SAFFRON WALDEN & VILLAGES TEAM MINISTRY

The Grapevine

COVERING THE PARISHES OF SAFFRON WALDEN,
WIMBISH, DEBDEN, ASHDON AND HADSTOCK

Welcome to our services today

Twelfth Sunday after Trinity
22nd August 2021

Collect

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray and to give more than either we desire or deserve: pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

First Reading: Ephesians 6.10-20

Be strong in the Lord and in the strength of his power. Put on the whole armour of God, so that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For our struggle is not against enemies of blood and flesh, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the cosmic powers of this present darkness, against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly places. Therefore take up the whole armour of God, so that you may be able to withstand on that evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm. Stand therefore, and fasten the belt of truth around your waist, and put on the breastplate of righteousness. As shoes for your feet put on whatever will make you ready to proclaim the gospel of peace. With all of these, take the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the flaming arrows of the evil one. Take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. Pray in the Spirit at all times in every prayer and supplication. To that end keep alert and always persevere in supplication for all the saints. Pray also for me, so that when I speak, a message may be given to me to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel, for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may declare it boldly, as I must speak.

Gospel: John 6.56-69

Jesus said to the crowd: 'Those who eat my flesh and drink my blood abide in me, and I in them. Just as the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father, so whoever eats me will live because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven, not like that which your ancestors ate, and they died. But the one who eats this bread will live for ever.' He said these things while he was teaching in the synagogue at Capernaum. When many of his disciples heard it, they said, 'This teaching is difficult; who can accept it?' But Jesus, being aware that his disciples were complaining about it, said to them, 'Does this offend you? Then what if you were to see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before? It is the spirit that gives life; the flesh is useless. The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life. But among you there are some who do not believe.' For Jesus knew from the first who were the ones that did not believe, and who was the one that would betray him. And he said, 'For this reason I have told you that no one can come to me unless it is granted by the Father.' Because of this many of his disciples turned back and no longer went about with him. So Jesus asked the twelve, 'Do you also wish to go away?' Simon Peter answered him, 'Lord, to whom can we go? You have the words of eternal life. We have come to believe and know that you are the Holy One of God.'

Post Communion

God of all mercy, in this eucharist you have set aside our sins and given us your healing: grant that we who are made whole in Christ may bring that healing to this broken world, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

REFLECTIONS - CHRIS BISHOP

The closing words from St John's Gospel are 'there are many other things that Jesus did, which, if each of them was written individually, I don't think the world would contain the written scrolls'.

Yes, so much that, unfortunately, we do not have, even though what we do have is enough to challenge us, as well as to strengthen our faith.

When we read the Gospels and the Epistles, it is reassuring to know how honest the writing is. The word 'spin', which we are used to hearing these days in the world of politics, doesn't seem to feature in these precious scrolls. For instance, read about the disciples' mistakes and blunders. One writer said about the disciples, 'if they were these perfect followers who always did things right and never stumbled along the way, well, I could not relate to that'.

So, having said that, we come to the Gospel reading for today and are told, in no uncertain terms, that, 'because of this (what Jesus said about himself) many of his disciples turned back and no longer went about with him'.

They were some of the many who were followers but, when Jesus challenged the 12, the inner cabinet, if you like, with 'Do you also wish to go away', he received the positive response of 'Lord, to whom can we go? You have the words of eternal life'.

Hindsight is a great thing.

What would have been our reactions if we had been there within that motley crowd of followers, listening to the words we hear recorded in today's Gospel? Here are incredible and rather chilling words about flesh and blood, even for members of a society living under occupation, with all the violence and uncertainty of life at that time.

For those who did not leave Jesus, despite everything else, they obviously saw love, healing and hope, and saw that there there was nowhere else to go and, therefore, no one else to follow!

PRAYER FOR THIS WEEK

Father, we praise you for the gift of words: the words we hear and read, the words we speak and write. As we handle and use the Holy Scriptures, make us more sensitive to what they say, more appreciative of the life and truth in these pages, and of the love and courage of those who wrote them; and open our ears to your voice, and our lives to yourself; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
