2015 Gers Terre à Terre A blend of tannat, malbec and merlot, this wine feels like the edge of a forest in peak summer, bursting with thyme and wild-clover scents. Oak tannins push that herbal scent toward eucalyptus, but the plum fruit is rich enough to carry it, smacking with a plum-pit freshness. It holds together for days, as saline complexity emerges and the fruit trends to warm blackberry and blueberry syrup flavors. There's enough going on to make this a meal on its own; decant it a few hours before the guests arrive for a dinner party, and pour it when the conversation falters.

TERRE A TERRE

*Respectueux des origines de son terroir calcaire, cet assemblage est le reflet des traditions ancestrales qui ont fait sa renommée. Les 18 mois de maturation en barrique peaufinent un vin puissant qui allie noblesse et saveurs gourmandes.
A l'image des magnifiques terres du Domaine de Gensac, ce vin se révélera harmonieux
et conservera son intensité exceptionnelle.*
