

EUFORICA - Practice for Self-Love, Intimacy & Passion

connection between heart, pelvis and higher self

* RELAXATION MESSAGE

The 'Awakening' of Tantra. Every journey starts with a first step, the initiation, a beautiful experience in a hospitable and sacred space. This is a wonderful massage where you learn to 'receive' and make contact with your wisdom, life energy, intimacy and sexuality.

* TANTRAMASSAGE

The Journey of the Shakti & Shiva energy. In this journey you will learn to love yourself, remove blocks to intimacy, accept and break through taboos, shame and guilt around sexuality so that you can make the connection between your pelvis, your heart and your higher self for more intimacy and pleasure! You are lovingly and sensually touched, and massaged from head to toe. You don't have to do anything, just receive.

* TANTRA FOR COUPLES

You will be inspired and motivated to free yourself and surrender to your beautiful 'Shiva & Shakti' energy, the connection between heart, pelvis and higher self for more intimacy and pleasure! You will experience what it is like to give and receive a massage.

* CUDDLE SESSION

Is it your desire to cuddle every now and then and thereby experience a piece of intimacy and relaxation? You can come here for quiet, nurturing, intimately merging and wonderfully flowing cuddle sessions.

* INTIMITY COACHING In a safe environment I help you to make the connection with yourself, to be able to love, to remove blocks for intimacy, to accept and break through taboos, shame and guilt around sex so that you can fully enjoy intimacy and touch.
