LOGLINE: Corruption, Murder and Drugs all the ingredients for the devils work.

SUMMARY: Having survived the Bradford terrorist attack, Bryony Peters transfers to CID. Her first case, that of a young woman found dead following an overdose of cocaine alone in her flat, sets him on a course of investigation that takes him from small-time drug dealers and joy-riders to ram-raids, corruption, murder, arson, money laundering and large scale importing of Class A drugs.

With few officers in the division, she can trust, Bryony and her team of trusted officers must tread carefully. As they move ever closer to bringing down an entire house of despection, her plan has to be foolproof. Or she may risk everything, including her life, as she tries to uncover the main villain of the piece.
