

Support Task 1: Subordinate Clauses

Subordinating Summer Sentences

Use your super sentence-writing skills to create sentences using different subordinating conjunctions. Read the clauses in the puzzle pieces and add an appropriate subordinating conjunction to link the two clauses together.

We were late for the plane		Johan forgot the passports.
Laura hasn't been abroad		she was a little girl.
They still had a good time		it rained all week.
Kim would have been sunburned		Lee hadn't woken her up.
Mum got us some drinks		Dad guarded the sun beds.

This time, read the subordinating conjunction and the subordinate clause and add a main clause at the beginning of each sentence. The first one is done for you as an example.

We were all so excited	when	the sun came out.
	because	the plane took off too late.
	since	the refreshments were free of charge.
	if	I was given a chance to.
	although	the lifeguard said we couldn't.

Support Task 2: Fronted Adverbials

Adverbial Adventures

Look at the pictures on the front of these postcards and write a sentence about what is happening using a fronted adverbial. If you need to, use the bank of fronted adverbials below to help you.

beside the sea

bravely happily
having a great time

almost unbelievably
very sensibly

Main Task: write a postcard from an imaginary holiday destination remember to use subordinate clauses and fronted adverbials.

The form is a rectangular box representing a postcard. In the top-left corner, there is a postage stamp with a blue background and a white mountain range. To the right of the stamp, there are seven vertical lines for writing. A horizontal line separates the top and bottom sections. Below this line, there are another seven vertical lines for writing.
