Work Procedures

Project Planning

Registration and documentation of new production plan, schedules, and required resources.

Project Planning involves forecasting, scheduling, and expediting. To produce a sensible schedule, a sales forecast by items is necessary.

A production run is initially a list of furniture items to be produced; this list is exploded to come up with the quantities and due dates for all parts.

Work Procedures

Production

The processes in furniture manufacture include the cutting, bending, molding, laminating, and assembly of such materials as wood, metal, glass, plastics, and rattan.

However, the production process for furniture is not solely bending metal, cutting and shaping wood, or extruding and molding plastics.

Quality Control

The quality of the furniture must be maintained at the desired level.

To make furniture as well as we know-how is not a good policy. The design, the price range, the customers require a specific level of quality.

In our manufacture, we have quality control department that responsible for seeing to it that this level is maintained.

The production departments report directly to the quality control department.

Delivery

- Furniture ships best with furniture; other commodities tend to damage it.
- Forklifts and other equipment damage furniture, so it needs manual handling.
- Furniture loads are built strategically, creating interlocking sections to enhance stability and accommodate multiple stops.
- As a natural product, wood furniture has inherent flaws. Extended supply chains boost the risk of damage, so furniture must be touched up before it is delivered to the consumer—a process called deluxing.

To meet these needs, our furniture manufacture relies on specialized furniture carriers.
