APPAREL

A group of four people, two men and two women, are walking across a lush green golf course at sunset. They are all dressed in modern golf attire. The man on the far left wears a grey polo and white shorts, carrying a golf bag. The woman next to him wears a white polo with patterned sleeves and a dark skirt. The man next to her wears a white polo with a geometric pattern and dark shorts, also carrying a golf bag. The woman on the far right wears a white long-sleeved top and a colorful floral skirt. They are all smiling and looking towards the right. The background shows a line of trees and a clear sky with the sun low on the horizon, casting long shadows on the grass. The text "WE FIT THE GAME" is overlaid in the center in a large, white, sans-serif font.

INTRODUCTION

Our global fashion collection offers premium elevated fabrics in high-gauge poly/elastane blends with cooling ventilated structures. Our fabric is superior because it doesn't wrinkle, is breathable, cool to the touch, doesn't shrink or fade, is sustainable, and is constructed with fabric so dense the fabric isn't sheer. Every time the garment is worn is like its first time out of the box.

All our polos include a collar stand with specially-curated interlinings for a more tailored semi-spread collar, as well as our trademark engineered seams ("Swing tech"), which brings improvement for every movement.

Our fashion shorts feature fun but tasteful conversational prints, all engineered with unique stretch, swing tech seams, and ventilated structures.

At Callaway Apparel we're focused on creating all-day performance essentials with sustainable designs of superior-quality and versatile pieces that allow you to do more with less. This season, we're proud to offer our most extensive range of essential printed polos.

#IWEARCALLAWAY

MEN'S COLLECTION

The tone of the season for the Spring 24 Callaway Men's collection is fresh yet classic, with looks that are bound to be favorites for spring/summer wardrobes.

Conversational prints this season are inspired by iconic golf destinations like Pebble Beach and the Seminole Golf Club. We used the terrain as well as the native flora and fauna for each region for print motifs. Calmer statement prints in playful shapes, textures, and patterns keep the collection fun yet sophisticated and elevated.

Feeding into the consumer demand for easily wearable prints that will stand the test of time, we curated a brand new assortment of Chev logo trademark prints -- including an update to our bestseller gingham print with a twist.

The aesthetic for the Callaway Men's Collection is modern with a classic spin via print and pattern. We don't follow the trends but acknowledge them and present our version with our DNA which is subtle and refined, ingrained in performance. The Callaway Collection is trans-seasonal and classic, where essential pieces become staples due to their timeless aesthetic and can be worn for longevity throughout several seasons.

LADIES COLLECTION

For Spring 24, the Callaway's ladies collection is feminine and sporty with all-day active essentials that have a lot of crossover appeal. The collection can be merchandized in a traditional golf aesthetic or more crossover for a younger minded consumer.

The print story this season is influenced by combining natural and artificial motifs to create bold and surprising effects on print and pattern. Butterflies, flowers, birds, and textures are hyped up via colour-changing surfaces or digitized effects.

Geometrics this season are updated with playful, overlapping shape-effects, while florals have a refreshing appeal of abstract form or the use of our chev logo details.

We continue to expand our dress offering by updating classic styles with the addition of unexpected Chev trademark seams and details, as well as new printed options.

We're excited to announce a new fabric update in our sun-protection category: An amazing nylon/elastane texture with cooling properties, which is ultrasoft to the touch.

We have new, updated bottoms added to the range. Like our new 4 way stretch pant and the new asymmetrical colour block skort. We're also introducing a new, super lightweight, 4-way stretch pull-on pant.
