

Dear Lord

We thank you for another new day and for bring us all together, we thank you for the gift of being able to speak to you directly through prayer. We gather before you today to express our concerns for the Church and the world, and to thank you for your compassion and all that you provide for us.

We pray for the farmers as they finish this year's harvest and start to get the ground ready for next years crops, may you hand be with them to help all the farmers in need where the ground is poor or there is war.

Lord in your Mercy

We pray for your church here in Ashdon and all that worship here regularly and for those that come to pray on their own. We pray for our team for Hadstock and all that work and serve there, for John and Alex has they take on their new callings and for their replacements we place this in your loving hands we pray that you will be with the Team Council this week who will discussing the way to proceed.

Loving God, we pray for our local community and all that live and work here. Please show us how we can best serve people who are struggling in any way.

We pray for the children, teachers and administrators as they begin the new school year. May they find your love in the classroom and be free from bullying.

We pray the Baptist Church and all that worship there.

Lord in Your Mercy

We pray for our King and his family and all that serve him as we remember the passing of the Queen last year at this time.

We pray for your world, particularly those countries that are torn apart by conflict, illness and hunger. We continue to pray for the people of Ukraine. Let us pray for the people of Morocco. We ask for your protection and support for all refugees who have had to move to new countries. We pray for the leaders of all nations that they would strive for justice and peace for all people.

We remember in our prays today those that were killed in 9/11 and those that are still suffering from their injuries for the firefighters and medical staff who put their lives at risk that day and every day. We pray for our firefighters here in the UK and firefighters all over the world.

Lord in your Mercy

We pray for all those that are sick in body and mind and remember them in our prayers

Lord in your Mercy

We pray for all those that are grieving today over a loss of a loved one. May we be assured that we will meet again those whom we have loved and lost for a while.

Let us remember Len and Joy Cable whose names are in our remembrance book for this week

We pray for Janet Lawrence (Marsh) who died on suddenly on Tuesday we remember her daughter Charlotte, Husband Tony - her friends and family.

We pray for Jeremy's father, his family and friends, for my brother George whose funeral is on Tuesday and for his family and friends.

May they rest in your internal love.

Merciful Father

Accept these prayers, for the sake of your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ.
