

1 TEAM LEADER AND 10 ENUMERATORS
Urgently required

For NURI Adoption study - Koboko District)
The Team leader and Enumerators shall be recruited on Short-Term Basis
Deadline 13 September, 2021

Background

PICOT -Northern Uganda Resilience Initiative (NURI) programme is urgently seeking services of Team Leaders and Enumerators for a short-term engagement for an upcoming Adoption Study to be conducted between 20th/9/2021 and 8/10/2021 in the district of Koboko. (Inclusive of Training, Tool pre-testing and actual data collection).

(a) TEAM LEADER (1 position)

Responsibilities

- Participate in NURI training on the planned Adoption Study.
- Supervise the work of the enumerators including assigning them their task
- Conduct quality control for completed questionnaires (including verification)
- Mobilise the enumerators for the daily data collection activities
- Link the enumerators with the NURI extension team and communities
- Conduct Key Informant Interviews.
- Support with the Focus group discussions
- Report writing

Qualification, knowledge and Skills requirement for the Team Leader

- Minimum of a degree in agriculture or environmental management field, master's degree would be an added advantage
- Demonstrated team leadership and management ability
- Demonstrated experience in data collection and handling similar activity
- Ability to speak, comprehend and translate the tools for data collection in the local language spoken in Koboko district.
- Good computer skills especially of word, excel and PowerPoint
- Good report writing and recording skills

Payment Terms: Team leader will be entitled to a daily professional fee of 200,000 Ugx

(b) Enumerators (10 positions,)

Responsibilities

- Attend NURI training sessions on the Adoption study
- Participate in the pre-test
- Conduct Household Interviews
- Clean data before submission

Key Knowledge and Skills required for Enumerators

- Minimum of a diploma in agriculture, animal production and management, forestry or environmental management
 - Demonstrated experience in data collection from rural communities
 - Knowledge of the local language (a must)
 - Demonstrated good oral and written communication skills.
 - Prior knowledge in agricultural data collection will be an added advantage
- Payment: Enumerators will be entitled to a daily professional fee of 100,000 Ugx

HOW TO APPLY

Interested individuals can submit their applications clearly stating which position they are applying and location. The following should be enclosed in the application:

- One-page cover letter indicating suitability for the assignment
- Personal profile including education, experience, skills and contacts (max 2 pages)
- Letters of reference
- Copies of relevant academic certificates
- Indication of availability for the assignment

Application deadline

Applicants should hand deliver their applications by 13th/9/2021 by 1:00pm to PICOT office in Koboko Town to the attention of Executive Director PICOT.

For full details of the short-term engagement please see our website – www.nuri.ag

Please note: NURI does not require payment of any fees for job opportunities. If you are asked to pay a fee, please immediately report to NURI office or info@nuri.ag