Our Recruitment Process

1. Identifying Workforce Needs:

This entails examining existing and future demand for healthcare workers in different specialisations and locations. With strategic workforce planning, we help healthcare organisations predict future demands and plan recruitment.

2. Attracting Qualified Candidates:

We create enticing job descriptions, competitive remuneration packages, and a good workplace. We use proactive recruitment tactics, including job fairs, educational partnerships, and internet platforms, to increase the prospect pool.

3. Screening and Selection:

After establishing a pool of candidates, comprehensive screening and selection processes are used to find the best. Resumes, interviews, and reference checks are involved. We examine candidates' skills, competencies, and personalities.

4. Credentialing and Background Checks:

We verify education, licences, certificates, and job experience legitimacy. We also do criminal background, professional misbehaviour, and drug screens to ensure prospective workers' safety and reliability.

5. Onboarding and Training:

Candidates learn about your company's culture, rules, and processes during our orientation seminars. Employee training ensures they have the knowledge and skills to execute their jobs well.

6. Retention and Employee Engagement:

We aim to boost employee engagement and decrease turnover rates. This is done by welcoming feedback, recognition, and work-life balance.
