ABOUT US

Golden Rattan Indonesia is a project of PT Semangat Jiwa Muda, an Indonesia-based company who wants to unleash the high potential of Indonesia's local products through collaborating with the locals.

"Finest Rattan Products From Our Beloved Indonesia"

WHY US?

Indonesia is the world's largest producer of natural rattan with 70% of market share

Golden Rattan Indonesia collaborates with the Balinese craftsmen and craftswomen who have years of experience and proven track record. On top of that, our products have been filtered through various quality controls to make sure that you received the best product. With finest quality, great services, and customizable goods you will definitely get your dream products! Our clients come from various backgrounds, starting from homeowners, shop owners, interior designers and hospitality corporations both locally and internationally.
