Desiccated coconut is a flake of coconut meat that is dried to remove as much water as possible.

Coconuts are graded by its cutting size ( fine grade and medium grade ) Desiccated Coconut is ideal for use as fillers, toppings and as ingredients, especially in the baking of biscuits, snack bars, cakes, cookies and so on.

We have 2 variants of desiccated coconut, they are:

- High Fat Desiccated Coconut
supply in fine grade & medium grade
- Low Fat Desiccated Coconut
supply only in fine grade

RBD COCONUT OIL

BAS FOOD
Support SME Companies With Best Quality Product

RBD coconut oil is one of the most common types of coconut oil with various applications from cooking, beauty uses, and more

RBD is an acronym describing how the oil is processed, and whether it is refined or unrefined. It stands for Refined, Bleached, and Deodorized oil.

We are ready to supply organic RBD coconut oil as well as conventional RBD coconut oil (without organic certification and lower price). Our delivery of RBD coconut oil uses drum packaging, IBC paper or flexy tank container.
