

Policies and Procedures

Health and Safety Policy

The Centre contact will take all responsible steps to promote the safety, security and welfare of the Centre's staff, clients and members of the public who have lawful access to its premises.

COMMTACS learning & development Health and Safety Policy

COMMTACS learning & development recognises that it must:

- Provide and maintain safe and healthy conditions taking into account the requirements of the Health and Safety At Work Act (1974) and its appendices
- Provide training and instruction to employees and clients
- Make available, as necessary, safety devices and protective equipment and provide instruction in their use
- Maintain a constant interest in Health and Safety matters
- Facilitate and supervise the assessment of risk and hazard in the use of materials or the carrying out of processes, activities and duties
- Ensure that all employees, clients and members of the public entering the Centre's premises or making use of its resources are required to meet the obligation placed on them by the Act

A Irvine
Director

COMMTACS learning & development

