British Consul-General in München - Simon Kendall

DBG NEW YEAR'S RECEPTION

On his leave from Munich, Simon will talk about German-British aspects and give a respective outlook on 2024.

Simon Kendall began his career with the British government in 1996 and has extensive experience of policy-making in both the international trade and domestic security sectors. He served in several overseas postings, including Assistant Trade Commissioner at the British Consulate-General in Hong Kong, First Secretary at the British Embassy in Berlin and he started the position as Her Majesty's Consul General in Munich in 2018.

Simon will tell us about his successor and maybe his new post.
