Yesterday, Monday, 22 June, the Bahraini public prosecution ordered the blind 'Ali Saad' a week of imprisonment for further investigations.

Ali Saad was arrested last night, along with Mohamed Abdul Kareem, after the MOI forces had attacked a peaceful march in solidarity with Dr. Abduljalil al-Singace's hunger strike.

Arresting the blind young man, Ali Saad, who is considered disabled, is absolutely absurd.

One of Ali's relatives said: "A blind person can't do anything dangerous, especially since he depends on the help of others for all his movement and activities. His arrest is a crime against humanity."
