ACEH ARABICA COFFEE

It has fine aroma and pretty low bitter taste. Aceh Gayo coffee beans grow in the distinctive type of soil in the highlands, thus it almost impossible to find it in any other places outside its origin. It also famous for its classic balance of earthiness, bold and syrupy flavor.

LAMPUNG ROBUSTA COFFEE

It has a rich and strong aroma, and the coffee is incredibly full bodied, almost syrupy. It lingers on the tongue with a long, clean aftertaste. When roasted at medium level its colour is homogeneous, with the fragrance and aroma of coffee powder and shades of chocolate and spices (chocolaty and spicy).
