

		Loch Ard. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ The Altskeith planning application was anticipated to be withdrawn after comments from SEPA and concerns regarding flooding and sewage. ▪ Forestry has decided to withdraw its application for a zip wire at The Lodge. New applications: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ▪ Change of use for the former police station to a Pharmacy. ▪ Drumlean Kennel cottage: Request for restriction on the original planning permission to be removed, as original planning consent understood to be for use by employees of the estate. This would be investigated further to allow feedback and any concerns to be advised. ▪ New extension at Queens Crescent – no concerns.
9.	Reports:	Finances: No change Stirling Councillors: No report Police: The representatives from Police Scotland ran through their report from 1 September to 5 October. 3 incidents noted - anti social behaviour, vandalism and a disturbance of the peace. Road safety within the community was discussed and the police were being vigilant. A further discussion regarding appropriate line markings being required within the village to assist drivers to park conscientiously and courteously as the main street was a cause for concern with many residents. Speeding was again raised as an issue and Police Scotland requested that all incidents be reported to allow them to monitor and respond. No incidents of theft, although moving forward into the darker nights and winter months, there was always opportunists and residents should be more vigilant ensure out door garages and sheds were secure. There would be more visual presence from the Police over the next few weeks regarding concerns from residents regarding the noise from the main street late at night. The Police were asked if they would be doing another police surgery within the village, and responded that of the several dates on which they were available in the Tourist information building, not one person had approached them. The effective use of police resource and time required that these be stopped with no further surgeries planned at the moment. Broadband: No progress to report National Park: Fishing permits were discussed and the sale of permits would remain the same Community Trusts: Community Grant scheme the closing date for applications would be 12 December. Community Action Plan: Details from community questionnaire due in and their next meeting due within the next couple of weeks, the date would be communicated, Aberfoyle Village People: Extensive work by volunteers within the village clearing the paths by the river also clearing dead trees from the river noted and welcomed. Meetings attended: No other meetings attended.

Next meeting 3 November 2016 in Inversnaid Hotel (rescheduled to Aberfoyle – 17 November)