Introduction

This guidebook will contain information about working in Germany for international applicants.

You'll know all about why you should choose Germany as a working destination, requirements to work in Germany, visa requirements, most in-demand jobs, and how to nail them, who can work in Germany, and how WIG can help you!

GERMAN ECONOMY AND EMPLOYMENT

Germany is the fourth-largest economy in the world and is considered the largest European economy.

Due to the booming of the technology sector that propelled the economy to boost further, more jobs were created making the unemployment rate extremely low.

Therefore, it is with no surprise that Germany is one of the world's largest importers of foreign workforce.

THE GERMAN JOB MARKET

FOR INTERNATIONAL APPLICANTS

The German job market contains millions of job vacancies that vary between cities and sectors. This poses a great opportunity for foreign professionals who are seeking a career abroad. Moreover, due to the large economy and its continuous growth and undergoing structural changes, hundreds of thousands of new jobs are created every year. By 2025, it is estimated that more working opportunities will be created since Germany is known for its aging population so many will retire by then.
