

Disclaimer Chiron

The client is and remains at all times responsible for performing any action learned during a Chiron course or online program. The content of the sessions and program are not intended to replace medical advice from a veterinarian and/or medical specialist. Chiron reserves the right to discontinue sessions until you have contacted your own veterinarian if we deem it necessary.

In addition, under no circumstances can Chiron give any guarantees and/or guarantee results; these depend in part on the client's commitment and how the client carries out the assignments. Also, the use of the program and any decisions made as a result of the course and/or master class/webinar is the client's own responsibility. Chiron accepts no liability in any form whatsoever.
