talmud". Again...

THINK how easy it is to go astray... IF we believe that... if it comes from Judaism, it originates from this book... (= The Bible!) It is of the utmost importance that we stick to the Bible and its teachings – we do NOT need to add any other teaching!*

One might wonder WHY KG Larsson brings up this with the Temple building... which he learned from the Temple Institute... That it will happen – there are many who interpret based on the Bible... BUT for us who are saved and Bible believers: we KNOW that this is not God's Plan or Will... it is to start sacrificing again (which, thanks to Jesus Christ, NEVER needs to be done again!) and to prepare a place for the man of sin, the son of perdition (antichrist), to take his place there in the Temple and claim to be "god" ... (Matthew 24:15, 2 Thessalonians 2:1-12) – one should also mention this IF telling about the upcoming Temple building...

1 Petrus 3:18

For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit:

King James Version

Hebreerbrevet 10:18

*Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.

King James Version

The God of the Bible wants salvation for both Jews and Gentiles!

Still, there are many "Faith Movement-influenced" who teach about this coming temple...unfortunately...

Once again God cooperated to provide "support" for my above standpoint...

Had I finished writing this newsletter in 2018, I would not have received the links below – God IS Good!

Amir Tsarfati said very GOOD about The Temple and the "Red Heifer" on April 22, 2024

(except he doesn't believe we'll be around then...he believes in the PRE-Tribulation...which is very dominant in USA...

BUT disregard that and take to heart what he says about the sacrifice of red cows/heifers and the temple!)

He clearly states that it is not something to "look forward to" - I agree with that!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DRqm9ZQh7GQ>

Amir Tsarfati: The Third Temple & Red Heifers?

Worth watching!

Should Christians be looking for, supporting, and promoting the efforts to build the Third Temple and the sacrifice of Red Heifers?

Nor does Lars Enarson, a swede who lives in Israel, warn to keep your eyes on "the coming temple" instead of Christ... but arranged a trip to Israel where one would see these red cows/heifers... which one day will be sacrificed...

As I said above; "there are many "Faith Movement-influenced" who teach this...unfortunately..."

This also in Swedish, but enough to see the translated text

Hamas' worries: Flawless cow being prepared for temple construction

GREAT CONTRAST IF YOU COMPARE Amir Tsarfati WITH KG Larsson's and Lars Enarson's teaching!

WHO should you believe?

Well, considering that the latter two are involved with The Faith Movement-circles and endorse many of its teachings, I trust Amir more!!!!

We must have a heart for the Jewish people, ISRAEL and its inhabitants... and pray for their salvation...

BUT not be so naive that we ourselves are influenced by teachings from Judaism that has NOT submit to Jesus Christ as Lord and Savior – and the work He did on Calvary Cross!

Listen to Amir here too... not even 1 ½ minutes... but so GOOD and simple!!!!!!!

Do You Have a Heart for Israel? - <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sfTUXT-0dS0>

We must have a heart for the nation of Israel and long for their salvation. Regardless of personal feelings, Israel is God's people, and we are called to love, support, pray for, and share the gospel with them. Israel's future has implications for all of us, and we are challenged to fulfil God's expectations by sharing the good news with His beloved people.

Can I get an "Amen"!?!

Speaking of the Smålandskonferensen (The Småland conference) where I heard KG Larsson teach about the Menorah...
This year's conference 2024...

I happened to see who the speakers were when checking this link... earlier this year...

ATTENTION! Doesn't look like this now...see page 56!

Notice how this Morgan Carlsson holds his hand!!!

Hmm...

I googled = Morgan is, together with his wife, the founder of MoHI...

Looking at the above link from MoHI;

Morgan is, among others, called to Korskyrkan (The Cross Church), Alingsås

= this is Hans and Eva Marklund's congregation!!!

Yes, this is in Sweden and you have most likely NO IDEA who they are... BUT HEAR ME OUT!!!

SEE WHAT I found on their (= Marklund's) website!!!

= This was a "Prayer conference/prayer weekend" in April of this year 2024, where Daniel Viklund ALSO participated!!! Interesting...

Sverige: Kontaktperson är Pastor Hans Marklund

<http://www.globalday.se/index.php?page=start> - Vi har glädjen att inbjuda er till en världsboensatsning, Global day of prayer 2010!

På pingstdagen år 2005 startade Global day of prayer och kommer sedan att hållas varje pingstdag fram till och med 2010. En bönevåg skall gå runt hela jorden från nation till nation. Den startar på Nya Zeeland vid solens uppgång för att sedan följa tidszonerna runt jorden.

Varje pingstdag föregås av tio dagar av bön och fasta. Vi skall be Herren om en ny andeutgjutelse över hela jorden så att missionsuppdraget slutförs och Jesus Kristus kommer tillbaka.

Global day of prayer har nu genomförts i Sverige år 2005, 2006, 2007 och 2008. Första året deltog 15 platser i Sverige.

Registrerade platser har sedan ökat från år till år och under 2006 deltog 20 platser, 2007 och 2008 deltog 25 platser. Vi vill inbjuda och utmana er att vara med på er plats och sätta upp "Global day of prayer" tillsammans med Guds folk i er region den 23 maj 2010.

Well, I'm not going to come up with a "conspiracy theory"... BUT of course it's interesting that they still have conferences... It makes me raise my eyebrows, to say the least!

I have written about "The Småland Conference" and Duveskog's Travel Service in previous newsletters...

They belong to the Faith Movement and call speakers from "OAS to the Faith Movement"... and a large part of the "elite" within the Swedish Faith Movement travel or have travelled with Duveskog's Travel Service... even Hans and Eva Marklund!

Short explanation what OAS stands for – text translated from Swedish Wikipedia:

<https://sv.wikipedia.org/wiki/Oas%C3%B6relsen> - The Oas Movement is a charismatic renewal movement within the Church of Sweden, which was formed in September 1983 at Åh diocese at a Nordic Lutheran leadership conference. It was then named "Reference group for spiritual renewal in the Swedish church" (RAF), but changed its name in 1989 to the Oasrörelsen (The Oas movement). The key words of The Oas Movement are "renewal, evangelization and unity on an evangelical Lutheran foundation".

The Lutheran Church in Sweden has NEVER 100% distanced itself from The Roman Catholic Church (RCC)... you can still today see and hear teachings deriving from RCC, unfortunately.

Still with Morgan Carlsson's "hand sign"...

I do NOT know what kind of "background" this is...?

Should it represent "vessels"/veins that emerge from a heart...?

Or "vessel" from an eye...? Um...

Wonder if this has a "prophetic meaning" according to them...!?

Pentecost and other denominations around Sweden are affected by these conferences and summer tent-meetings... Many members attend these and bring home what they are taught to their congregations... and many call these Faith-preachers to their congregations... and are "infected" by their heresies... BEWARE!!!

Just to give an example – Morgan Carlsson @ Pentecost in Töcksfors...

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hkZV45xTCEw>

NO, I do not recommend taking part in this!

I do NOT comment on what he teaches... some sound Biblical... some are typical Faith Movement-doctrine... so it's a mix and therefore not Bible-faithful, unfortunately...

Then I saw that the same YouTube channel has Birger Skoglund:

IF this was a word from the Lord in 2023... it will show!

Anyone who is alive and "awake" will see...

Unfortunately, the Bible says that there will be a "great apostasy" and that lawlessness will prevail... I think it points to that - instead of revival - as it looks in Sweden today...

So I got a little curious about Pentecost in Töcksfors...

<https://pingstkyrka.se/ompingstkyrkan.html> - Om Oss    About Us

Pingströrelsen representerar en klassisk kristen tro som är präglad av den speciella profil som internationellt kallas "pentekostal" teologi och praxis.

The Pentecostal movement represents a classical Christian faith that is characterized by the special profile known internationally as "Pentecostal" theology and practice.

Hm... with preachers as above, it's SOOO FAR from "classical Christian faith" – that I dare say!

With these above speakers comes ALSO the Faith Movement's heresies and prayer strategies...

DON'T TAKE PART OF THIS – FAITH MOVEMENT PREACHERS AND FAITH MOVEMENT CONFERENCES...
IF YOU HAVE PARTAKEN – RENOUNCE IT AND ASK THE LORD FOR CLEANSING AND HELP TO ACCEPT ONLY SOUND BIBLE DOCTRINE!!!

But... WHERE can you then go to take part in conferences and tent meetings, etc.?

Well, Jesus himself said:

"strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it" .... (Matthew 7: 13-14 KJV)

There is a price to follow Him, but it is right and it leads to life!

Let us stay on the Right Way which is for our own good... We are adopted - we belong to the Lord - we are His!!!

WHY WOULD ANYONE WANT TO GO AND LISTEN TO "FALSE TEACHERS"???

