LIMO GROUP – BUSINESS TRANSPORT
Personnel transport solutions of the highest quality for any occasion

• Flexible vehicle fleet •

Regardless of whether it is a business contact, a group or a VIP we have a car, mini bus or bus for the assignment, and through our extensive network we can access specialist vehicles and private air transport.

• The best Chauffeurs •

We only employ the best trained and experienced chauffeurs who have a professional pride in delivering the best service you could wish for. It's the quality of our chauffeurs that makes the difference.

• Expanding our services and your security •

Your safety is our first and foremost priority. That is why we are one of the few companies where all our drivers are trained and certified by the Danish police force, but we have also gone one step further and are proud to say we are also certified by the Danish PET (Denmark's equivalent to the British Mi5). Extra security staff is also a service we can provide, as well as hotel and restaurant bookings.

• Planning and coordinating service •

We offer a total service, just let us know who, where and how many and we will take full responsibility for planning and coordination of your event. With just one phone call or email you can relax and let LIMO GROUP organize everything.

• The best price •

We look upon each assignment as a total package and factor in every detail of your wishes thus being able to offer a complete solution at a very competitive price with no hidden expenses so with LIMO GROUP you always have a complete price upfront.

• 20 years' experience •

We are proud to say that for the last 20 years we have been responsible for planning and executing all types of transportation solutions for sports stars, presidents, ministers, ambassadors, directors, tourists and everyone in between. We have fulfilled the needs of almost all types of organizations, businesses, the public sector, embassies, travel agencies, hotels, travel agencies, hotels and events
