

SIGNAL

Family performance from 5 years

A play with movement, sound, light and film. Dancers and audience create a performance together.

Signal is a performance that invites you in, sends out and signals. A play with movement, sound, light, film and images. In Signal, the dancers and the audience are in the same space – experiencing and moving the performance forwards – together. Step into a poetic, surprising and delightfully willful performance with new perspectives. In Signal you can sit, stand and walk. And hold someone's hand if you want to!

"An interactive all-art piece with the audience in the lead role." Ylva Lagercrantz Spindler, SvD

"Claire Parsons has again, after a series of choreographies for children's audiences with Marmelad as the top listing, created vital contemporary dance art for the most responsive, concentrated and open-minded audience: children." Margareta Sörenson, New Stage Blog
