Parenting and Crisis Support

Home based parenting, behaviour management and crisis support to children and families.

A flexible and tailored approach to each family, assisting parents and children to recognise any specific challenging, harmful or risk behaviours and recognising the impact this can have on the family.

Support workers empower parents to develop their self-confidence and competence in utilising positive behaviour management strategies. Parents learn positive parenting skills in relation to children's learning and development including sleeping, eating and communication. The service is intended to provide solution-focused, time limited interventions (up to 12 weeks).

Young Parents Outreach

Young Parents Outreach works with young mums and dads aged 24 and under and pregnant care leavers. 1:1 support to young parents with regular meetings and sessions within out centre or in the family home. These include:

- Health in pregnancy, Sexual health and contraception
- Child Development
- Housing and Homelessness
- Domestic violence, Co-parenting and healthy relationships
- Employment, training and benefits
- Role modelling and Young Fathers sessions
