Cubism

Along with an artist called Georges Braque, Picasso started a new style of art called Cubism.

Cubism is a style of art which aims to show objects and people from lots of different angles all at one time. This is done through the use of cubes and other shapes. Here is an example of Picasso's cubist paintings.

Picasso's Different Styles

Throughout his life, Picasso's art took on different styles.

One of the most well known of these phases was known as his 'blue period'. This period lasted from around 1901 to 1904. At this time, Picasso was depressed. He found it difficult to mix with his friends and spent a lot of time alone. His paintings during this period were very serious and mostly done in dark blues and greens.

Other Picasso periods included his rose period, analytic cubism and synthetic cubism
