

FILES FROM USCHI'S LiFe

Uschi's Life stands for my YouTube Channel

<https://www.youtube.com/@uschislife>

Since I always provide you with freebies, it would be great if you subscribe to my channel and press the bell. Then you will be informed immediately when there is something new.

You can also find information on how to get there on my little blog www.blogbyuschi.de

The videos and my blog are my hobby. I am neither a trained web designer nor a graphic designer, but I taught myself everything I do here and learned by reading a lot. Also I do not sell files.

I therefore do not guarantee the freebie. I stitched it and it worked.

If you publish pictures, please mention that you got them from Uschi's Life.

You can now also find me in my Facebook group
<https://www.facebook.com/groups/uschislife>

It greets you warmly