Ephesians 5:15-17

King James Version

15 See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,

16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.

17 Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.

There is a "saying" that many people use: "Don't throw the baby out with the bathwater"

I have heard and read it many times over the years and have had it "thrown in my face" myself once by a sister in the Lord when I pointed out a false teacher... BUT... THIS CANNOT BE READ IN THE BIBLE AND IS NOT BIBLICAL!!!

As I understand it, it is used more to avoid having to take a stand and distance yourself... TO BE ABLE to keep listening to false teachers, as well as going to meetings and conferences and being involved, even though you know better!!!!

SO... WHERE DOES THIS "EXPRESSION" ABOUT BATHWATER COME FROM?

<https://forklarade.com/vad-betyder-kasta-ut-barnet-med-badvattnet/#:~:text=Vad%20betyder%20%EF%80%9DKasta%20ut%20barnet%20med%20badvattnet%EF%80%9D%3P%20%EF%80%9DAtt,mening%2C%20re%20presenterar%20den%20goda%20delen%20som%20kan%20bevaras.>

= Probably from 1515 by a German author

<https://www.ordspraket.se/Kasta-ut-barnet-med-badvattnet.>

= Losing what is good when you get rid of what you consider worthless. This phrase is usually classified as an idiom.

God's Word clearly says "REPENT"!

I googled "WHAT DOES REPENTANCE MEAN" and found this explanation – compiled from several links:

<https://www.bing.com/search?q=WHAT%20DOES%20REPENTANCE%20MEAN&pc=OP157&ptag=C999N0028A0A36330D54&form=PCF160&conlogo=CT3210127>

Repentance is the action or process of repenting especially for misdeeds or moral shortcomings<sup>12345</sup>.

It involves a complete change of thought, attitude and action, and is like making a U-turn in life<sup>5</sup>.

The modern definition of "to repent" is "To review one's actions and feel contrition or regret for something one has done or omitted to do; (esp. in religious contexts) to acknowledge the sinfulness of one's past action or conduct by showing sincere remorse and undertaking to reform in the future"<sup>3</sup>.

A complete turnaround (U-turn) means a complete change of direction... then you SHOULD also "throw the child out"! IF there is heresy involved then it is not worth keeping – usually it is so "infected"! What is REALLY BIBLICAL still remains when you read God's Word and when you hear true Biblical teaching! = you lose nothing!!!! YOU WILL BE FREE!!!!

Then there are healthy meetings... Praise be to God!

In Sweden, we have the apologists from "Parousia Mission": <https://elvorochianne.se/parousia-info/>

In USA you can attend meetings from authors on this list @ Lighthouse Trails: <https://www.lighthouse-trails.com/5-browse-by-author>

There are many apologists in USA... but this link is a "good start"!

PRAY AND THE LORD WILL LEAD YOU TO A SOUND BIBLICAL MEETING!

Or start your own prayer group IF you can't find anything sound near you...

While I'm at it:

What shall I say – what conclusion to draw...???

Well, MY conclusion is at least that "all Faith Movement preachers are drawn together" ...like magnets...

These conferences and leadership-days are NOT Biblically sound!

However, no matter how "good they may sound"; they bring the Faith Movement heresies and its self-proclaimed NAR apostles and prophets! Some worse than others... but, unfortunately, they are affected by this movement!

I APPEAL TO YOU WHO READ THIS – DO NOT PARTICIPATE IN THIS – STAY AWAY AND TURN TO THE LORD AND BIBLICALLY SOUND CHRISTIANITY!

PRAY FOR THEM – PRAY THAT THE LORD WILL OPEN THEIR EYES AND GIVE THEM GRACE TO REPENT!!!

Viktiga ledardagar hos Trosnistan i Runemo 22-24 januari.

Den här gången hade vi vår nationella ledarkonferens i Betelkyrkan i Runemo. Över hundra ledare och pastorer hade anmält sig till dagarna. Temat var profetiskt och apostoliskt ledarskap. Hvt utvecklar vi ett andligt moget ledarskap i församlingarna.

I assume this was from 2016

“prophetic and apostolic leadership”...

