

CREATING MEANINGFUL MOMENTS WITH THE MULTI-SENSORY ENVIRONMENT

Cultivating Relationships, Learning, and Inclusion in the Global Community

May 9, 2023
4:00 pm - 7:00 pm (CT)

Valparaiso University,
Harre Union Ballroom

*The International Snoezelen Association (ISNA) will travel to Valparaiso University on May 9, 2023 for an introduction on the benefits of the Multi-Sensory Environment (MSE). This informational session will serve as a pre-conference for the multi-day ISNA International Conference on MSE, taking place at Valparaiso University in Fall 2023.

You will learn how to provide outstanding support for individuals with various disabilities/exceptionalities by exploring the history, psychology, physiology, and benefits of Multi-Sensory Environments.

What is a Multi-Sensory Environment (MSE)?

A relaxed, multi-sensory, experiential process, primarily benefitting people with autism or other developmental disabilities: dementia, intellectual disabilities, hyperactive, hearing impaired, visually impaired, children with perception/sensory disorder and/or disturbed social behavior, and psychiatric patients.

To learn more about MSE, please visit www.isna-mse.org, or scan the QR code for the MSE Informational Brochure.

*The International Snoezelen Association (ISNA) connects people all over the world who are working with Multi-Sensory Environments. Visit www.isna-mse.org to learn more.

Who will benefit from information presented at this conference?

This is an opportunity to engage with experts from ISNA and learn how creating meaningful moments in MSE can have a powerful impact on relationships, learning, and inclusion. This conference is designed to spark your interest and give background information for the upcoming ISNA International Conference on MSE in Fall 2023.

While this list is not exhaustive, MSE is greatly applicable to the following stakeholders:

- District and School Administrators
- Educators
- Physical Therapists
- Occupational Therapists
- Mental Health Counselors
- Psychologists
- Senior Caretakers
- Parents

Registration Information

We are dedicated to making this informational session accessible to all interested stakeholders. There is no fee to attend. Light refreshments will be provided.
