Poem

Don't Miss Me More Than Once A Day
by Donna Ashworth, read by Rachel

Don't miss me more than once a day,
For life is moving fast.
Don't wish all of your time away,
Dreaming of the past.
Don't waste the moment looking at,
The things I left behind me.
I'm not within those walls or boxes
The heart is where you'll find me.
Don't dread to say my name, sweet one,
Don't fear the wrath of sadness.
Just take the love you had for me,
And turn it into gladness.
Don't worry when my birthday comes
Don't feel me missing more.
I'm filled with love you're sending me,
Just as I was before.
Some days your anger will rush out,
Your tears will find their way.
To me, wherever I am then.
I'll soothe them all away.
When I am gone don't miss me more,
Than once, or twice a day.
There's so much life to live, my love.
I'm with you, all the way.

Poem

Feel No Guilt in Laughter
read by Kate

Feel no guilt in laughter, she'd know how much you care.
Feel no sorrow in a smile that she is not here to share.
You cannot grieve forever; she would not want you to.
She'd hope that you could carry on the way you always do.
So, talk about the good times and the way you showed you cared,
The days you spent together, all the happiness you shared.
Let memories surround you, a word someone may say
Will suddenly re-capture a time, an hour a day,
That brings her back so clearly as though she were still here,
And fills you with the feeling that she is always near.
For if you keep those moments, you will never be apart
And she will live forever locked safely in your heart.

Bible Reading

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd, I lack nothing.
He makes me lie down in green pastures,
he leads me beside quiet waters, he refreshes my soul.
He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake.
Even though I walk through the darkest valley
I will fear no evil, for you are with me;
your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies.
You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows.
Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.