Fredagskvällen inleddes av Hans Augustsson från Gamleby, församlingen Josua. Utifrån Israels folks historia, hjälpte Hans oss att se hur viktigt det är att se med Guds ögon på livet och på omständigheterna. Israels folk valde att bedöma situationen genom omständigheterna, dvs sina egna ögon men också genom fiender ögon. De var som gräshoppor i sina egna ögon och bedömde att de också var det i fiendens. Josua och Kaleb beskrivs som människor med ”en annan ande”. De hade trons ande och höll sig trofast till Guds Ord och löften. För att vi skall kunna gensvara till Guds vilja för våra församlingar och för vårt land behöver vi ha samsyn med Gud och inte låta omständigheterna styra och bestämma vad vi kan göra och vilka trossteg som vi kan ta.

= NAR-influenced in my ears!!!

Curt Johansson, pastor i Betel, talade om vikten av mognad hos församlingens ledarskap, men också behovet av hjälp från den helige Ande så att rätt personer avskils och insätts i olika funktioner och uppdrag. Vidare talade han om aposteln och profetens tjänst samt lade vikt vid det som sägs i Efesierbrevet 4, att tjänstegångarna skall utrusta de heliga för att de skall kunna göra sin tjänst och bygga upp Kristi kropp.

Hans Augustsson talade under lördagen om församlingens vision och hur den uttrycker sig lokalt. Där församlingen finns förändras maktbalansen i andevärlden. Visionen och uppdraget från himlen krockar med människors vilja och människors tankar. Församlingen är den levande Gudens församling och därför är det mycket viktigt att bygga utifrån den himla mönsterbilden.

Pastor Gunnar Bergling från församlingen Arken talade om verkningarna av Guds kraft och hur viktigt det är för Guds församling att inte vara okunnig om den andliga verkligheten. Att bygga på Guds Ord och inget annat är en förutsättning för att klara påfrestningar och frestelser.

Linda Bergling lyfte fram de profetiska Orden om den yttersta tiden och inspirerade ledare att förbereda sin församling för det som skulle komma. Att inte fokusera på det negativa utan vara trofasta och uthålliga i det uppdrag som vi fått från Gud: att predika evangelium, om Jesus. Mörker kommer över folk och länder men över Guds församling skall ett klart ljus gå upp. Guds församling behöver vara trogna Jesus i den svåra tid som kommer och bygga församlingarna starka i Ordet, Anden och i relationen med Jesus så att människor kan hitta hem till Gud.

Många ledare gick fram på förbön och många sade att de uppskattade den avspända och varma andliga gemenskapen. Lördagskvällen avslutades med att alla fick gå igenom en böne- och krafttunnel.

= Saturday night ended with everyone going through a prayer- and power tunnel.

Going through a “prayer- and power tunnel” is NOT Biblical!!!

But very much "Faith Movement-ish"... DON'T HAVE ANYTHING TO DO WITH THIS!!!

If you noted above that "Frälsningsarméns" (= the "Salvation Army's") Roger Larsson, who calls himself an evangelist, is in the "Leadership group" for NNVK (page 60)... then you understand that he is deeply involved in the Faith Movement... and he has been for a long time – here are links that confirms this:

NOW CONTINUE SCANNED PAGES FROM THE BOOK "The Harbinger Fact or Fiction": = LAST PAGE!

The Harbinger purports to demonstrate that an array of historical facts, when taken together, unmistakably point to the hand of God. Yet, because of the misleading way in which Cahn handles so many of those facts, it falls far short of achieving that goal. He raises speculation to the level of fact and connects dots that just aren't there. He very selectively picks and chooses what information he uses, while ignoring that which would otherwise undermine his argument. We can never let these kinds of things slip by us.

Most troubling of all is that so little is said about Christ and His work. And what is said is unacceptably vague or incomplete. How could a post-resurrection prophet of God fail to mention the resurrection—apart from which there is no gospel at all?

Significantly, one of the most succinct and clear presentations of the gospel in the entire New Testament is found in 1 Corinthians chapter 15—the very chapter in which Paul takes the Corinthians to task because some in the church were even denying the resurrection. Cahn certainly does not deny the resurrection, yet inexplicably he has left it out of his book.

As it is, between this problem and that of being very vague about the Cross, he utterly fails to present the gospel clearly enough for someone to know how to be saved. He never mentions that salvation is a free gift of God, which is received by faith. How could so many have missed this glaring omission—or let it slide, if they did notice?

The Harbinger repeatedly issues a call to repentance in the face of impending judgment—which is all well and good. Yet, even if we believe the office of prophet still exists today, how could The Prophet, in this context, fail to mention the coming judgments and the return of Christ foretold in the book of Revelation?

