Prayers by Barbara

Dear Father, Listen to us when we pray to you in faith, open our hearts and minds to your love and teachings. Help us to respect the beliefs of others even if we do not share them.

Let us thank God for our different seasons not only for the seasons of the year, but for the seasons of the Church which help us follow your word.

Lord in your mercy

Here our prayer

We pray for our community here in Ashdon for all those that live and work here. We pray for our school and all Schools, for the children as they start their end of term activities, for the children that will be changing school, going on to college and university may your guidance be with them.

We pray for our church, the Baptist Church and all the Churches in Saffron Walden team may we spread your word with kindness and love in all that we do in your name as your disciples were instructed by you.

Dear God we pray for all people of your world, we pray for those that live in poverty, where there is disease, war and they feel there is no hope, be with them. Show our government and governments of world and us, how we can serve you to help your world to be a better place. For us to be better stewards of the world so we can make sure that our children's, children have a world that is full of your glory.

Lord in your mercy

We pray for those who mourn at this time remembering the families and friends of Linda smith who's funeral was here on Friday for Ron Dunkley who's Ashes were interred here on Saturday now with his wife Rose, Ron was 100 years old and for Brian Darling who's funeral is here on Monday.

We pray for the families and friends of those that lost their lives on the Titan Sub.

Rejoicing in the fellowship of all your Saints we commend ourselves and the whole of creation to your unfailing love.

Merciful Father Accept these prayers, for the sake of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ.

Please join me in the Lord's prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory for ever and ever, Amen.
