

CONFIDENTIALITY POLICY

The Association Franco Anglaise does not use any cookies, nor it collect any personal data through its website

- The only personal data that the AFA collects, is that which members provide to us themselves by completing the registration / renewal form: surname, first name, postal address, if possible email address and phone, plus mother tongue since we are an Anglo French Association .
- These details are used in pursuance of the proper functioning of the association; to allow the exchange of information; as well as the management of the membership and are used only within the AFA.
- As you can see at the bottom of the membership form, the amount paid, the method of payment, the cheque number, if applicable and its date are noted to facilitate good management of the accounts.
- These personal details are stored in our database during the term of your membership, and your email address is included in the AFA contacts list for AFA messages.
- In case of non-renewal of membership, the details are removed at the end of the "period of grace March 31st", unless otherwise requested by the interested party.
If the non-renewing member had requested inclusion in the Members' Directory then those details are also removed.