Like a beautiful piece of furniture that appears to be handcrafted from the finest oak but really has only the very thinnest of oak veneers, The Harbinger has only a veneer that gives it the appearance of being biblical. How could so many believers be deceived by this? Is it because the church has largely abdicated its responsibility to examine and test a matter in light of Scripture?

The Harbinger has mesmerized a disproportionately large number within our ranks. Has Cahn, wittingly or unwittingly, created an illusion so elaborate and stunning—an illusion so effective—that many have actually become deluded by what they think they see? What The Harbinger presents as facts and truth is not reality. There needs to be a "reveal." The curtain needs to be pulled back. The book needs to be examined from another angle—the biblical angle. Its claims need to be tested, especially the foundational claim that someone has discovered an ancient mystery in Isaiah 9:10, a mystery so well hidden that it has eluded everyone—until now. We all share this responsibility.

Much of the church today seems to be well on its way to embracing the same apostasy that plagued Corinth and so many other churches by the end of the first century. In the early chapters of the book of Revelation, the risen Savior, in all His exalted glory, chastised five of the seven churches in Asia Minor. He chastised the churches—the fellowships of believers—that had failed to remain faithful to Him and to His word.

Arrayed in the blazing white light of His righteousness, Christ declared such things as "I have this against you. . . . Repent, or else I will come to you quickly. . . . All the churches shall know that I am He who searches the minds and hearts. . . . If you will not watch, I will come upon you as a thief. . . . Because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of my mouth."

Warning the church at Ephesus, He cautioned:

Revelation 2:5—

Remember therefore from where you have fallen; repent and do the first works, or else I will come to you quickly and remove your lampstand from its place—unless you repent.

Thirty years earlier, the Apostle Peter had put it this way:

1 Peter 4:17—

For the time has come for judgment to begin at the house of God; and if it begins with us first, what will be the end of those who do not obey the gospel of God?

The Harbinger is neither the first, nor will it be the last, to put believers to the test. When all the hype has faded, and the book has quietly slipped off the best-seller lists, inevitably there will be another test to take The Harbinger's place. There will be yet another challenge to examine the

Charisma News | Breaking News. Spiritual Perspective.

Stephen Strang: Let Investigation Find the Truth on Mike Bickle

7:00AM EDT 11/3/2023 STEPHEN STRANG

Some leaders at the International House of Prayer in Kansas City have called for an independent, third-party investigation into charges of "clergy sexual abuse" brought last week against Mike Bickle who founded the ministry.

I wholeheartedly agree with the need for an independent investigation because the truth must come out, and often it's hard to find the truth when those investigating have a vested interest in the outcome. Mike Bickle and IHOPKC have stood for holiness and seemed to be a paragon of virtue in a culture (and church) that has seen too much compromise.

The charges seem serious, yet at least two, who were originally thought to be "victims," say it isn't true. While I am not doing an investigation and I'm certainly not judge and jury, I hope what I've found so far will at least show there is "another side" and urge Christians not to rush to judgment. By no means am I seeking to hurt, victimize or minimize those who have come forward. Rather I am seeking to provide some personal context and insight into a very emotional and confusing moment for so many. I shared this in my Strang Report video podcast you can watch here.

I have known Mike Bickle and his wife Diane since the 1980s and we have become friends. I am also his publisher. The first thing I thought was "oh no, not again, and not Mike, too."

Emotionally I've been numb, not wanting to believe this is true of such a respected friend. I immediately reached out to Mike via email but I'm not surprised he hasn't responded because he has a policy of not defending himself. He's been criticized many times, the most recent in a documentary called "Cessationist." But while others in the movie defended their beliefs publicly, Mike refused to do so.

I know Mike as a humble man who lives a modest lifestyle and didn't take royalties on his teaching or make money like some Christian leaders do who have big followings. There's not necessarily anything wrong with that, but Mike said early in his career he should avoid even the appearance of evil regarding money.

While at IHOPKC I got to meet several of the key leaders whom Mike mentored. They seem to be solid men of God who learned well. Now they are the ones who are trying to navigate what would be a nightmare for any ministry but especially for one that put such an emphasis on holy living and extreme devotion in terms of study of the word and prayer for hours a day. Since it started in 1999 IHOPKC has had 24-hour-a-day prayer and worship even during snow storms and power outages. They called it harp and bowl and modeled it after the tabernacle of David.

