What are my obligations?

- When applying for your policy, you must take reasonable care to answer the questions you are asked honestly and carefully.
- You must tell us about anything which may affect our decision to insure you (for example, claims in the last 5 years).
- Upon knowledge of any occurrence likely to give rise to a claim you shall give written advice as soon as reasonably practicable to the Insurer and/or the Broker named in the Schedule who is to advise the Insurer within seven (7) days of such knowledge of any occurrence and it is a condition precedent to the liability of Insurer that such notification is given by the you.
- If the insured makes a claim under this insurance he must give the Insurer such relevant information and evidence as may reasonably be required and co-operate fully in the investigation or adjustment of any claim. If required by the Insurer, the Insured must submit to examination under oath by any person designated by the Insurer.

When and how do I pay?

You must pay your premium in full to your insurance broker by bank transfer within the credit terms agreed.

When does the cover start and end?

The date the policy comes into force (start date) and the date the policy expires (end date) are stated on the policy. The insurance is renewed automatically unless it is terminated, see below.

How do I cancel the contract?

The policy can be terminated by giving minimum one months' notice according to FAL § 3-6 1.paragraph.
