

RESTAURANTS

WAVERLY INN

Fantastic atmosphere and 5-star food
16, Bank Street, New York 10013
Tel: +1 917 828 1154
www.waverlynyc.com

FREEMANS

American fare, craft cocktails & Colonial tavern decor draws a hip crowd to this hidden-away spot. Very nice brunch...
End of Freemans Alley, Rivington Street between Chrystie and the Bowery
Lower East side NY
Tel: +1 (212) 420-0012
www.freemansrestaurant.com/

RINTINTIN

The eclectic menu has a Mediterranean slant at this small, airy bistro with booths & a bar. Also good for brunch.
14 Spring Street, NY 10012
Tel: +1 (646) 666 0114
www.rintitinnyc.com/

MALAPARTE

This intimate, modest neighborhood eatery with a bar supplies thin-crust pizzas & housemade pasta.
753 Washington St, NY 10014
www.malapartenyc.com

THE ODEON

Lively bistro with outdoor seating serving French-American food, plus brunch & late-night bites. Used to be Bob Dylan's favourite place.
145 W Broadway NY 10013
www.theodeonrestaurant.com

FELIX

French bistro classics. Known primarily for its historical cast iron buildings, high-end shops, and celebrity havens, despite the hype the area has retained an air of quiet intimacy and friendly welcome.
340 W Broadway, NY 10013
www.felixny.com

BARS

ATTABOY COCTAIL BAR

Innovative, creative cocktails & classic concoctions mixed up in a trendy industrial-style space
134 Eldridge St, New York 10002
Mail: attaboy134@gmail.com
<http://attaboyus/nyc/>

BEMELMANS BAR

Legendary bar with live music. Woody Allen plays here once a month.
35 E 76th Street, NY 10075
<https://www.rosewoodhotels.com/en/the-carlyle-new-york/dining/bemelmans-bar>