As his friend, I never saw anything that would have hinted Mike had a double life regarding what he's been charged with. Having said this, I believe when credible charges are brought they must be taken seriously to protect those victimized. It's like with the police. If charges are brought to them about a crime, they must consider it to be true. If there is enough evidence, then an indictment is issued and the case is tried in the courts. Those accused are innocent until proven guilty.

While this is not in the courts it is playing out in the court of public opinion. Even some Christian media seem to be piling on. People are talking about it. One of my friends calls this "failure porn"—an expression I'd never heard before. But basically when a failure happens, all sorts of righteous people who would never look at porn delight in the salacious details that come out of the scandal.

We mustn't let that happen. But we mustn't be glib because sadly the charges might be true. There's a saying "where there is smoke there's usually fire." But there are cases of false accusations even in the Bible. The best known is Potiphar's wife falsely accusing Joseph.

When they were nominated to the U.S. Supreme court, both Clarence Thomas and Brent Kavanaugh were charged with sexual misconduct by opponents trying to derail their nominations. Apparently the charges were entirely fabricated and both conservatives jurists were approved by the Senate.

In the church, we must hold up a high standard of morality because the Bible commands us to, and the world is watching. And Dr. Michael Brown discussed how clergy wrong-doing must be handled if the charges are true. (He made clear that he hoped the charges against Mike aren't true.) Now, information is coming out that this may not be a black and white issue. Only time will tell, but several close to the ministry who I know personally say they are standing with Mike until they see absolute proof the charges are true. Some have told me off the record that some former leaders have been gunning for Mike to remove him from leadership.

In my long career I've seen charges of clergy immorality both in the Pentecostal movement as well as in evangelicals circles, the Roman Catholic church and even among Southern Baptists. Usually the leader leads a double life and is finally caught and within a day or two admits it is true.

I've known Mike well for many years and I've never seen anything to suggest he has any sort of double life, and so I am choosing to stand with him, recognizing that we still don't know what is the truth and we must be careful to defend those who may have been victimized in some way.

Why do I say this? According to reports there are 8 "victims," yet two have come out saying the charges (involving them) are entirely false. One is Misty Edwards, probably the best known worship leader to come out of this ministry. In a post on Facebook (you can read here), she said she was very sorrowful about the charges and she wasn't commenting on any of the women, but she wanted "to make it clear, I am not one of them. I have worked with Mike for 25 years and in my personal experience he has only been godly. I have been sent several social media posts speculating differently and I want to boldly say, those are lies and entirely based on suspicion. I have never been sexually or spiritual abused by Mike Bickle."

Another Facebook post by April Rose (who I do not know personally) was even stronger. She said she was solicited by some former leaders based on something said about her secondhand "years ago" that she was one of Mike's victims. "This has NOT been my experience with Mike. I've only known him to be a God-fearing man who genuinely loves Jesus (with all of his heart) and is living for eternity. I have not witnessed any duplicity. In the years that I have known him, he has always been consistent with how all of us know him..." (You can read her two-page statement in its entirety here).

She went on to say she was outraged to learn that her name was added to the list of victims anyway and she says it in very strong terms. That makes me know something strange is going on. Time will tell what, if anything, Mike did improperly. But I'm urging the Christian community to not jump to judgment. There seem to be two sides. We need a thorough investigation.

What spiritual lessons can we learn?

My friend Malachi O'Brien has been part of IHOPKC and a close friend of Mike Bickle's for several years. Here is what he posted on X Sunday afternoon:

- What has come out (recently) does not discredit the prayer 24/7 movement, the labor of IHOPKC and its thousands of faithful missionaries and the tens of millions of people who have been impacted by Mike Bickle, the worship from IHOPKC, the miracles, the prophetic promises, and the innumerable hours of prayer.

- We know that Jesus is faithful when people are not. Remember, God blesses His Word and work because of what He desires to do on the earth. His blessing has more to do with His character than the character of leaders.
- There is a tension between innocent until proven guilty and the need to validate and care for victims of any and all kinds of abuse. Mike has denied the allegations and I choose to believe he deserves the benefit of the doubt and I fully believe credible accusations must be taken seriously and victims deserve to be taken seriously without repercussions and character assassination.
- We need to view all situations through a higher perspective. What does Father God think, feel, and see in this situation? What God wants is repentance, healing, and restoration.
- Truth is our ally and we must pursue it with patience and no bias—not the version we want but the version of truth and wisdom that identifies reality. Good or bad, we seek the truth and the appropriate response to it.
- Finally, let's reflect on our lives and draw closer to Jesus.

Wise words we all must take to heart. 🔥
