Depending on your current standard of English at UNSWIL you may study the Academic English Course followed by the University English Entry Course (UEEC) or just the UEEC. One advantage of enrolling in UNSWIL to gain your English proficiency is that it allows you to conditionally accept your offer to study a program at UNSW. Once you conditionally accept your offer you will be able to receive a (single) student visa that covers the duration for both your UNSWIL program and your intended UNSW program. Students who pass the UEEC do not need to re-take an IELTS or similar test, and will be admitted directly to UNSW.

Foundation Studies

Students who make an application to the University of New South Wales who do not meet the academic requirements for entry to the award they have applied for will be assessed as to their suitability for entry to an appropriate UNSW Foundation Studies program which is offered through UNSW Global Pty Limited (CRICOS Provider No. 01020K). One advantage of enrolling in the Foundation program is that once you successfully complete the program students have a guaranteed place via a provisional offer to an undergraduate degree at UNSW in Sydney in the following year.
