

JOIN US

NOW HIRING

CONTINUING
AIRWORTHINESS MANAGER

Part ML.A.302. Responsible for the management and supervision of continuing airworthiness activities

Primary Duties and Responsibilities:

- Supervision of the Continuing Airworthiness and staff that do Tech Record Duties
- Ensure compliance with relevant Airworthiness regulations
- Manage the continuing airworthiness of the Companies Managed Aircraft fleet
- Develop and control the Aircraft maintenance programmes as appropriate
- Carry out Airworthiness Reviews and preparation for taking on new aircraft as part of the Managed Aircraft Fleet
- Assess Airworthiness Directives & OEM service information and ensure application as necessary within required timescales
- Ensure the timely updating and accuracy of the Continuing Airworthiness records system
- Ensure that log books are maintained accurately and updated within required timescales
- Liaise with Company personnel and customers regarding maintenance requirements
- Actively work to create new business opportunities
- Facilitate audits by Aviation Authorities as required

Requirements :

- Must be acceptable to the UK CAA to hold the position of Continuing Airworthiness Manager and preferably have held a similar position previously.
- Must be appropriately qualified or qualified by proven experience.
- Must have appropriate experience and training on relevant aircraft types.
- Must have experience in a business aviation environment.
- All applicants must be eligible to work and live in the UK and be within commuting distance to EX14 4LG.

APPLY NOW

01404 642024