Arkaba is a 60,000 acre outback property that has been transformed from a sheep station to a private wildlife conservancy by Wild Bush Luxury, who have implemented on ground conservation management on the property. Located in one of Australia's most ancient and ecologically significant landscapes, South Australia's Flinders Ranges, Arkaba is a genuine blend of conservation and tourism.

15:00 Your afternoon guided safari is capped off with a sundowner drink on top of the ranges with the scale and grandeur of outback South Australia laid out for miles around.

19:30 Dinner is hosted by one of Arkaba's field guides and is shared with fellow guests providing an atmosphere more akin to staying with friends in the country, or a private safari lodge than a typical luxury hotel.

Arkaba's true luxury comes in the fact that 60,000 acres are shared by just 10 guests, taking the definition of exclusivity to a new level in Australia. Nestled amongst the ancient landscape of the Flinders Ranges, Arkaba is a genuine blend of conservation and tourism. The focus at Arkaba is going beyond the walls of the five room Arkaba Homestead into the depths of the 60,000 wildlife conservancy with expert field guides interpreting the wildlife and wilderness around you. With no telephones, televisions or Wi-Fi, we invite you to disconnect from the hustle and bustle of everyday life, reconnect with nature and enjoy a carefully crafted experience program.

Room Description

The original layout of 1850s' homestead has been retained, delightfully making all of the five guestrooms unique. Each has its own character and all have ensuite bathrooms and open out onto a shaded verandah with individual views of the surrounding ranges. Four are located in the homestead, while the Coachman's Cottage in the corner of the garden provides a fifth guestroom and is ideal for honeymooners.

The rooms are air conditioned / heated and the mix of king and twin beds have premium mattresses, organic cotton sheets and a choice of pillows to ensure a great night's sleep.

A comfortable library with deep leather armchairs and a large stone fireplace provides seclusion for enjoying a quiet drink and a good book, while dinner is hosted on the terrace overlooking the ranges. In the heat of summer, the swimming pool overlooking the Arkaba Creek is a welcome retreat after a morning or day spent exploring the bush.

08:00 Breakfast

This morning your experience program may see you taking a guided walk through Arkaba's ancient landscape into creek beds lined with seemingly immortal river red gums. Walking safaris are tailored to your interests and cover some of the best bushwalking territory in Australia.

Within Arkaba's (relatively small by Australian standards!) 60,000 acres, they are seeing that they can make a difference and if they we can influence minds and opinions from others who stay, there is an unquantifiable impact that Wild Bush Luxury can have in saving Australia's native wildlife beyond Arkaba's boundaries.

LUNCH

Lunch and time at leisure to plunge into the pool overlooking Arkaba Creek and the ranges behind in summer or recline by the stone fireplace in winter.

15:00 A completely different 4WD safari this afternoon will take you deep into the Arkaba's 60,000 acre private wildlife conservancy. You'll explore high ranges, rolling hill country, gorges and valleys revealing a huge variety of habitat providing the opportunity to immerse yourself in the story of the bush - its ancient geology, diverse wildlife and the chance to get 'hands on' with active conservation programs on the property.

19:30 Hosted three course dinner with matching South Australian wine on the Arkaba Terrace overlooking the ranges.

Uluru has sat in the middle of Australia for hundreds of millions of years but the show it puts on changes constantly. The best venue to watch the spectacle unfold is from Longitude 131°, a gathering of luxury pavilions nestled among the rust-red landscape.

The desert base fans out from the cool sanctuary of the Dune House, site of lounging, cocktails and Rock gazing. Dine overlooking the nation’s spiritual heart whilst savouring contemporary cuisine curated from the finest produce from all around the country. Retreat to Spa Kinara for a rejuvenating treatment, relax poolside or absorb the breathtaking setting from the Dune Top, best observed submerged in the plunge pool, glass-in-hand.
