EGEN SOGNS

LOKALHISTORISKE ARKIV

Egen Sogns Lokalhistoriske Arkiv We need your help to preserve history

The past has made us who we are. Being interested in the past might help us understand the present and ourselves.

We ask about the past – and try to find answers.

If you are going to straighten up your own hiding places or an estate of a deceased person, you should think of your local historical archive.

Don't throw away old effects, they might have historical value for the future.

Are you interested?

Visit your local historical archive if you have old things which might have a historic value.

We will save your information about the past so that it can be useful and of benefit to the future.

You can bestow the material on us, deposit it, or let the archive copy it.

Which materials are we interested in?

We are interested in all kinds of materials, i.e. documents, maps, diaries, photos and so on, both from private persons, clubs and firms.

What happens with your material?

The material will be recorded, packed in special archive boxes and stored in the best possible way, so that it can also be found in a hundred years.

Furthermore, the material will be recorded electronically to make it available online on the homepage arkiv.dk.

It is hard to know what might have our interest in a hundred years, but you'd better ask us once too much than once too little.

Is your material safe?

It is safer than you think.

You decide whether the material you give us is to be made public. If you think that your material is too private for everybody to see, it can be held in trust for a shorter or a longer period. Thus it will not be available online on arkiv.dk either.

Furthermore, the archives are covered by certain laws and regulations about storage and accessibility.
