

The Kerslake Commission interim report launch

Social media toolkit for Advisory Board

Tweet one:

Pleased to be part of the #KerslakeCommission Advisory Board launching its interim report today. It asks the government to learn lessons from Everyone In and increase investment in homelessness services to avoid a surge in rough sleeping: <https://bit.ly/2TvWV0x>

Graphic here.

Tweet two:

The #KerslakeCommission is today launching its interim report calling on the government to learn lessons from Everyone In and increase investment in homelessness services to avoid a surge in rough sleeping:

<https://bit.ly/2TvWV0x>

Graphic here.

Tweet three:

Everyone In was a radical response to rough sleeping that needs to continue. Thanks to #KerslakeCommission chair, Lord Bob Kerslake and Advisory Board members whose expertise has fed into the Commission's interim report:

<https://bit.ly/2TvWV0x>

Graphic here.

Suggested handles to tag in post: @Voa1234, @AnsafAnzhar, @twocitiesnickie, @BobBlackman, @david_bogle, @AndyBurnhamGM, @tomcopley, @C_A_Gray, @Rickviews, @JGJamieson, @Gill_Leng, @CllrDRodwell, @CatherineRyder, @jon_sparkes, @Ms_SThompson, @BolaOwolabi8, @TomRenhard, @ExpertCitizens

Tweet four:

The #KerslakeCommission received 104 evidence submissions from Local Authorities, people with lived experience of homelessness, and health, housing and homelessness organisations, and makes 22 recommendations to end rough sleeping. Read the report here: <https://bit.ly/2TvWV0x>

Graphic here.

Tweet five:

To deliver its manifesto commitment of ending rough sleeping by 2024, the Government should continue to treat rough sleeping as a public health priority. Read the #KerslakeCommission interim report here:

<https://bit.ly/2TvWV0x>

Graphic here.

Tweet six:

“Been on the streets for 10yrs off and on, and it’s the first time felt like I’ve been treated like a person.” Lived experience submissions to the #KerslakeCommission show that we must continue to treat rough sleeping as an emergency: <https://bit.ly/2TvWV0x>

Graphic here.