THE HISTORY

Detailing procedures

Bending and Curving

Mulya Rattan was erected officially in 2009. This could be a perfect illustration of what we do and how useful our activities to our community and craftsmen.

Inheriting one of the most popular tradition of making furniture in Cirebon, Mulya Rattan contributes to its preservation for the next centuries. Our tradition is embodied into one of the most beloved furniture and craft styles in the world, that is rattan furniture and handicrafts.
