

CONFERENCE ON NATURAL VARIABILITY AND TOLERANCE<sup>1</sup>

Proceedings

Oslo, 18-19 October 2019, Oslo Kongressenter

Jan-Erik Solheim (Editor)

Yngvar Engebretsen (Photographer and Film Editor)

Stein Storlie Bergsmark (Referee)

After the two conferences on the sea between Norway and Denmark/Germany and two in Sweden, we were ready for a Norwegian Conference in the City of Oslo. This was held in Oslo Congress Center, October 18-19, 2019, and had 162 participants from 12 countries.

The conference was organized by Morten Jødal (chair), Ingemar Nordin (SE), and Karl Iver Dahl-Madsen (DK) representing Climate Realists of Norway, Sweden, and Denmark. The conference program was presented in five thematic parts: Climate in past and present, The Barents Sea, Limits of Tolerance, Sustainable Food Production and Research and the Environment.

Figure 1. The Oslo-conference with the organizer Morten Jødal addressing the audience
(Photo: Yngvar Engebretsen)

<sup>1</sup> Submitted Dec. 20, 2021. Accepted Dec. 30, 2021. DOI <https://doi.org/10.53234/scc202112/214>

CONFERENCE ON NATURAL VARIABILITY AND TOLERANCE

PROGRAM

Friday 18th

- 11-00-12.00      Registration
With coffee
- 12.00-12.15      Welcome
Morten Jødal, on behalf of the three organizers
- 12.15-12.35      European Declaration: There Is No Climate Emergency
Professor Guus Berkhout
- 12.35-13.20      Press conference, food, and coffee
- Part 1              CLIMATE IN PAST AND PRESENT
Chair: Professor Ole Henrik Ellestad
- 13.20-14.05      The Gulf Stream Beat
Professor Nils Axel Mørner
- 14.05-14.50      Snow, Ice and Temperature Trends in the Arctic
Independent Researcher Ronan Connolly
- 14.50-15.05      Questions and comments
- 15.05-15.35      Pause, with coffee, cakes, and fruits
- 15.35-16.20      Useful lessons from Earth's Past Climate
Professor Ole Humlum
- 16.20-17.05      Temperatures at the Coast, and Inlands
M.Sc. Ing Frank Lansner
- 17.05-17.20      Questions and comments

After the questions and comments - and before dinner, it will be possible to stay at the Conference centre, for discussions and drinks.

19.00              DINNER

Saturday 19th

- PART 2              THE BARENTS SEA
Chair: Professor Elen Roaldset
- 09.00-09.45      The Ice Edge during the Last Centuries
Professor Jan-Erik Solheim
- 09.45-10.30      Lunar-driven Climate Control of the Barents Sea Ecosystem
Professor Harald Yndestad
- 10.30-10.45      Questions and comments
- 10.45-11.15      Coffee break, cakes and fruit
- PART 3              LIMITS OF TOLERANCE
Chair: Karl Iver Dahl-Madsen
- 11.15-12.00      Is the Great Barrier Reef Threatened?
Professor Peter Ridd
- 12.00-12.45      Is Life on Earth Really Dying?
Cand. real. Morten Jødal

12.45-13.00	Questions and comments
13.00-14.00	Lunch
14.00-14.45	The Polar Bear Catastrophe That Never Happened Professor Susan Crockford
Part 4	SUSTAINABLE FOOD PRODUCTION Chair: Professor Ingemar Nordin
14.45-15.30	Mariculture: A Resource Efficient Food Production Indep. Consultant on Food & Environment Karl Iver Dahl-Madsen
15.30-16.00	Coffee break, cakes, and fruit
Part 5	RESEARCH AND THE ENVIRONMENT Chair: Cand. real Morten Jødal
16.00-16.45	The Replication Crisis Professor Peter Ridd
16.45-17.15	Summary, questions, and comments Chaired by Professor Nils Axel Mørner