Guidelines For Documentation Certification

The following guidelines are applicable to the certification of any documents being submitted to the University.

What is a certified document?

A certified document is a scanned copy of photocopy of an original document, which is certified by an authorised certifier to show this it is an authentic copy of the original document.

How to certify a document

Authorised certifier to show that this is an authentic copy of the original document:

- Write “I certify this to be a true copy of the original document sighted by me”
- Sign and date the document
- Include their full name
- Indicate the capacity to certify documents (e.g. their profession or occupation)
- Provide details that will allow the University to contact them, if necessary

A Justice of the Peace should include their ID number and the State or Territory in which they are registered. For multipage documents, certifiers may sign or initial each page, and number each page in the manner “page 1 of 40”, “page 2 of 40” etc. And certify the last page as above, rather than endorsing each page.
