

INTERNATIONAL DAY TO END POVERTY 2023.

Theme for 2023: Dignity for all in practice

October 17 is the International Day to End Poverty, or IDEP for short. A platform for people living in poverty to speak out about their lives and their struggles against poverty.

This day provides an opportunity for us all to say what needs to change to enable our own communities to thrive.

HELP THE APLE COLLECTIVE #LIGHTUPTHEUKMAP

The “Light Up The UK Map” campaign, aims to showcase the incredible efforts being made to tackle poverty throughout the UK. This initiative boldly brings together individuals with lived experiences of poverty during IDEP!

This is your opportunity to shine a light on the incredible work you are doing. You can:

- Raise your voice
- Speak out
- Showcase your work
- Stand united with others

Get involved in any way you want!

- Having a local coffee morning
- Run an activity
- Tell us what dignity means to someone with lived experiences of poverty.
- Support us online and show solidarity using our hashtags!

Or scan this QR code and fill in our online form to add your information to our online map:
