

“The media’s role is tremendously bad and therefore its acting in the society should be examined under the loop”

Media serve us with news, both local and from abroad, they entertain and keep us updated on what important decisions are to be made worldwide; decisions that ought to be related to our conditions of living — but obviously they are not.

The media’s role is tremendously bad and therefore its acting in the society should be examined under the loop, not only once but twice. However, more often the Swedish mass media see themselves as mighty gods or supermen, and thusly do not take any criticisms at all. To be fart-genteel is not the right way to go!
