DURATION OF AUSBILDUNG

- The Ausbildung program goes on for 2-3.5 years.
- However on the off chance that your grades are acceptable depending on your presentation in the organization and vocational training school, then, at that point this time frame can be diminished.
- In any case, it doesn't have any huge effect, as the time of 3 years can be decreased to 2.5 years, so it barely matters.
- Timesplan normally relies upon different variables like which organization you are working for, which department you are relegated to, from which vocational training school you are examining.

TYPES OF AUSILDUNG

Duale Ausbildung (Duale Educational Program)

Schulische Ausbildung (Educational Training)

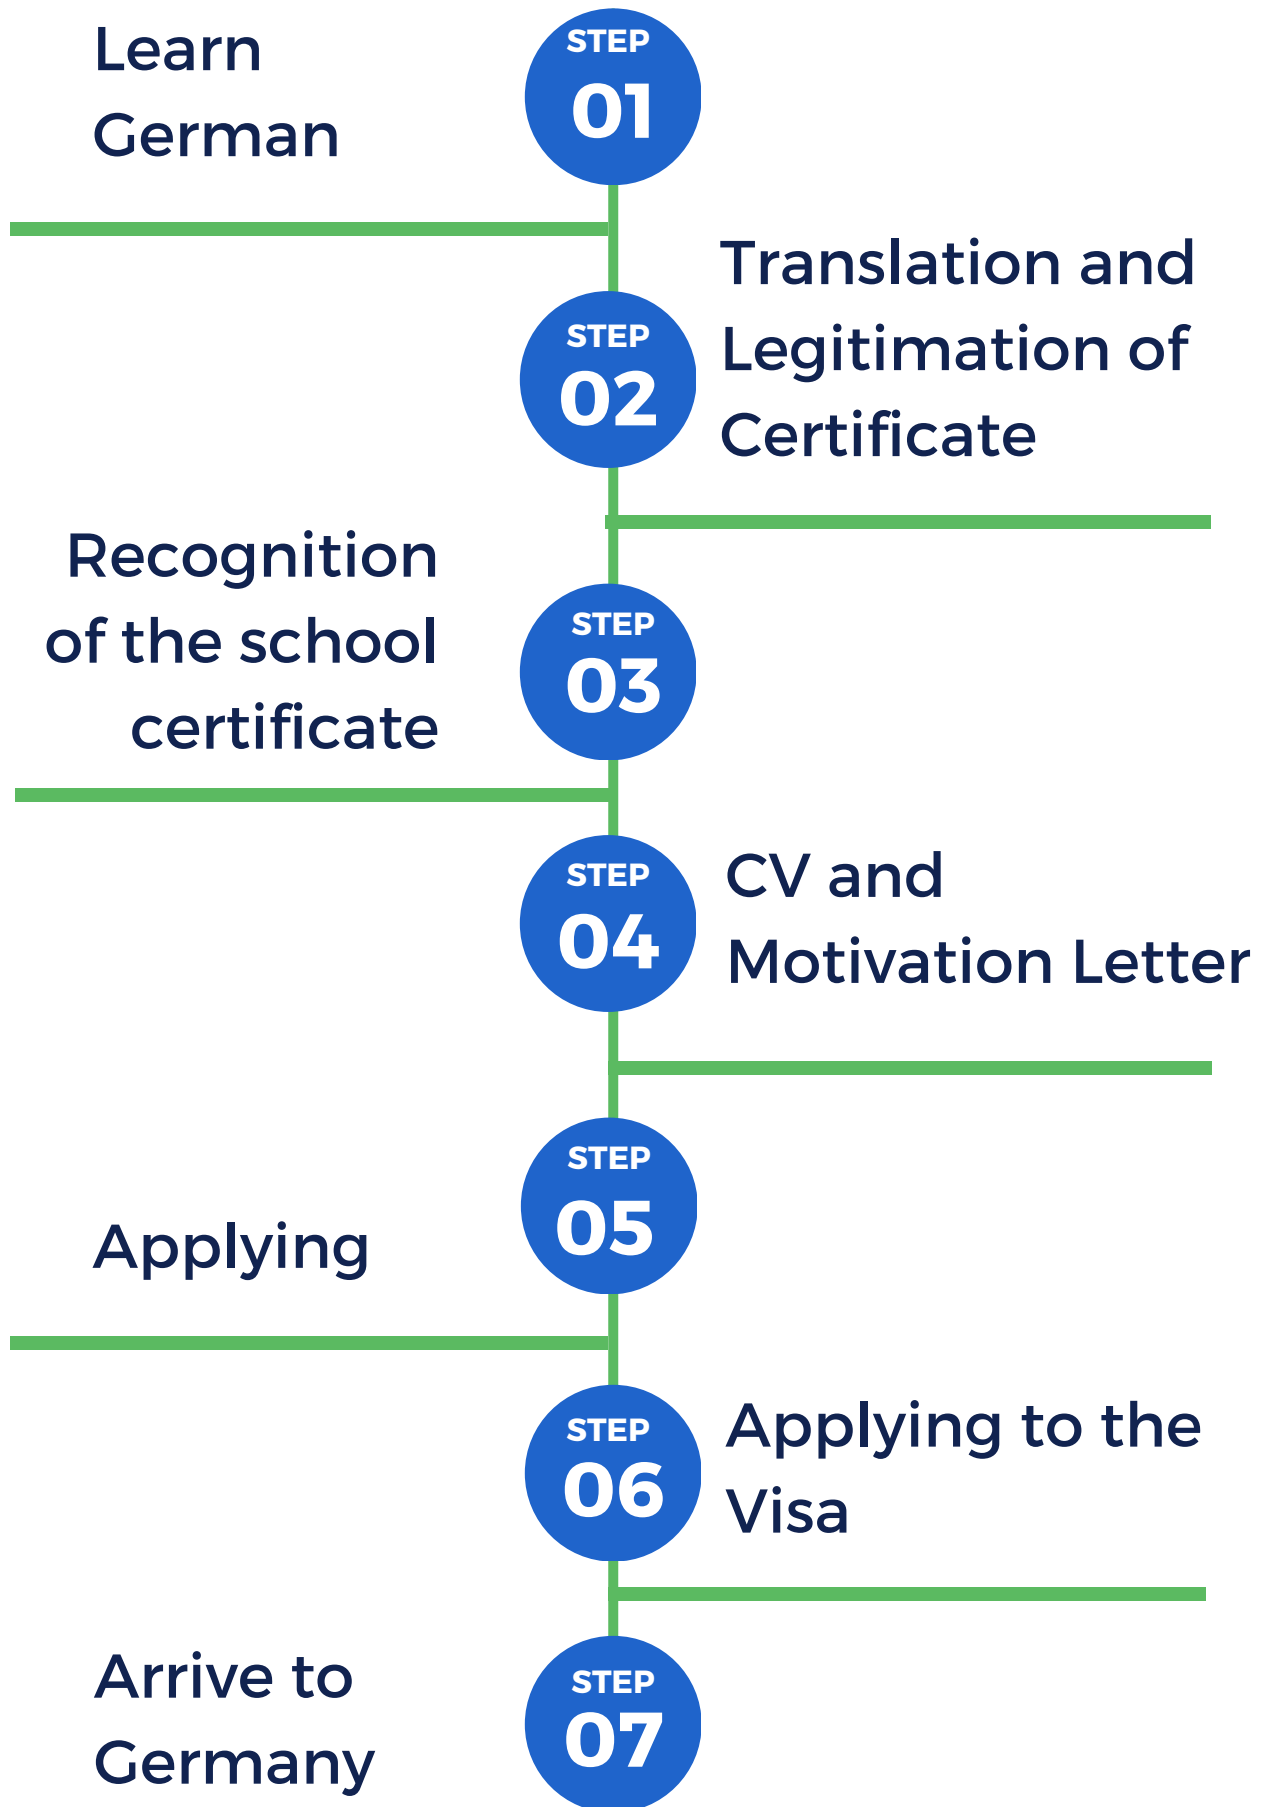

Dual educational Program

- A dual vocational training program endures somewhere in the range of two and three-and-a-half years, according to the work you have settled on.
- As this sort of vocational training program comprises of these two sections, it is classified as "dual" vocational training "betriebliche Ausbildung" in Germany.
- 70% are paid.
- There are two options:
 - 1. Spend 3 months in vocational school and another 3 months working.
 - 2. Working 3 days a week and studying for 2 days at the vocational school.

Schulische Ausbildung (Educational Training)

- Those undertaking a schulische Ausbildung are typically studying something that needs more hypothesis (youth instruction or nursing, for instance) and in this manner invest more energy in classes and courses.
- The down-to-earth segment of a schulische Ausbildung will in general come after the time spent studying hypothesis in the classroom.
- 30 % of the vocational training is educational.
- It's not paid.
- Participants must make at least one training at a company.
