

Bild: Inge Bisgaard

Foto: Joar Nango

Working with and within Indigenous Cultures in the North

Indigenous cultures have for long been mariginalized in the Nordic cultures. How has that affected these cultures, their protection as well as knowledge and awareness? Three speakers will present their work with and within both Greenland's built heritage and Sami culture giving different perspectives of documentation, protection and definition as well as artistic and architectural expression.

Thursday 9 November 2023

Programme

- 16.30 Registration with coffe and cake
- 17.00 Welcome Tina Wik, chairman Europa Nostra Sweden
- 17.05 Inge Bisgaard The Greenland Building Culture 2023
- 17.45 Arnstein Brekke Documentation and conservation of Sami buildings in Norway
- 18.15 PAUSE
- 18.30 Joar Nango
Sami Huksendáidda - Building sámí space through temporary and improvised design
- 19.10 Questions and discussion
- 19.40 Mingle and snacks
- 20.00 Closing

Place: Östasiatiska museet / Far Eastern Antiquities. Tyghusplan 4, Skeppsholmen, Stockholm

Registration: 6 November, last day, to kersti.berggren@me.com

Fee: 150 SEK, SWISH 070-75 35 190 (Cecilia Sagrén, treasurer EN-S)

Presentations

Inge Brisgaard

Architect and Curator at Greenland National Museum & Archives Listed Buildings, with the task to support the development and building of knowledge and spread awareness of methods and tools for handling the built cultural heritage throughout the country. Prince Henrik Europa Nostra Award 2022.

Foto: Erik Jokumsen

Arnstein Brekke

Conservation officer, carpenter and structural engineer. Researcher on vernacular buildings in North Norway.

Foto: Avis Nordland

Joar Nango

Sami architect and artist investigating space and its relation to colonial heritage and indigenous identities through various formats. At the International Architecture Exhibition, Venice, 2023 - Girjegumpi: The Sámi Architecture Library in the Nordic Countries Pavillon.

Foto: Knut Aaserud

Europa Nostra aims to preserve the common heritage of Europe as an umbrella organization for organizations, associations as well as individuals working within the field of cultural heritage. Europa Nostra-Sweden is the Swedish association that organizes interesting seminars and discussions for its members on relevant topics, announces the Europa Nostra Awards and raises and supports current cultural heritage issues.

More info:

www.europanostra.se